PREFACE.

THE materials from which this little work has been compiled are scattered over more than 1000 volumes, some very rare, and to be consulted only in libraries in India, Russia and other parts of the Continent, or in the British Museum. The field has been so wide and the materials so immense, that the work of condensation has been almost as difficult as that of collecting, many statements are, therefore, simply suggestive, amplification would require several volumes. The Author has spared neither time nor labour in collecting and classifying the treasures drawn from the rich and new storehouse of Eastern Emblems and Proverbs with the view of helping those who have neither the means of collecting a large reference library nor the time to spend in the search.

This work began a quarter of a century ago in the jungles of India for the instruction of peasants and women, is designed to afford some help to the following classes—Orientalists, Lovers of Folk Lore, Teachers and Preachers. The former desire to open a vista into the recesses of Eastern thought on moral and religious subjects especially in relation to women and the masses, the latter are anxious to fix in the school, the pulpit, or the press great spiritual truths by means of emblems and illustrations drawn from the depths of the popular mind. Those classes may, in the pithy and pointed illustrations of Proverbs, find a quarry out of which to draw some of their materials

Orientalists are at last recognizing the truth that Proverbs are as deserving of their research as coins and inscriptions, and that whereas the latter refer chiefly to kings and the upper classes, Proverbs throw a light on the dark recesses of social life, on archaisms, old customs, history, and ethnology. Even the Zenana, barred to the stranger, opens its portals to let man have a peep in and spy out the thoughts and feelings of woman, who, in the East, depicts her feelings and thoughts in Proverbs and racy sayings

The Proverbs selected in this book, though limited to those serving to illustrate moral and religious subjects, show how widely scattered nations under similar circumstances have come to similar conclusions, many of these resemblances arise from the identity of human nature, or are a portion of the spiritual heritage which men brought away with them from the cradle of the human race, and improved on by subsequent communication, by shewing the acute observation and sharp moral sensibility of the masses, they prove God has not left himself without witness in the human breast, they, therefore form a basis for those who are labouring to bridge over the gulf between Eastern and Western thought.

The nineteenth century is pre eminently distinguished for the attention it gives to elevating the masses by knowledge conveyed to them through the acceptable medium of parable and illustration. On this one point East and West concur—that, to tell on the minds of millions we must make full use of illustrations from Nature and were before books—they come from the great books of Nature and common sense—from powers of observation, not blunted by book-cram; hence among the Proverbs in this book, though principally Eastern,* there are very few that are not intelligible to the European mind; like the Proverbs of Solomon, the Psalms, Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," and the Arabian Nights, they speak in a language "understood by the common people."

While illustrations by Emblem and Proverb are indispensable as media for conveying instruction in the East, they are highly valued in Europe also. The following observations of Archbishop Trench will find a response with all those who have aimed at winning the attention of the working classes, the peasantry, and "the Arabs of Society:"—

"Any one who by after investigation has sought to discover how much our rustic hearers carry away, even from sermons to which they have attentively listened, will find that it is hardly ever the course or tenor of the argument, supposing the discourse to have contained such; but if anything has been uttered, as it used so often to be by the best Puritan preachers, tersely, pointedly, epigrammatically, this will have stayed by them, while all the rest has passed away. Great preachers to the people, such as have found their way to the universal heart of their fellows, have ever been great employers of proverbs."

The Author will feel greatly obliged for any corrections or additions to this work forwarded for him to the Publishers.

* Many Russian Proverbs are given, which were collected by the Author in Moscow; but the Russians are a semi-Oriental people, and their Proverbs have an Eastern ring about them.

EASTERN PROVERBS AND EMBLEMS.

PART I

The Ant teaches the Sluggard.—Prov 6 6-8

ANIMALS teach us—thus the ass knowing his owner while man knows not God Is 1 3 the crow having no barns, yet God provides for it, the swallow knowing his time to emigrate but man forgets his time for departure from the world Jer 8 7, and the ant here teaches Chana'yea states the lessons which the dog teaches us are— of contentment with little—vigilant watching gratitude and fortitude the power of patience indifference to cold and heat The crow teaches providence for the future and agility, the cock—early rising sharing food and protecting women.

With respect to Ants their uniform care and promptitude in improving every moment as it passes the admirable order in which they proceed to the scene of action the perfect harmony which reigns in their bands the eagerness which they discover in running to the assistance of the weak and the fatigued the readiness with which those that have no burden yield the way to their fellows that bend under their load or when the grub happens to be too heavy cut it in two and take the half upon their own shoulders furnish a striking example of industry, benevolence and concord The skill and vigour which they display in digging underground in building their houses in constructing their cells and their prudence and foresight in making use of the proper seasons to collect a supply of provision sufficient for their purpose are admirable

Hebrew — As rust comes on iron, so do weeds on a field unused

Persian — Water long stagnant becomes putrid

Arab — A well is not to be filled with dew

Telugu — I am in the village an antelope in the jungle

If you talk of work my body becomes heavy

If you talk of d nner my body swells with delight

Italian — An idle brain is the devil's workshop

Badaga — The sluggard like the peacock is afraid of rain.

Tamil — The horse opens the mouth when one says oats, shuts it when one says bridle

Appearances Deceitful — GEN 13 10-13

Bengal — How long does a dam of sand last?

Tamil — A face like the moon a mind of deadly poison

Oriental — Trust not to appearances—the drum which makes much noise is filled with wind

Turk — Be the pig white or black it is still a pig

Russian — The cow has a long tongue, but she is not allowed to speak

Tamil — While squatting a cat when springing a tiger

Turk — The vessel leans, but her course is straight

China — You may draw a tiger's skin not his bones You may know a man's face but not his mind

Avoid the appearance of Evil — 1 THES 5 22

Japan — In a field of melons do not pull off your shoes Under a palm tree do not adjust your cap

Bengal — Even a holy cow, if found in company with a stolen one may be impounded

Isaac — Cover yourself not with the skin of a wolf if you would not be considered a wolf

Telugu — One associating himself with the vile will be ruined, it is like drinking milk under a palm-tree i.e. where, however innocent, it would be suspected he was drinking toddy

The Angry Fool as a Bear robbed of her Whelps

PROV 17 12

The female bear is eminent for intense affection to her young and dreadfully furious when deprived of them. Disregarding every consideration of danger to herself she attacks with intense ferocity every animal that comes in her way and in the bitterness of her heart will attack even a band of armed men. The Russians of Kamtschatka never venture to fire on a young bear when the mother is near, for if the cub drop she becomes enraged to a degree little short of madness and if she get sight of the enemy will only quit her revenge with her life.

A she bear destroyed the forty two children who mocked the prophet 2 Kings 2 24. God's fury with the idolatrous Jews is compared to a bear bereaved Hos 13 8. David had to defend himself against a bear 1 Sam 17 34-36.

Saul 1 Sam 20 30 and Herod Mat 2 16 are striking examples of a fool in his wrath.

Jacobs so is like a bear for one man's faults destroyed a whole city Gen. 24. Saul similarly destroyed the innocent priests 1 Sam 22 11-19 so Achish did so when he heated the furnace seven times Dan 3 13-19.

Beigal —Scratching the itch only produces a wound

Telegu —Pouring ghi on fire

Gijerat —Anger and water descend

Tamul —The irascible is like a man on horseback without a bridle

Bengal —A fire in the thatch is quickly kindled so anger

Badaga —If a jackal howls will my old buffalo die? If an angry man curses me what shall I lose?

Ta ul —Like the man who would not wash his feet in the tank because he was angry with it

Modern Creek —The rancour of a camel is unforgiving

Man a Wild Ass's Colt — Jer 11 12

The wild asses commonly inhabit the deserts of Great Tartary they migrate to feed in summer to the north and east of the Aral Sea in winter they retreat towards India they go also to Persia Like wild horses they are very shy, they will suffer the approach of man for an instant and will then dart off with the utmost rapidity, fleet as the wind The vast salt desert is their home they scorn the multitude of the city, the wild ass snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure Jer 2 24 The European ass is an emblem of obstinacy and immobility, not so the wild one The Tartar asses exceed horses in speed and are never caught alive Job 39 5-8

Ishmael is called a wild man like an ass Gen 16 12 Ephraim is compared to a wild ass Hos 8 9 as he traversed the desert as earnestly in pursuit of idols as the wild untamed ass did in search of his mate Jer 14 6 The asses snuff up the wind like dragons &c seek the air for want of water to cool their internal heat Job 24 5 Robbers are called wild asses so the Bedouins, the desolate city a joy of wild asses Is. 32 14 Nibuchadne ar lived among wild asses, Dan 5 21

The natural tenacity of sin is also compared to the Ethiopian's skin, Jer 13 23

Turk — In washing a negro we lose our soap

Tamul — Though I wash three times a day, will the crow become a white crane?

Kurd — Out of a dog's tail you cannot get fat

Teman — No man's disposition will alter neither can a dog's tail be made straight, the stubborn woman will even put her husband in a basket and sell him

Ten an — If you take a bear skin and wash it ever so long will it instead of its native blackness ever become white? If you beat a wooden image, will it hence acquire any good quality?

Dadaga — Even if you give milk to a young snake, will it leave off its habit of creeping under the hedge?

Synce — If y^e would be king (master of yourself) become a wild ass, i.e., retire to solitude in the desert

Beauty in the Ignorant as a Jewel in a Swine's Snout — Prov 11 22

A body may be beautiful, but the soul loathsome—such were Abalom and Izabel

Chanakya — A handsome youth of high family, but without learning, is like the palis (Butea fraxinea) tree, far to see, but without scent

Hindu Dramatist — Men are foolish in cherishing the gay blossoms of the palis, whilst they neglect the fruit-bearing amon, because its flowers are insignificant

Drishtanta Shatak — A bad person, though decorated, remains the same as cowdung, which, though it be fertilizing, does not become pleasing

Bengal — Outside smooth and painted, inside only straw—like Hindu idols stuffed with straw

Russian — A head without a mind is a mere statue

Urdu — The fruit of the colocynth is good to look at, not to taste

Tamil — An ignorant man is despised even by women

Afghan — My friend is black, but so is molasses black, i.e., which is the best medicine for the wounded

Persian — The diamond fallen into the dunghill is not the less precious, tho' dust raised by high winds to heaven is not the less vile

Malay — Like a broom bound with a silk thread

Arab — Thorny trees produce gum

Turk — Man's perfection is interior, a beaz's, exterior

Sanskrit — The beauty of the cuckoo is the voice, of women, chastity, of the deformed learning, and of ascetics, patience

Hebrew — The bee is little among such as fly her fruit is the chief of sweet things

Beginning and Unable to Finish, not Counting the Cost — Luke 14 28

Bengal — The bird cannot fly, it flaps its wings in vain

Panjabi — A rat, too big for his hole ties a blanket to his back

Panjabi — A rat, having found a bit of turmeric, set up as a druggist

Sanskrit—In the fighting of she goats in the gathering of clouds at the dawn, in the squabble of husband and wife, the beginning is great and the doings small

Bengal—Digging for a worm up rose & snake &c, said when quarrels arise from jesting

Telugu—Make the hedge when you have sowed the seed

The Glutton's God his Belly—Psalm 3 19.

The Bengalis call a glutton one all belly. The Egyptians on embalming a body, threw the belly into the river, as the cause of all sin. Meat itself is not sinful but the inordinate desire of it longing after delicacies eating at unreasonable times Isa. 10 16 17 eating too much Luke 21 34 injuring the understanding, I rov 23 21 Solomon says put a knife to thy throat if thou be given to appetite Prov 23 2. Isaac's appetite was a snare to him Gen 25 28 27 4 so Issachar, Gen 25 30, His sons 1 Sam 2 17, Belshazzar Dan 5 1 not so Daniel's Dan 1 8-16

Persian—Why suffer anxiety for the belly? As to having a belly, the frog that lives in a rock is thy equal

Tamil—The epicure dug his grave with his teeth

China—His eyes are bigger than his stomach *

Russian—A full stomach is deaf to instruction

Fool come to thrash—my stomach is aching

Fool come to take wine—stop let me take my caftan (coat) from the nail—

&c he is great at drinking slow at work

Talud—The lion roars not in a crib full of straw, but in one full of flesh &c, fulness of bread leading to pride

Arab—The belly of a man is his enemy

Afglans express their belief that the evils of gluttony arise more from the man than the food by the following. Though the food was another's the mouth is your own &c you eat too much and you throw the blame on the food

Telugu—He slipped, fell and then said the ground was unlucky

* We have the same in English—which was the first used

Talmud — Eight things are difficult to enjoy in abundance, but in moderation are good Labour, sleep, riches, journeyings, love, warm water, bleeding, and wine

Afghan — The full stomach speaks Persian, i.e., makes one proud Persian as spoken only by the learned adds to their pride

Book Cram — 2 Tim 3 7

Mrichhalate — Nature is woman's teacher, and she learns more sense than man, the pedant, gleams from books

Talmud — He is a box of books, i.e., learning without judgment, or use of it

Tamul — He who is very learned is a learned fool

Persian — One pound of learning requires ten of common sense to acquire it

Sanskrit — Is the man possessed of books a pandit?

Sanskrit — Women are instructed by Nature, the learning of men is taught by books

Telugu — Though he have read all that can be read, and be an acute disputant, never shall the hypocrite attain to final happiness His meditations are like those of a dog on the dunghill

Sanskrit — Learning in the book is not learning, and money in the hand of another is not money, in a time of need

Angor rests in the Fool's Bosom — Ecc 7 9

The bosom is the seat of love so Christ carries the lambs of the Church in his bosom Isa. 40 11 The beggar rested in Abraham's bosom, Luke 16 22

Christ took on him our natural infirmities he wept, and was angry, on the Sabbath question Mark 3 5 in driving away the money-changers John 2 13 17 which shows there might be gill in a dove's pinion without sin fire without smoke, and motion without disturbance for it is not bare agitation, but the sediment at the bottom which troubles and defiles the water, and when we see it windy and dusty, the wind does not make but only raises, a dust, true anger, like the sword of justice, is keen but innocent, Lph 4 26, it sparkles like the coal on the altar with the fervour of pity. Anger passes through a wise man's heart, but does not rest in it, as it did with Cain Gen 4 5-8, with Jacob's sons, Gen 34 7, and with Herod, Mat 2 16. A gust of anger puts holy feelings to flight, as with David, 1 Sam 25 Elijah, 1 Kings 19 4, Job, 3 1, Jonah, 4 4, Paul

Telugu—Getting angry with a rat and setting a house on fire

Bengal—Cutting off one's nose to hinder another's journey

Bengal—His anger exploded like gunpowder

Bengal—Should an angry man retire even to the forest there is no peace for him

Malay—Anger has no eyes

Modern Greek—Anger is the list that grows old

Arab—Three things are only known in the following way—a hero in war, a friend in necessity, and a wise man in anger

Arab—Anger is the fire of the heart Prov 25 28

Telugu—A man ignorant of his own powers and those of his opponent blustering in wrath, is like a bear performing the torch dance, i.e., in which of course he will be burnt

Arab—Cure your anger by silence

Sanskrit—A good man's anger lasts an instant, a meddling man's for two hours, a base man's a day and night, a great sinner's until death

Braying a Fool in a Mortar—Prov 27 2-

Vulgar compares the trying to produce good qualities in a crooked heart to pouring milk and sugar over bramble-berries, and boiling them, which will give no flavour. In Turkey great criminals were beaten to pieces in huge mortars of iron in which they usually pounded their rice. The Jews were in Babylon under captivity, yet were their proud hearts not humbled, God sent them in anger but they ill treated them, the Chaldeans came, yet they bound the Prophet Ezekiel Ezek. 2 3 The plough breaks the earth in many places but does not better it if nothing is put in, if nothing be sown, thorns and thistles will come up so afflictions may break our estate yet if God do not sanctify these afflictions they yield only the harvest of tares. Mere affliction changes not the disposition as the fire softens not a stone, pour vinegar from vessel to vessel it never becomes wine, Is 1 5

Sanskrit—Whoever treats kindly a bad man, ploughs the sky, paints a picture on water, and bathes the wind with water Tit 3 10

Telugu—No man's disposition will alter, say what we may, neither can a dog's tail be made straight, the stubborn woman will put her husband in a basket and sell him

Sanskrit—It is possible to stop an elephant with a Lick, for everything there is a remedy, but no cure for the headstrong

The Shameless have a Brow of Brass—Is 48 4

Brass is a strong metal hence the brazen serpent in the wilderness was made of it Num 21 9, so were the gates of Babylon The sinners obstinacy is compared to a brow of brass, while the righteous on the other hand set their faces like a flint against sin of the former were Pharaoh Ex. 5 1, Saul 1 Sam. 15 9-23, Jeroboam 1 Kings 12 28-33—of the latter, Jacob Gen. 32 24-28, David 1 Sam 17 45, Stephen Acts 7 57

Sinners are also said to have a hard or stony heart & seared conscience to be past feeling they are likened to the deaf adder which will not hear the voice of the serpent charmer Such were Samuels on 1 Sam 2 35, 6 11, Jerusalem Ez 9 9 10

Finnish—The pig does not blush for its face

Shanti Shatak—Dogs delight to devour human bones which are so disgusting filled as they are with worms and moisture and they eagerly lick the putrid juice as if it was palatable Thus do mean people appear shameless when perpetrating vile actions, 2 Pet 2 22.

Deceitful Brothren as a Brook —Job 6 15

Job lived in the barren dry desert of Arabia where no river is and water is scarce, there are torrents in winter, swelling from the melting of the snow on the hills as the Ganges does very noisy but in summer dried up or absorbed in the sand The Arabs call a false friend a mirage, or a torrent, swelling noisy in prosperity but soon absorbed in the sand Valleys in Arabia that have a quarter of a mile wide of water in winter, are yet quite dry in summer

Tyre trusted in its walls and port and is now become only a place for fishermen to dry their nets on The rich fool trusted in his wealth Lule 12 19 and it left him Solomon states Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint Prov 25 19 That affection which is knit in God alone is indissoluble The Jews trusted the Egyptians who proved like a broken reed (Is 36 6) which not only fails the hand that leans upon it but pierces and wounds it

Bengal —A loose tooth and feeble friend are equally bad

Bengal —A dam of sand and the love of the vicious have the same fate

Chanah —A wicked person, though sweet speaking is not to be trusted, honey is on his tongue, but in his heart poison

Busybody, as One taking a Dog by the Ears —1 Cor 16 17

From an idle whim or a foolhardy venture a man thinks to show his prowess fancying that he is able to master the dog which others scarcely dare come near When he has taken it by the ears he finds his folly, for,

if he continues to hold it, his time is lost, and if he lets it go, it will fly at him before he can get beyond its reach. He has exposed himself both to pain and ridicule by a foolish attempt to get credit for courage and dexterity. Of the eleven Apostles, as Peter spoke most, he erred most Mat 16 22, 26 74 Paul condemns tattling women, 1 Tim 5 13

Telugu — Take a snake in a monkey's paw, &c., Jacko finds it difficult to hold it, and dangerous to let it go

Bengal — Oil your own wheel first

English — He that intermeddles with all things may go shoe the goslings

Persian — A babbler, a dog without a tail

Bengal — I bind him and he shrieks out, I loose him and he wants to fight with me

Turk — One rushing between two camels is kicked by both To live in peace one must be blind, deaf, and mute

Persian — Whoever pats scorpions with the hand of compassion receives punishment

Javan — If dogs (busybodies) go about they must expect the stick

China — It is not as wise opening the mouth as keeping it shut

Tamil — Why should a man meddle with a hatchet lying on the road and hurt his foot?

Arab — God grant us not any neighbour with two eyes

China — Let every man sweep the snow before his own doors, not busy himself with the frost on his neighbour's tiles

Kurd — When your house is of glass do not throw stones at your neighbour's house

Cingalese — The man without clothes busying himself in making jackets for dogs

Telugu — The tale bearer is the associate of the villain a stripling is a fit minister for an inflexible king, and the monkey is the only companion for the baboon

Hebrew — Give the water no passage neither a wicked woman liberty to run abroad

The Hypocrite's Words smother than Butter — Prov 55 21

These words were applied by David to his son Absalom, who drove him from Jerusalem, 2 Sam 15, which made the father wish for the wings of a dove to fly away and be at rest as the dove, sent forth from the ark found no rest for the sole of her foot. Such a hypocrite was Judas, who betrayed Christ by kissing him.

Bengal — A hypocrite a makkala fruit, beautiful outside, bitter within, a tiger in a tulsi grove, outside smooth and painted, inside only straw, i.e., like the Hindu idols stuffed with straw inside. The crow and the cuckoo have the same colour, but a very different voice.

Raghuvarsa — They concealed their anger under signs of joy, as a lake with tranquil surface hides an alligator.

Bengal — The attachment of the insincere a razor's edge.

Afghan — Under his arms a Koran, he casts his eyes on a bullock.

Malay — He sits like a tiger withdrawing his claws.

Telugu — A bear's hug.

Telugu — At home a spider (demure) abroad a tiger.

Russian — He kicks with his hind feet, licks with his tongue.

Malay — To plant sugar cane on the lips, i.e., a pleasing manner, a false heart.

Modern Greek — The mien of a bishop with the heart of a miller.

Sanskrit — A face shaped like the petals of the lotus, a voice as cool (pleasing) as sandal, a heart like a pair of scissors and excessive humility—these are the signs of a rogue.

Strife from Wrath as Butter from Milk — Prov 30 33

In Arabia and Palestine butter is made from milk put into a goat's skin, turned inside out pressed to and fro in one uniform direction till the unctuous parts are separated. Job 29 6. An angry man is compared to a city whose walls are broken down such were Samson. Judg 16,

Saul, 1 Sam 20³ 30-33, the mob at Ephesus, Acts 16 28-34, Christ was different, Mat 27 14 The fool's wrath is heavier than a stone, Prov 27 3

Shanti Shatak —The soul excited by anger is like furious elephants breaking the cords with which they are bound

Turk —Anger is suppressed by sweetness, as a great wind by a little rain

Malabar —Anger is as a stone cast into a wasp's nest

Cingalese —Provocation is a stone cast at a cobra

Japan —The cracked will break, i.e., people at variance waiting for an opportunity to split

Arab —The highest government is governing anger

Talmud —Passions are like iron thrown into the furnace, as long as it is in the fire you can make no vessel out of it

Malay —Smouldering like burning chaff, i.e., nourishing resentment

Modern Greek —The rancour of a camel is unforgiving

Caste Honour all Men.—1 Pet 2 17

Telugu —The elephant is an elephant whether on high ground or low

Canara —Does a light in the house of a low caste man not burn?

Turk —White or black, a dog remains a dog

Feman —Why should we constantly revile the Pariah? Are not his flesh and blood the same as our own? And of what caste is He who pervades the Pariah as well as all other men? Acts 17 26

Persian —Contemn no one Regard him who is above thee as thy father, him who is thine equal as thy brother, and him who is below thee as thy son

Bengal —Why not a squirrel instead of a cat if it catch mice?

Ceremonialism —Mat 15 20

China —He sought his own ass though he was sitting on it

Cingalese —Your hands and your feet are the same even though you go to Tutocorin.

Telugu —Those who roam to other lands in pilgrimage to find the God that dwells within them, are like a shepherd who searches in his flock for the sheep he has under his arm. John 4 20-24

Telugu —Even a goat can attain to such "corporeal perfection" as consists in living on leaves. how apt men are to fall into foolish whims!

Tamil —Will a crow become a swan by bathing in the Ganges?

Telugu —Fith is got rid of by washing but not bad habits.

Tamil —Though one carries a thousand shells to Benares his sin sticks to him.

The Wicked are Chaff—MAT 3 12

Chaff is light and easily carried away by the wind, such are sinners, light in their behaviour, and easily carried away by the wind of temptation and persecution. It is of little value, and therefore given over to the fire, Mat 3 12. A pound of wheat is worth a hundred-weight of chaff, the husk, or chaff, however, is of use to the corn in protecting the grain, so the world sometimes protects the good. Grown together with the wheat for a time, the chaff in threshing separates it so the Judgment Day will for ever divide the sheep from the goats, Mat 25. The wicked are also compared to bad money Jer 6 30, to bad fish, Mat 13 48, to moth eaten clothes, Is 50 9, to wells without water, 2 Pet 2.

Bengal —The white ant, the cat, and the wicked spoil good things

Persian —Profitless are some men, and what though they be born in the world, and what though they die? Are not the white ants of the bullock born also, and do they not die also?

Bengal —'Tis but threshing the chaff, i.e., labour in vain

Tamil —Though a kalam of chaff be pounded, it will not become rice

Persian —Even the poison nut and the bitter margosa are useful as drugs, but the unfeeling vile wretch is utterly unprofitable

Sanskrit —To address a judicious remark to a thoughtless man is a mere threshing of chaff

Cheerfulness—PROV 17 13

China —A hut of reeds with mirth therein is better than a palace with grief therein

Modern Greek —A hungry belly has no ears

Tamil —Food without hospitality is a medicine 2 Cor 9 7

Turk —Vinegar given is sweeter than honey

The Body a Clay House crushed before the Moth
Job 4. 19

These words were spoken by a spirit from the other world, who addressed Job at midnight

The grave is called the house appointed for all living, Job 30 23 The body is compared to a house of clay which is easily swept away by torrents, the walls of which, owing to rents, are the abodes of snakes Swallows make their houses of clay

Manu calls the body "a mansion with lones for its rafters and beams, such a mansion let the soul cheerfully quit, as a tree leaves the bank of the river, or as a bird leaves the branch of a tree, thus he has his body delivered soon from the ravaging shark the world'

In Arabia the houses in general are built of white clay, and covered with reeds Their foundations are laid in the dust or sand the country affording no firmer basis on which to build, they are exposed to all the accidents of that climate such as violent winds, and large moving pillars of sand, called sand floods by which they are liable to be blown down, or overwhelmed and crushed to the ground together with their inhabitants, unless they can effect a timely escape

These desolating calamities more generally begin about sunrise, and usually continue till towards evening, and thus men perish from the morning to evening, without any one regarding it

Robbers easily dig through the walls of houses of clay, as is the case very often in Bengal Job 24 16

The moth is a small insect which noiselessly and gradually eats through garments, though very feeble, Job 27 18 The rich are no more spared than the poor but it especially attacks things not kept clean, and does its work secretly spoils by degrees, so God gives cleanness of teeth the palmer worm the pestilence,

Amos 4 8, the moth eats the inside when the outside is good so Scrimson said when his locks were gone, I will rise up, Judg 19, 20, so the Jews, 2 Kings 15

Small insects are a great plague In Arabia and parts of India people drink bad water, from which comes an egg that produces a worm in the body, from which often comes palsy, gangrene, death

The clothes moth is of a white, shining silver, or pearl colour It is clothed with shells, fourteen in number, and these are scaly This insect eats woollen stuffs, it is produced from a grey speckled moth that flies by night, creeps among woollens, and there lays her eggs which, after a little time are hatched as worms, and in this state they feed on their habitation, till they change into a chrysalis and thence emerge into moths The young moth, or moth worm, upon leaving the egg which a pupilio had lodged upon a piece of stuff, commodious for her purpose finds a proper place of residence, grows and feeds upon the nap and likewise builds with it an apartment, which is fixed to the ground work of the stuff with several cords and a little glue From an aperture in this habitation the moth worm devours and demolishes all about him, and when he has cleared the place, he draws out all the fastenings of his tent, after which he carries it to some little distance, and then fixes it with the slender cords in a new situation. This perishing condition of a moth eaten garment as also of the insect itself, is referred to in Isa 51 6 8 "The earth shall wax old as doth a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner"

He who builds his fortunes by methods of injustice is by Job 27 18 compared to the moth which by eating into the garment wherein it makes its habitation destroys its own dwelling The structure referred to is that provided by the insect, in its larva or caterpillar state as temporary residence during its wonderful change from a chrysalis to a winged insect

Urdu —The body is a skin filled with wind.

Bengal —Plastering an old hut

Tamul —The body is an inscription on water.

The Wicked are Clouds without Water —JER 12, 13

Wicked like clouds without water in four points —

Clouds without water may be of some use in giving shade, but they do not fertilize the land, which full clouds, called the bottles of Heaven, Job 38 37, do, they are empty, and easily carried away, as is seen in famines in India arising from droughts, they darken heaven, hence the day of the Lord is called clouds and darkness, when storms and lightning arise, the clouds are God's chariot, and He holds the winds in His fist, Prov 30 4 Christ is the bow in this cloud, as he was the pillar of cloud in the wilderness, the guide of His people, which had a dark side to the enemy and a bright one to friends

Clouds are sometimes very beautiful, but useless, so a bad person doing well in the world

Malay —Flourishing like a weed beside a cesspool

A Boaster like Clouds without Rain.—Prov 2, 14.

Such were the builders of Babel, Gen 11 4-9

Bengal —A pedlar in ginger getting tidings of his ship

Syriac —Mount not a horse which does not belong to you—ie, boast not of an art you are ignorant of

Tamul —He is on foot, his words are in a palankin

Tamul —If a low bred man obtain wealth he will carry an umbrella at midnight

Bengal —A devotee of yesterday, with matted hair down to his heels

Tamul —A gold vessel does not sound, a brass one does

Bengal —A truly wealthy man, one plough to seven tailless oxen

Russian —Boast of the day in the evening, Jas 4 13

Sanskrit —The little fish splashes in even a mouthful of water

Arab —A learned man without work is a cloud without rain

The Fickle like the Morning Cloud and Early Dew.—
Hos 6 4.

The Lalita Vistara compares life to an autumnal cloud. The Shānti Shatak says "As the lightning by its flashes merely drives away the darkness for an instant, so are those who decide for a while to root out sensual desires from their minds." The morning cloud is very beautiful with its golden hues, and colours shifting and changing every minute. Early in the morning every blade is glistening with the early dew, and the light clouds are painted with all those gorgeous colours by which they seem to prepare themselves for the return of their absent king, the sun! Thus beautiful is early piety, as in Samuel's and Timothy's case, though it did not pass away. But how soon do those hues and those jewels of the early morning pass away! Long before the sun has attained his meridian height, the sky has become cloudless, and the parched land seems in vain to thirst for the refreshing dew and the kindly shower.

While in Egypt it rains sometimes only once in two years, were it not for the dews of night and inundations of the river, all vegetation would perish. Peter's resolution not to deny Christ passed away as a morning cloud before the sun of temptation, so did Judas's before the sun of gold.

Telugu — Like the post fixed in the mud, which swings to and fro

Polish — The stone often moved gathers no moss

Malay — Like a saw with a double edge

Telugu — Waking the master, giving the thief a stick

A Forgiving Spirit as Coals of Fire on an Enemy's Head.—Prov 25 21, 22

Metal is difficult to melt placed on the top of a fire of burning coals, it may be placed at the sides still no melting, but put the coals on the top or head of the vessel, and the metal soon flows down in a stream. So your enemy's hostility to you may be softened by kindness in every way, as fire to the metal, so kindness to an enemy. The Italians, however, say, revenge of a hundred years old has still its sucking teeth—it is, never grows old.

The sandal tree, most sacred tree of all,
Perfumes the very axe which bids it fall.

Forgiveness, like fire, consumes the dross of passion purifies the metal of the soul, melts and makes malleable the hardest metal of envy.

The hardest metals are melted by heaping coals of fire upon them. Such was Saul, 1 Sam 24 16-21, whose hard heart was melted by David's spirit of forgiveness. A forgiving spirit, or charity, covers many sins, Prov 10 12.

Badaga —He had nothing and was content He became rich and is discontented, Eccles 6 9

A Threefold Cord of Brotherly Unity—Eccles 4 12

There is more pleasure in what is shared with another, and help is often necessary—if one man as Joseph is in a pit he requires some one to take him out. God said of Adam in Paradise, "It was not good¹ for man to be alone," Gen 2 18 The Ramsanchis, a sect of Western India, say regarding society, 'A solitary lamp, however brilliant, casteth a shadow beneath it, place another lamp in the apartment, and the darkness of both is dissipated'

Soldiers' union is their strength A father, on his death-bed, represented unity by a bundle of sticks

Love, like fire, streams forth by natural results and unavoidable emanations, like the wine, it withers and dies if it has nothing to embrace

The Apostles were sent forth two by two, Luke 10 1, in the body all instruments of action are by pairs—hands, feet, eyes, ears, legs The live coal left alone soon loses its vital heat Iron sharpens iron Prov 27 9, 17, Ex. 18 7, 9

Sanskrit—A chariot will not go on one wheel

Sanskrit—Stay with five,* walk along with five, eat alone with five, with five there is no sorrow

Worldly Joy is the Cracking of Thorns—Eccl 7 6

Thorns at first blaze under a pot as if they would give out a mighty heat but the water in it is cold. Such is

* Referring to the Panchajati, or Indian jury of five persons worldly enjoyment all noise and smoke—no heat, cold as moonbeams Such is drunkenness—a sweet poison The wicked are compared to thorns because they are very troublesome and useless, and often cause great pain, while the crackling is quickly over and with little effect, as thorns when blazing, though they make such a noise and fire, give little heat to the water Similar is the Bengali proverb, a fire of rags, or the Basque, a fire of straw

All earthly things are like the earth, founded on nothing, they are like Absalom's mule they will most fail us when we have most need of them, 2 Sam 18 9, a velvet slipper cannot cure the gout

Dried cow-dung was the fuel commonly used for firing but this was remarkably slow in burning, a very striking contrast to thorns and furze, speedily consumed with crackling noise On this account the Arabs would frequently threaten to burn a person with cow dung as a lingering death

Worldly joys are short like a fly buzzing about a candle Herod the king was gorgeously arrayed so that the people worshipped him but he was soon after devoured by worms Acts 12 23 Queen Jezebel, a handsome woman enjoyed her grandeur but a short time and was eaten up by dogs, 2 Kings 9 10 35 Belshazzar in his grand banquet at Babylon a city larger and mightier than Delhi had his empire taken away at once as fore-shewn by a handwriting on the wall Dan. 5 5, 6

Talmud —To the wasp we must say, Neither thy honey nor thy sting—Ec, with some people have nothing to do

Basque —Who goes quickly goes twice

Telugu —Before cutting down the forest, is it necessary to consult the axe?

Deeds, not Words—Jas 2 6

Afghan —Who loves, labours

Telugu —Sweet words, empty hands

Telugu —Your mouth a sweet plum, your hand a thorn bush

Urdu —A lofty shop, but tasteless sweetmeats

Urdu —Kindness, but no milk

Turk —Though they are brothers, their pockets are not sisters

Turk —To speak of honey will not make the mouth sweet

Turk —It is not by saying Honey, honey, that sweetness comes into the mouth

Bengal —By words he softens the minds, but words will not soften the rice

Galic —The nodding of the head does not make the boat to row

Telugu —His words leap over forts, his feet do not cross the threshold

Telugu —Great words, but small measure

Russian —A tale is soon told, a deed is not soon done

Italian —Words are women, deeds are men

Telugu —It is easy to talk, but hard to stay the mind, we may teach others, but cannot ourselves understand, it is easy to lay hold on the sword, but hard to become valiant, Matt 7 26

Russian —Many counsellors, few helpers

Telugu —If you do not ask me for food and raiment, I will care for you as my own child

Canara —Knowledge consisting of words is an earthen vessel with holes

China —We do not cook rice by babbling

The Double Minded.—Unstable as a Wave—Jas 1 8

There are double tongued, 1 Tim 3 8, the double-minded, as tepid water, to be spued out, Rev 3 16

Malay — Do not embark in two boats, for you will be split and thrown on your back, Luke 16 13

Arab — Riding two horses at the same time

Turk — Who stands hesitating between two mosques returns without prayer, Matt 6 24

Russian — He hunting two hares does not catch even one

Arab — Doubt destroys faith as salt does honey, Rom

Bengal — He sees Jagannath's car, and sells plantains at the same time

Modern Greek — A rolling stone gathers no moss

Telugu — A double minded man is a post in the mud swing ing to and fro — i.e. one who wakes the master, and gives the thief a stick

Cast not Holy Things to Dogs — Matt 23 6

Sacrificial remains were not to be given to dogs as they were counted so unclean.

The wicked resemble dogs in ten points —

1 Differ in disposition and size yet all are dogs The young man that Jesus loved was a sinner as well as Judas, the Pharisee as well as the publican Mark 10 21

2 Some are vile leasly eat dead bodies in the river licked Lazarus's sores Luke 16 21, Ahab's blood 1 Kings 22 38 Such are men enslaved to diverse lusts

3 Churlish snappish bay at the moon so the Jews
gnashed on Stephen with their teeth Acts 7 54

4 Bite and tear men so do bloodhounds bulldogs Jer
15 3, such was Paul before his conversion Some bark and bite not, others bite but bark not, so some injure secretly while chains are necessary for very fierce ones

5 Some used as lanterns so the devil used persecu tors Ps 22 16

6 Use each other, so the Egyptians destroyed each other as well as the Jews so in the case of Babylon and the Jews.

7 Creech Is 56 11, never satisfied

8 Pecome sometimes mad, then great mischief arises,
 Phil 3 2

9 Lazy, hence the proverb, 'A dog's life, hunger and ease,' the prodigal son fed on husks, Luke 15 16

10 Shut out of doors Without are dogs, Rev. 22 15
 Some dogs watchful, loving, and protecting; yet all dogs throw up when sick a loathesome vomit and swallow it again, so those who turn back to sin, Prov 26 11, applied to the Gentiles by Jews, Matt 15 27

Beware of dogs, Phil 3 2, unfaithful ministers dumb dogs, Is. 56 10 A false teacher, so called, 1 Sim
 24 14, so the Sodomites, Pharaoh

Chanak —What use of science to a man without sense, or a looking glass to a blind man?

Telugu —What does a bullock know of the taste of parched grain? What does an ass know of the smell of perfume?

Bengal —Krishna's name in a crow's mouth. Feeding a dog with pulse

Arab —The world is a carcase, and they who seek it are dogs

Telugu —Will a dog recognize the priest, it will only snap at him, seize and tear the calf of his leg, Mat

Telugu —If authority be given to a low-minded man, he will chase away all the honourable can a dog that gnaws shoes taste the sweetness of the sugar-cane?

Bengal —The thief and hog have one road—i.e., impurity

Meek as a Dove—Matt 10 16

A soft tongue breaketh the bone, Prov 25 15
 David, suffering from the wicked, wished to have the wings of a dove which flies very rapidly, and loves freedom like the dove imprisoned in the ark, Ps 55 6

The meek resemble a dove in four points—

1 Harmless in the midst of a crooked generation,
 Phil 2 15, yet he is to be wise as a serpent, Matt

2 Hates impure things not like the crow or jackal, the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove descended on John at his baptism Matt. 3 16

3 Shuns birds of prey, its mild eye very different from the hawks, it is mild but sharp enabling it to flee from danger

4 Loves its home if taken hundreds of miles away it will find its way back hence it is used to carry letters tied to its legs The believer's home is with dove like men in the clefts of the Rock of Ages

Abraham though the elder waived his right of choice for the sake of peace and promptly removed all occasion of strife Gen. 13 7-9, and God put honour upon him after his disinterestedness Gen. 13 16 It is called sheepishness to be meek but it is a likeness to Him that was as a sheep before the shearers not opening his mouth Isa. 53 7, it is a portion of His spirit The meek shall inherit the earth Matt. 5 5

Hebrew —Kindle not the coals of a sinner lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire

Persian —A pleasant voice brings a snake out of his hole

Turk —One drop of honey catches more bees than a ton of vinegar

Irish —Tread not on a sleeping snake

Turk —Have in life the force of a lion the sagacity of an elephant and the sweetness of the lamb

China —Rousing a sleeping tiger exposes to harm

China —Stir not the fire with a sword—i.e. provoke not by anger

Russian —Good greeting softens a cat

Telugu —The Ganges flows with a tranquil course but a foul stream rushes with a roar Thus the base can never be mild as the noble Luke 21 19

The Wicked are Dross —Ps 119 119

The wicked are made of the earth and return to it they prosper in the earth not so the righteous Nettles grow in any soil Ps 37 1 2 not so flowers

The wick ed lil c dross in six points —

1 Resemble the metal, but only in appearance, so the wicked Ps 66 10, have a name to live Rev 3 1

2 To be burnt and consumed in the fire, not so silver, which is only refined, wick ed lik e n house on the sand Matt 7 27, Ezek. 22 20

3 Mixed with pure metal only temporary, so the wheat and chaff, Matt 13 30, the sheep and goats are only together for a time

4 Unprofitable, the good are gold or diamonds, though esteemed in the world the offscouring, 1 Cor 4 13

5 God takes away the dross by judgment Matt 3 12, by church censures 1 Cor 5 5 Dross more abundant Luke 13 23, 24

6 Not improved by fire as silver or gold is, Jerusalem was thus compared to a pot, Ezek 24 6

Tamul —What avail heights in the dunghill? is the town disparaged by being low?

Modern Greek —This fig tree is for the fire—: c, a useless person

Tamul —Of what use is the ripening of a poisonous tree in the middle of a village?

Man's Corruption like the Ethiopian's Skin —Jer 13 2,

Man is said Job 15 16 to drinl in iniquity like water—: c, allusion to the prodigious quantity of water swallowed by a camel on setting out on a journey. Though the corruption from Adam cannot be changed by nature, yet God's Spirit can do it by supernatural power thus Paul, from being a persecutor of the Christians, in three days so changed as afterwards to become a preacher of Christianity

Russian —The wolf changes his hair, but yet remains the wolf. However you bind a tree, it will always grow upward. Though you put oil on a dog's tail, it will never become straight

Urdu —If you put a crow in a cage, will it talk like a parrot?

Sanskrit —The nim tree will not be sweetened though you water it with milk.

Niti Sar —Though the crow's beak be gold, and his feet diamonds, yet the crow cannot become a swan.

Persian —A black cat will not be washed white by soap.

Kurd —Out of a dog's tail you cannot get fat.

Feman —If you take a bear skin and wash it ever so long, will it, instead of its native blackness, ever become white? If you beat a wooden image, will it hence acquire any good quality?

Turk —In washing a negro we lose our soap.

Urdu —Will the gall nut become as sweet as the coconut, though watered with honey?

Bengal —The nightingale lays its young in the crow's nest, but the young do not behave as crows.

Tamul —Are young fish taught to swim?

Tamul —Though we feed a snake with milk, it will yield poison.

Sanskrit —By slitting the ear and cutting the tail, a dog is but a dog, not a horse or ass.

The Eye of Faith —HEB 11: 27

The eye of faith differs from the eye of sense in two points. The eye of sense grows dim with age, 1 Sam 3: 2, the eye of faith brightens, the eye of sense sees not far, the eye of faith sees beyond the stars, like Stephen, Acts 7: 55, or Jacob, who lay at night on the desert, with a stone for his pillow, yet saw a vision of angels Gen 28: 12. There are eyes full of uncleanness 2 Pet 2: 14, the eyes of the fool are in the ends of the earth Prov 17: 24, the proud eye is a lofty one Psa. 131: 1. Eve was deceived by the eye, Gen 3: 6, so Achans eye by the garment, Jos 7: 21, so Samson's eye by Delilah, Judg 16: 1, so Ahab, 1 Kings 21: 2, so Nebuchadnezzar, Dan. 4: 27-33. There are three eyes—the eye of sense, common to the brute, the eye of reason peculiar to man, Mark 8 18, and the eye of faith, peculiar to the righteous, which can see beyond this world, can see the future, John 8 56, can see minute things. Bartimæus was blind, yet he had the eye of faith, Mark 10 46

Telugu —The God who destroyed the eyes gave understanding as a compensation

Turk —Invisible things are more numerous than visible

Modern Greek —The eyes of the hare are one thing, those of the owl another

Yemen —Large is the eyeball, minute the pupil, yet in the pupil alone exists the source of vision, such are the media through which we see the Deity

Afghan —Though the eyes be large, they act through small pupils

Bengal —The lame can leap over mountains by God's aid
2 Cor 12 9

Sanskrit —Who are destitute of sight? Those who do not perceive the future world

Arud —All those who know have eyes and see, all those who know not have only two holes in the forehead

Badaga —The son of a king sees more with half an eye than the son of a fool with two

Arab —Dim eyes do not ensue when the mind's eyes are bright.

Yemen —Like as the fish in the waters, through desire of the delicious bait, is fixed on the hook and perishes, so a man, if seized with desire, is also ruined,
Jas 1 15

Yemen —A good work performed with a pure heart, though small, is not trifling. How large is the seed of the banyan and the mustard tree? Luke 21 2

Arab —The eyes are of little use if the mind be blind
Mark 8 18

The Fire of the Tongue —Jas 3 6

The tongue like a fire in three points —

Solomon writes. A soft tongue breaketh the bone, Prov 25 15 so Jacob found Gen 32 4 that a gentle answer softens the heart. The Bengalis say, Quiet water

'splits a stone,' the Germans 'Patience breaks iron,'
Gen 32 11-20, 1 Sam 25 35

1 Fire gives heat which makes (passion) boil over, while a man of understanding is of a cool spirit, Prov 17
27, so Christ, Matt 27 12-14

2 Kindles great things, Matt. 12 36, hence fire called a good servant, but a bad master, Prov 26 18-20

3 Scorcheth and gives pain so the wicked compared to coals of juniper, Ps. 120 4, which burn hot and long

The fire of the evil tongue is kindled from hell, not so the zeal of the righteous compared to a live coal
Isa. 6 6, the cloven tongues of fire were harmless,
Acts 2 3

Tamil—The words of a babbler are fine dust

Afghan—A great spear wound is well to heal quickly, a severe tongue wound becomes a sore in the heart, healeth not

China—A man's conversation is the mirror of the heart

Turk—Who masters his tongue saves his head

Little Sins like Dead Flies in Ointment.—Ecc. 10 1

Telugu—The remains of a debt a sore or a fire should not be left as they may increase

Persian—A stone in the shoe a gadfly in the ear a mote in the eye a thorn in the foot and a quarrel in a family, however small in themselves are unspeakably tormenting 2 Cor 12 7

The text refers to the acid salts in insects which dispose syrups to fermentation and then to putrefaction causing a bad smell and sour taste and so the whole ointment is spoiled as a little leaven leavens the whole lump 1 Cor 5 6, the tongue is a little fire and kindles great things as the little Idra of a ship turns a big vessel
Is. 57 4 A small leak will sink a great ship break one link in the chain the whole goes.

China —It is with law as with dykes—in whatever part they are broken the rest becomes useless No case for the mouth when one tooth is aching

Malabar —A cord improperly twisted will break the whole mass

Russian —A spoonful of tar in a barrel of honey, and all is spoiled

Oriental —Good qualities efface not bad as sugar mixed with poison does not prevent the poison being mortal

Kurd —A vessel of honey with a drop of poison in it

Cingalese —The tree which (when young) you could have nipped off with your nail you cannot afterwards cut with your axe

Modern Greek —A little bait catches a large fish

Urdu —It is a sin whether you steal sesamum or sugar

Tamul —Though the thorn in the foot be small, yet stay and extract it

China —To spare a swelling till it becomes an ulcer,
Jas 2 10

Malaj —One piece of arsenic suffices to kill a thousand crows

Telugu —To look at it it is like a musk rat, but to dig into walls, it is a bandicoot

Japan —Poking out the eye with an insignificant twig

Hebrew —Of a spark of fire a heap of coals is kindled *

Life a Flood.—Ps 90 5

This Psalm was composed by Moses towards the close of his wandering in the desert when human life had been shortened and when out of 3 000 000 Jews that came into the wilderness only two adults were allowed to enter Canaan

There are more than 1 000 000 000 of people in the world composed like the Ganges and Brahmaputra of streams of many nations, they make a great noise, like a flood rise suddenly and as suddenly go down to the ocean of Eternity. Some of these floods fertilize the soil, while others sweep away cattle and villages, so some men lead the lives of sheep, others of goats.

* There is the well known homely French and English proverb For want of a nail the horseshoe was lost for want of a shoe the horse was lost, for want of a horse the rider was lost.

China—The waves flowing away chase those that precede, in the world the new born chase away the old,
and they also pass away, no feast lasts for ever.

Russian—There are not two summers in one year, Jer

Japan—As the stars, so man appears little at a distance.

Persian—The world is like an old building on the banks of a stream—it carries away piece by piece, in vain you stop it with a handful of earth.

Telugu—If the priest does not come, will the new moon wait for him?

Tamil—Does any one desire to chew his betel over again?
Gen 47 9

Life passes as a Flower—1 PET 1 24

Though the flowers are clad with a raiment superior in beauty to Solomons, yet the scythe of death sunshine storm, ruin, or worms sweep them away. The Prabodh Chandrodaya says the society even of friends is a flash of lightning which is dazzling but momentary. The righteous, like a plant, may lose his flower on earth but he will be transplanted to the gardens of Paradise.

China—The swallow plastering its nest is labour lost—
i.e., it soon migrates.

China—We find trees in the mountains 1,000 years old,
we rarely find a man 100 years old.

Turk—Have you ever seen a day which ends not in evening?

Turk—Happiness is like crystal—when it shines the most it soon cracks.

Arab—Every day in thy life is a leaf in thy history.

Molern Greek—Many dead are sitting at the head of the sick man—i.e., many of those who visit a sick man die before him.

Afghan—Life is not such a mouthful that a man should gulp it down whole. Life is not so short that a man should live heedless.

Arab —Life like a fire begins in smoke, ends in ashes

China —The moon is not always round, the clouds sometimes disappear

Japan —Life is a light before the wind, Job 7 7

Arab —Like a moth falling on a lighted candle

God-fearing the Fountain of Life —PROV 14 27

Fear of God differs from the wicked's fear in five points —

One kind of fear has torment, 1 John 4 18, such was Adam's, Gen 43 8-10, the devil's, Jas 2 19 The other is reverential, and leading to watchfulness, as Joseph, Gen 39 9, Noah, Heb 11 7 Thus is the beginning of knowledge, Prov 1 7

Arab —The fear of God makes the heart shine

Afghan —The shelter of a tamarisk is equal to that of a mountain for a man who fears not God—i.e., no restraint in wickedness for those not fearing God

Arab —There are four things God cannot do He cannot lie, He cannot die, He cannot deny Himself, and He cannot look favourably on sin

The Heart the Fountain of Action —MAT 15 19

Sanskrit —If the heart be impure, all actions will be wrong

Turk —The eyes are a balance of which the heart forms the weight

Telugu —A good work performed with a pure heart, though small, is not trifling How large is the seed of the banyan and the mustard tree? Luke 21 2

Sanskrit —The poison of a scorpion is in his tail, of a fly in his head, of a snake in his fang, but of a bad man in his whole body, Isa 1 5

The Wicked are Foxes —LUKE 13 32

Herod the king was called a fox, because he tried to catch Christ by cunning Luke 13 32, Mat 2 8, false teachers are also so called, Ezek 13 4, they used rough garments to deceive, Zech 13 14, in imitation of the true teachers, who wore sackcloth and hairy garments

The wicked are like foxes in five points —

1 Craftiness The fox when pursued and caught pretends to be dead, he uses his tail to catch crabs, he has many entrances to his den, he moves crookedly and steals up lightly, Neh 4 3, yet he does not escape

2. Cruel and destructive He destroys more than he kills, makes havoc among grapes

3 Attacks at night, the wicked called children of darkness, 1 Thess 5 5

4 Greedy The fox eats all kind of filthy putrid things, lives on filth, digs up dead bodies.

5 Moves in packs to destroy, so Samson used three hundred of them with lighted brands to their tails to fire the corn, Judg 15 4, the wicked combine to do evil

Christ said even the foxes had holes, but he had not where to lay his head Luke 9 58

Turk —The fox goes at last to the shop of the furrier

Friendship like Perfume, rejoicing the Heart —Ps 27 9

Abraham was the friend of God Jas 2 23, Jonathan and David had close friendship 1 Sam. 18 1

Urdu —The friendship of the base is a wall of sand

Arab —A bad friend is like a smith, who, if he does not burn you with fire, will injure you with smoke

Arab —A fool or unlearned is an enemy to himself how is he a friend to others?

Arab —Three things are not known except in three points courage except in war, the wise except in anger
a friend except in adversity

Afghan —God will remain friends will not Prov 18 24.

Jurl —Friends are one soul in two bodies

Gujerat —A rat and cat's friendship

Persian —Friendship with a fool is the embrace of a bear

Talmud —A man without a friend is a left hand without the right

China —It is only with the eye of others we see our own defects

China —Without a clear mirror a woman cannot know the state of her face, without a true friend a man cannot discern the nature of his actions.

Afghan —The ass's friendship is kicking

Telugu —The friendship between fire and water

Japan —A friend at hand is better than relations at a distance

Kirat Arjun —The friendship of the bad is like the shade of some precipitous bank with crumbling sides, which, falling, buries him who sits beneath

The Wicked like Goats —MAT 25 31, 33

The devil is worshipped in some countries under the form of a goat

The goats like the wicked in four points —

1 Feed among sheep, but the Great Shepherd will separate them at the judgment day, so hypocrites in a church as tares among wheat

2 Mischierous, destroy trees, plants, hence bad princes so called, Zech 10 3

3 Unclean, so the wicked 2 Pet 2 7

4 Greedily A hundred goats will eat as much as a thousand sheep, so Ahab coveted Ahab's vineyard, though he was so rich himself, 1 Kings 21

Bengal —What will not a goat eat or a fool say?

Chanak —An uneducated man in society is a crane among swans

All Flesh is Grass —ISA. 40 6

What is more frail than grass? In tropical countries it comes up in the spring flourishes for a short period, and is then cut down, or, if not severed from its root by the scythe, it soon withers away. In India especially the great heat of the sun quickly withers away the grass, which becomes quite brown or disappears in the hot weather. So weak are we, and so unable to resist the stroke of death. We come up and are cut down! The spring time of life is soon gone the season of harvest comes and death strikes the fatal blow. Nothing can make man a solid substantial being but the being born again of the incorruptible seed the Word of God which will transform him into an excellent creature whose glory will not fade like the flower but shine like an angel's face.

Gratitude the Memory of the Heart

Praise the expression of gratitude is called the fruit of the lips Heb 13 15 a garment Isa 61 3 see the case of the lame man in the Temple Acts 3 8 of the chief butler Gen 40 23 and of the parable of the two debtors Luke 7 41-43

Tamil — A benefit conferred on the worthy is engraved in stone, on the unkind written in water

Malaj — The bean forgets its pod Isa 51 1

Bengal — Having eaten his salt he esteems his virtues

Cingalese — A line inscribed in water — the ungrateful

Telugu — Blows with stones to the bearing tree

Tulud — Do not throw a stone into the well out of which you have drunk

Tamul — The physician who cured the striped tiger of his sickness became his prey

Tamul — A benefit conferred on the worthless is an earthen vessel falling on a stone

Telugu — A dog instinctively recognizes the kindness shown to it how base is the man who feels not the good that is done to him Luke 17 17

Tamul — The scorpion stings him who helps it out of the fire

Turk — The dinner ended we value no more the spoon

Persian — He eats the salt breaks the salt cellar

Tamul — The rogue feels only when he is punished the farmer feels grateful when the rain falls

Russian —The sheep does not remember its father; it bears only grass in mind

Idleness makes the House drop through —Ecclus 10 18

The ant makes hay when the sun shines—has no guide not so the idler who lets the house leak

The marks of the sluggard or idler are—(1) Loves not difficulties, will not plough by reason of cold, Prov 20 4, (2) loves not disturbance, though death's handwriting may be on the wall, (3) enjoys not the good in hand, roasts not what was taken in hunting, Prov 12 27, (4) his way hedged with thorns, Prov 15 19, such were the ten tribes—too lazy to go up to Jerusalem, 1 Kings 12 28, so with the servant in the parable of the talents, (5) allows weeds on his fields, Prov 24 30, (6) desires only, but makes no efforts, so Palaam wished the death of the righteous but led not the life of the righteous, Num 23 10, (7) makes no progress turns as a door on the hinges, Prov 26 14, (8) makes curses, there is a lion in the way, Prov 22 13.

Telugu —The idle man eats like a bullock, and sleeps like a dog

Telugu —In a neglected house devils take up their abode *

Bengal —The date fell on his moustaches, he was too lazy to put it into his mouth

Hebrew —Idleness is the mother of all vice

Tamil —Opening the mouth when one says gram (oats), and shutting it when one says bridle

Tamil —Being without work, the barber is said to have shaved his wife's head

Persian —Water long stagnant becomes putrid

Finnish —By sleeping we do not gain money, by sitting no fortune is to be had

Arab —A well is not to be filled with dew, equivalent to the French—'He that will eat the kernel must crack the nut'

* Very similar to the Italian proverb which has found its way into English, An idle brain is the devil's workshop

Tamul —Plants of learning must be watered with the rain of tears

The Inner and the Outer Man —2 Cor. 4. 16

Also called the old and the new man Eph 4. 24, the old and new Adam, the flesh and the spirit, Rom. 8. 1

The Hindus write of various loshas or sheaths enveloping the body Peter calls the inner man the hidden man, 1 Pet 3. 3-4

By the outer man is meant the body and senses, by the inner man the heart and spirit, both very different—the bodily eye might grow dim while the eye of faith grew brighter The Arabs say, 'Dim eyes do not injure when the mind's eye is bright His youth is renewed like the eagles Ps 103. 5 St. Paul's setting sun was fine, he was, like the swan, said to sing as sweetly in winter as in summer

Atmabodh —The wise man during his residence in the body is not affected by its properties as the firmament is not affected by what floats in it

Telugu —The tamarind may be dried, but it loses not its acidity

Bengal —A clever woman is not old, though aged, but has the sweet sap of wit in her

China —The man grows old, not so his heart

Persian —Don't despise pepper because it is so small, eat and see how pungent it is, 2 Cor 10. 10

Russian —The needle is small, but pierces sharply

Yemen —Though a vessel be broken, a new one is easily procured Is it then marvellous that after a man's death he should acquire a new body? 2 Cor 5. 2

Sanskrit —The form is small, the qualities great

Man Fades as a Leaf —ISA 64 6

Life like a leaf in four points —

The change comes on gradually, we scarcely perceive a difference day by day, but after the interval of a week it is distinctly seen, the leaf changes from a green to a pale hue when about to fall, the breeze snaps the link by which the shred was joined to its branch and wafts it to its resting place beneath the parent tree, where it rots or serves as fuel or manure Such is the strength of men the freshness of youth passes into the maturity of manhood and thus by gradual steps the feebleness of age comes on grey hairs are on him yet he knoweth it not, Hos 7 9 'The dust returns to the dust.'

The leaves with which the earth is strewn, and which serve to manure it will know no second spring, not so the body, which will rise in the morning of the resurrection, Dan 12 2

A leaf is light and unsubstantial A leaf fades in various ways silently The myriad leaves that glitter in the sunshine of spring or flutter in the breeze will be strewn on the ground in autumn, but when one shall fall and how long another shall hang who can tell? One falls withered by a worm at its root in early summer, a second is nipped by the frost, a third is shaken off by a rough wind, and the fourth, soon after it has burst from the bud in spring, is smitten by mildew. All will fall at some time, so with men. The population of the globe, 1 000,000,000, will in a generation be off the tree of life—some drop in childhood's spring, some in ripe manhood, and some hang on till the winter of age arrive. The time is short to all, and the short time is uncertain to each.

The conquerors in the Grecian games were crowned with leaves. These, though beautiful, soon faded away. Beauty, like glass, is brittle, trusting in fading beauty is like anchoring in a floating island. The righteous, though his outer man decay, is an evergreen leaf.

The Hoary Head of the Righteous a Crown of Glory
 Prov 16 31

The Jews required persons to rise up when at a distance of four cubits from an old man. The Romans punished with death those not rising up before the hoary, and God sent two bears to devour the men who called Lusha bald-headed, 2 Kings 2 23.

The Germans call grey hairs death's blossoms, the Bible says if found in the way of righteousness, they are a crown of life—i.e., unfading, and an ornament, a sign of dominion and victory. Men are like wine, age renders the good mellow, but makes the bad sour, or like chimneys long foul which, if not swept, are at length fired. Old sinners are like vessels long abroad, in which nothing is left but the lees and dregs of ignorance and sin.

Examples of good old righteous people in Samuel, 1 Sam. 25 1, Elisha 2 Kings, 13 14, Jacob, Gen 47, 10, Anna Luke 2 36.

The righteous though old in body, is a new man in religion 2 Cor 5 17, his youth is renewed like the eagles, Ps 103 5.

Arab—Hoary hairs are death's messengers, Hos 7 9.

Afghan—Though the mallet be old, it is sufficient to smash the pitcher.

China—In clothes we admire novelty, in men, old age.

Arab—The gravity of old age is fairer than the flower of youth, Job 23 6, 7.

Hebrew—Wisdom is the grey hair unto men.

The Body of a House—2 Cor 5 1

The Prabodh Chandrodaya compares the soul to a taper confined in a dwelling which has nine openings. The Shānti Shatak says 'It is absurd to lament the loss of youthful joy and a lively countenance which floated off like the sportive and short-lived billows in the Jumna.' Vaman writes 'When a bubble stands on water a rapid rush in passing destroys it. Alas! what affection men feel for the frail earthen vessel of the body.'

The word 'house' sometimes means property, as when referred to the Pharisees who devoured widows' houses, Matt 23 14. But "house" more generally means a place to dwell in. The body is the earthly house in which the spirit dwells, and the grave is called 'the house appointed for all living,' Joh 30 23, because every one now living must at last abide there as in a house. The tabernacle and temple were called 'the house of God,' as there God dwelt among his people by the signs of His gracious presence, and His glory appeared in the cloud, and shone forth from between the Cherubim over the Ark. And thus Jacob when he set up the stone which had formed his pillow, called the place Bethel or the house of God to signify that the Lord had revealed himself in that place, Gen 28 17.

Solomon says, Eccle 12 1-7 in old age the keepers of the house, the knees, the pillars, tremble with paralysis, the grinders or teeth, are like the women who ground meal, the eyes are the windows the sight becomes dim, Gen 27 1, 48 10, the lattices of the windows afford less light to pass through Judges 5 28 2 Sam 6 16, the doors are shut to enable the old to sleep the daughters of music brought low are singing or nautch girls, the house tumbles and its tenant goes to his long home. Who builds stronger than a mason, a shipwright, or a carpenter? The gravedigger the house that he makes lasts till Doomsday. The believers sun breaks through the clouds of old age the golden chain which binds his heart to heaven is waxing stronger and stronger, its links are growing more firm, his hon e is tumbling, but he has a building made without hands 2 Cor 6 1 in a city without foundations.

Man as Clay, God as the Potter—Isa 64 8

The nations before God compared to the drop of a bucket Isa 40 15, to the small dust of the balance Isa 40 15 All things made on earth are frail and easily broken and though they are finely figured painted and gilded like porcelain they are but earth still and a foil destroys them

Man comes from the hands of the Master as clay from the hand of the potter and is called a vessel because he has capacity to hold either good or evil a vessel of wrath or a vessel of destruction Paul is called a chosen vessel and the wife the weaker vessel

We are as clay in God's hands and formed of the dust, He had the most absolute right to form us as vessels to honour or to dishonour and to endue us with powers of mind and body of such extent capacity and efficiency as might seem good unto Him He had a right to determine the duration and conditions of our being to appoint the bounds of our habitations and all the circumstances on which our happiness and welfare in any degree depend. He was pleased to create man in his own image as a vessel unto honour a little lower indeed than the angels but still endued with noble faculties and crowned with dominion over the beasts of the field, when man marred this Divine image and beauty by his own sinful folly God had the most absolute right either at once to dash him in pieces as a potters vessel or to continue his existence, and appoint him a new probation, on such conditions as he might see fit to enjoin, with whatever advantages or disadvantages he might be pleased to assign, man is like the moth which, flying at the candle only gets burnt

Punctuality, or Work while it is Day — Joux 9 4

See the parable of the Foolish Virgins, who found the door shut. The coming of the Bridegroom surprised the wise virgins or bridesmaids with joy, the foolish with terror.

Jeremiah (8 7) reproves the people for not using their opportunities, he recommends them to be like the swallow and stork, who prepare at a suitable moment to leave a wintry climate for sunlit lands, not like the ostrich, who when pursued hides its head between its legs fancying because he does not see the danger there will be none. Bengal — Having drunk the water, he asks the caste of the giver air if now and then they were not carried off by the rain which precipitates them upon the earth and thus clears and purifies the air. The rain is not less useful in moderating the burning heat of the atmosphere as we see in the rainy season in India Isa 44 3 when the rain falls from a higher region and brings to the lower a refreshing coolness of which we always feel the agreeable effects when it has rained. It is also to the rain we must partly attribute the origin of fountains wells lakes, brooks and consequently rivers such as the Amazon of America 180 miles wide at its mouth. We are supplied in abundance with these sources of water in the wet and rainy seasons whereas they evaporate during a long drought. The earth and vegetables languish for want of these fruitful showers without which everything would perish for rain is in many respects the food of vegetables it circulates in their finer veins and in the vessels of plants and trees and conveys to them those beneficial juices which preserve their life and give them growth. When it pours on mountains it sweeps from them a soft rich and fruitful earth which it deposits in the valleys where it falls and which it fertilizes. The valleys of the Ganges and Nile have been thus formed.

Among the Egyptians the prophet carried in his hand a pitcher as a symbol of his dispensing the water of learning. In the Lalita Vistara it is said that Sikhya Muni will render calm and cool by the rain of the law those who are devoured by the fire of envy and passion.

God's influence like rain in four points —

1 Sometimes comes irresistibly Isa 60 10 11

2 Tar es—sometimes in torrents at other times in showers. The feast of Pentecost when 3 000 were converted was a torrent. Lydia's case was the gentle shower Acts 16 14 so was Timothy's case.

3 Falls in drops in a cession so line upon line Isa.

28 10 Men, like narrow mouthed vessels cannot receive much at a time

4 At God's pleasure In some countries the rain falls in torrents, in Egypt scarcely any falls

Redeeming the Time — ERN 5 16

The text treats of laying up time as a thing of value, such as the dying who know the preciousness of time, there is only one building eternal, 2 Cor 5 1 Solomon says, Eccles 3 3-7, there is a time to break down, such as happened to the walls of Jerusalem, 2 Kings 25. 4-15, there is a time to cast away stones, as in building memorials, Gen 30 Jos 4 1-9, so Paul threw things overboard in the shipwreck, Acts 27 38

The English say, Time and tide wait for no man, 'the Bengalis say, 'When the rice rises in the pot, quick, quick, quick,' in hell they knew the worth of time, the sinners to morrow will never come, Jerusalem had its time, but it knew it not Luke 19 42, a Jewish rabbi, asked when a man should repent said one day before his death Christ came in the fulness of time Gal. 4 4, and our times are in God's hands Ps 31 15

Illustrate Eli's sparing the rod by an Afghan proverb?

The Root of all Evil is the Love of Money — 1 Tim 6 10.

St Paul calls covetousness idolatry, Eph 5 5, covetousness implies distrust of God Luke 12 29, we are to ask only for our daily bread Mat 6 34, hasting to be rich leads to wrong means as with Judas Balaam, Ahab Ananias, Simon Magus, their root of money love spreads like the banyan its branches very wide in discontent and carelessness of the poor (See the parable of the Unjust Steward and Rich Worldling Luke 12 15-21) Christ said Ye cannot serve God and Mammon, or as the Bengalis have it— One foot on land the other on water The ostrich cannot fly high because of its wings, and Jacob with his flock had to travel slowly Gen 33 13 He is not rich who possesses much but who desires little, the evil lies not in the mere acquisition of money—thus Abraham the father of the faithful was wealthy, Gen 13 2, so was David the man after God's own heart

1 Chron. 28 10, 29 1-16 Theirs was not filthy lucre,
Tit 1 7

Turk —The stomach of the covetous is satisfied, his eye never

Malabar —Money is the hatchet to separate pleasant friends

Arab —The gaping mouth of covetousness is not filled except by the earth of the grave, Ps 146 4

Arab —Covetousness is the punishment of the rich, a rich miser is poorer than a poor man

Arab —Riches are the fomenters of desire, the thirst after wealth is more vehement than after water

Arab —Covetousness has for its mother unlawful desires, for its daughter injustice, for its companion vileness

Turk —To ask bounty from a covetous man is to dig a trench in the sea

Syrian —Like the monkey's fat, which does not melt or soften

Kurd —The camel carries sugar, yet eats thorns

Telugu —Avarice knows not shame, sleep (of the covetous) knows not comfort

Persian —The miser has locked up the gate of heaven

Mahabharat —The bolt of the door of heaven is made by covetousness

Persian —Fat does not come from a stone—: c, the miser is stony hearted

Bengal —An ox carrying sugar—: c, a miser enjoying not what he has

Bengal —Even iron swims for gain, from covetousness came sin, from sin death

Persian —A man attempted to swim with a load of iron on his back, Hab 2 6

Afghan —Though the river be large, it is on the dog's tongue—: c, misers have much, but can spend little on themselves

Afghan —Wealth is his who eats it (enjoys) not his who keeps it.

Tamul —Patient endurance is the root of religious merit avarice the root of sin

Arab —The thirst after gold is worse than the thirst after water

Sanskrit —Man is the slave of money

Rottenness of the Bones in Envy — PROV 14. 30

If the bones, the mainstay of the system, be rotten, the whole body becomes sick—a slow and torturing death takes place; so envy is the soul's rottenness

Envy converts the happiness of which it is the witness into wormwood and gall for its own cup, and transforms the honey of another man's comfort into the poison of asps for its own bosom—it is an instrument of self-torment—a burning ulceration of the soul—a crime which, partaking of the guilt, partakes as largely of the misery of hell. Cain the first murderer, slew his brother at the instigation of this vice, Gen 4. 4, Saul, under the influence of envy, plotted for years the slaughter of David, 1 Sam 18. Ahab, the king of Israel, pined for the vineyard of Naboth, and shed his blood to gain it, 1 Kings 21, it was envy that perpetrated that most atrocious crime on which the sun refused to look, and at which Nature gave signs of abhorrence by the rending of the rocks—the crucifixion of Christ, Mat 27. 18

The envious man is a man of the worst diet, for he consumes himself, and delights in pining—a thorn-hedge covered with nettles, a peevish interpreter of good things, and no other than a lean and pale carcase, quickened with a fiend. Envy is painful to ourselves, and injurious as rust is to iron or the moth to cloth, therefore called "the rottenness of the bones" It arises from pride, and is carried out in covetousness and evil desire, ending in discontent. Envy is discontentedness at another man's good and prosperous estate, holiness, esteem, renown, and ability. In carnal things it is sordid, in higher things it is devilish. In the one we partake with the beasts, who ravenously seek to take the prey from one another, in the other with the devils and evil angels who, being fallen from happiness, now malign and envy those that enjoy it. St. James 3. 14, calls it 'bitter envying,' to distinguish it from that holy emulation which makes us strive who shall excel

each other in the ways of godliness, as also from true zeal for God's glory. It proceeds from the overflow of gall and choler, that root of bitterness that is in the heart, it is bitter to ourselves and others, it makes us unpleasant to those with whom we converse, and though it be sweet for the present, yet, when conscience is opened, and we taste the fruits of it, it proves bitterness in the issue. Envy is but a cockatrice egg, that soon brings forth strife. The world had an early experience of it. Satan envied Adam and Eve. Pride the first sin in Adam, envy the second in Cain. There was envy between Abraham and Lot's herdsmen, Gen. 13. 7, then Joseph's brethren envied him, and conspired to slay him, Gen. 37. 4. So in Saul and David's case 1 Sam. 18. 9.

Bengal — In seeing another's wealth, it is not good to have the eyes smart.

Gulistan — I can avoid injuring the mind of any one, but what shall I do to the envious man who carrieth the injury in his own breast? Die, thou envious wretch, since thou canst not be cured of the disease under which thou labourest, but by death.

Arab — Envy is a raging fever, envy has no rest, the wise no poverty.

Turk — No mountain without mist, no man of merit without detractors.

Oriental — Virtue is always exposed to envy, we cast not stones at a barren tree.

Afghan — The horses were shoeing themselves the frogs held up their feet — &c., to be shod also.

Tamul — An enemy's envy is his own punishment.

Tamul — Envy thou not the glory of aunner.

Tamul — Thou knowest not what shall be his end, Prov. 24. 20.

Japan — Lepers envious of those with sores.

Hebrew — The ear of jealousy heareth all things.

Hebrew — Envy and wrath shorten the life.

Hebrew — Carefulness brings age before the time.

Hebrew — The envious man has a wicked eye.

Hypocrites' Hope a Rush in the Mire —Jon 8 11-15

The Tclugus compare visionary hopes to a bag of money seen in a looking glass. The rush springs out of the mire and its growth is as rapid as its greenness is bright before the sun, while the bed in which it grows is filled with the serson runs it flaunts itself as if in scorn of the more valuable blade in the neighbouring furrow and gains more notice from the un instructed eye yet it is always a worthless plant and as soon as the torrent is dried up by the heat of summer it withers in a day, so the rich fools hopes of long life Luke 12 16-20 So Goliath's head was cut off with the very sword he hoped to kill David with 1 Sam 17 44-51

Hypocrites are Whited Sepulchres —Mat 23 27

Sepulchres were beautiful without loathsome within, hence they were away from cities as those who touched the dead were accounted polluted

Hypocrites likened Luke 11 44 to graves that appear not because covered with grass and weeds—their throat an open sepulchre Ps 5 9

Paul called Ananias a whited wall Acts 23 3

These hypocrites worshipped God with their lips while their hearts were far from him Mat. 15 8 and by their extortions they devoured widows houses Mat 23 14

Cain was a hypocrite in worshipping God without sacrifice and pretending not to know where his brother was when he had killed him Gen 4 9, so Judas when he kissed Christ after he had betrayed him for 30 pieces of silver Mat. 26 49

Chanah —A friend who injures your business in your absence but speaks smoothly when you are present should be shamed as a bowl of poison with milk on its surface

Bengal — The heron is (in appearance) a saint as long as the fish is not in sight

Bengal — The female devotee pretends not to eat fish, but there are three on her leaf

The Righteous the Salt of the Earth.—MAT 5 13

The righteous like salt in three points —

Salt is remarkable for its own peculiar savour by which its presence in any substance with which it can unite itself is at once detected, spreading itself through any thing with which it is thus mixed it imparts its own quality of saltiness to the previous taste or savour. It has also the quality of preserving from corruption even for a number of years in many substances that would otherwise perish hence it is an emblem of what is enduring or perpetual.

God appointed that salt should be used in all the sacrifices offered to him salt was the opposite to leaven for it preserved from putrefaction and corruption and signified the purity and persevering fidelity that are necessary in the worship of God. Every thing was seasoned with it to signify the purity and perfection that should be extended through every part of the divine service and through the hearts and lives of God's worshippers. It was called the salt of the covenant of God because as salt is incorruptible so were the covenant and promise of Jehovah. Among the heathens salt was a common ingredient in all their sacrificial offerings, and as it was considered essential to the comfort and preservation of life and an emblem of the most perfect corporeal and mental endowments so it was supposed to be one of the most acceptable presents they could make unto their gods from whose sacrifices it was never absent.

Salt is the symbol of wisdom Col. 4 6 of perpetuity

and incorruption, Numb 18 19, 2 Chron 13 5, 4, of hospitality, and of that fidelity which is due from servants, friends, guests, and domestics, to those that entertain them, and receive them at their tables it is used in this sense, Ezra 4 14, where maintenance from the king's table means salted with the salt of the palace. In Russia at the present day when the Emperor visits any of his subjects, bread and salt are presented to him as an emblem of hospitality.

A little salt seasons much meat and prevents its perishing, so Lol was the salt of Sodom, and had there been ten righteous persons in it, the city would have been preserved, Gen 18 32. Salt preserves the human body from worms, so the righteous save society from corruption.

Hebrew —Alms are the salt of riches

Badaga —If the curry is without savour, you can put salt into it, but if the salt has lost its savour, with what can it be seasoned? Mat 5 13

Our Days on Earth a Shadow —Jon 8 9

Gotthold compares time to an image in the water easily broken, yet the shadow gives shelter for a time, as Jonah found at Nineveh under the gourd, 4 6. Life like a shadow has little substance, is fleeting, it is compared in Job 8 11, to a rush springing up in the mud, and drying up before the influence of the sun.

Afghan —As the sun's shadow shifts, so there is no permanence on earth

Bengal —A service fleeting as the palm tree's shade or the cloud's shadow

Bengal —There is no hand to catch time

Sanskrit —Time is stronger than all things else.

God a Shepherd.—Ps 23 1

God a shepherd in seven points —

The shepherd knows his sheep, so as to be able to dis-way from the shepherd, as were the Jews by the Babylonians

Mahratta —An herdsman, with his staff in his hand, guides and protects his cattle Will not God, with the staff of correction, guide and protect man?

China —When heaven rears a man, he grows very fat When men rear one, he is but skin and bone

Telugu —Will he who plants the tree not water it?

Modern Greek —Appointing the wolf a shepherd

Persian —The sheep are not designed for the shepherd, but the shepherd for the service of the sheep

Udu —Put ants and dogs to guard sweetmeats

Russian —The shepherd shears the sheep but does not flay them

Sowing to the Flesh Reaping Corruption —Gal. 6 8

The principles of ruin are in ourselves, like the iron which breeds rust, or like filthy garments which produce moths, or ill humours in the body causing a fever

The husbandman's labours are often blasted, not so those of the righteous, God will not forget the labour of love, Heb. 6 10 Husbandmen have to reap every year, the righteous all at once

Adonizabel was paid in his own coin, Judg. 1 7, Ahab's blood was licked up by the dogs, and Haman was hung on his own gallows, Esth. 7 10 David sowed adultery, reaped the sword, 2 Sam. 12 9, 11, Joseph's brethren sowed envy, Gen. 42 21, Judas sowed covetousness, reaped a halter, Matt. 27. 5

The Buddhists of Ceylon say—"If any one speak or act from a corrupt mind, suffering will follow the action, as the wheel follows the lifted foot of the ox." An English proverb—He has made his bed and he must lie in it Job. 4 8 they that plough iniquity reap the same, they sowing the wind reap the whirlwind, Hos. 8 7 The Persians say, "He that plants thorns shall he not gather roses, the field of wrong brings forth death as its fruits,

Prov. 5 22, he is holden with the cords of his own sin
so fire in his lips, Prov. 16 27, Job 5 2

Burma—Suffering is the necessary consequence of sin, just as when you eat a sour fruit a stomach complaint ensues

Bengal—Put your hand in the fire, whether willingly or no, you will get burnt

Shanti Shatak—To wherever you roam in sky or ocean, yet your actions from birth up will follow you before the Judge as the shadow the substance

Telugu—A man's shadow remains near himself

Telugu—If you expect much fruit from few offerings, will it be obtained?

Bengal—From the jack do you get the mango juice?

Bengal—"As the sin, so the atonement"

Bengal—"The ant's wings produce its own death"

Dane—Whoever will eat the kernel must crack the nut

Malabar—When any one has learnt to steal, he must also learn hanging

Talmud—The crow brought fire into the nest, it warmed him, but it burnt the nest

Turk—Those who sow thorns can only reap prickles

Persian—He that plants thorns shall not gather roses

China—Ivory does not come out of the rat's mouth

Russian—It is not necessary to sow fools, they grow of themselves God is not in haste, but His aim is sure

The Hypocrites' Hope a Spider's Web—Job 8 14.

The Italians, to express the community of goods between true friends, say they tie their purses with a spider's web
—i.e., easily broken

The spider weaves its web out of its own bowels and with wonderful skill prepares a network which far surpasses the most curious product of human workmanship even the Kashmir shawl in the regularity and fineness of its texture The spider succeeds in fixing himself even in the mansions of the great, and clings tenaciously to the haunt or home which she has chosen Prov 30 28 Her web is admirably woven for the purpose which she has in view, and such insects as are incautiously entangled in it become an easy prey Yet is it also so frail and slight that a breath might rend it, and at last it is brushed away in a moment by the meanest servant of the house the sweeper So the hypocrites hope is spun out of his own fancies as the spiders web out of her own bowels, and it consists either in a groundless conceit of his own merits or in an equally erroneous notion of Gods character The spider when he suspects his web—here called his house—to be frail or unsure leans upon it in different parts propping himself on his hinder legs and pulling with his fore claws to see if all be safe If he find any part of it injured he immediately adds new cordage to that part and attaches it strongly to the wall When he finds all safe and strong he retires into his hole at one corner and supposes himself to be in a state of complete security the web looks very beautiful in sunshine in a moment however any accident to say nothing of a dirty broom sweeps away himself and his house

Bengal —Trust to the cat and the buttermilk on the shelf

Arab —More faithful than the earth—the which renders all things deposited in it

Tamul —Will they let a bug escape because it did not bite?

Japan —A key to a thief

Welsh —To pawn a piece of flesh with a cat

Bengal —Dancing on an unbaked water vessel

Talmud —Be very humble the hopes of men are worms

Oriental —More disappointing than the fire of a glow worm

The Lord the Stay of the Righteous —2 SAM 22 19.

A house or wall is tottering a beam of wind stays it up such are the ropes to a ship so creeping plants unable to stand upright cling by their tendrils to some stick which becomes their stay, similarly the soul clings to God by the tendrils of faith.

The Nick of Time Taught by the Stork.—JER. 8. 7

In many countries the storks and many birds are not able to stand the winter, on its approach they congregate and depart in a body for the sunlit lands returning in the spring so do the crane and swallow. Men know the signs of the weather and when it is time to start on a journey, but when the shadows of life's evening are coming people do not see the signs of death's approach Hos 7 9 The Italians say time is an inaudible file which destroys gradually without its being noticed. Christ reproached the people that though knowing the signs of bad weather they did not know the drift of spiritual things Mat 16 3 so God in Jeremiah reproaches the people for not like the birds looking into the future the wicked are like the ostrich which when pursued hides its head between its legs fancying because it does not see the coming danger that it will not ensue.

The Sting of Death is Sin.—1 Cor. 15 56.

There are various stings—those of an asp a bee a nettle a wasp all however infuse poison quietly and sharply and give pain. The devil is the old serpent who injects the poison of his sting into afflictions and death while Christ is the brazen serpent by looking to Whom the wounds are healed. No sting of death was felt by David 2 Sam. 23 5 by Joseph Gen. 50 by Jacob Gen. 49 18 There is however a love stronger than death and death may buzz about our ears but it has lost its sting Is 55 8

Bengel —The commission of sin produces the fear of death

The Sinner's Heart Stony.—Ezek 36 26

The heart of the wicked is like a stone in four points —

1 Hard, yields not to a blow, hence Job 41. 1-34, refers to the heart of the crocodile, hard as the nether millstone, arrows and spears are as stubble to him, they will not enter—such were Stephen's murderers, Acts 7 57 There are stones in India on which the rains and winds have been beating for many thousand years, yet they are not worn, while the instruments used to break these stones are often broken themselves, Luke 4 29 The seed that falls on stony soil springs not up, as there is no moisture in a stone

2 Senseless, no feeling, Eph 4 19, the wicked go as an ox to the slaughter, feeling no danger of their lives, they have no shame, but a brow of brass, Is 48 4

3 Heavy—The thoughts of the wicked are not up to heavenly things, but down to the earthly, their God is their belly, they are of the earth, earthy, 1 Cor 15 47.

3 No motion, therefore no life

4 Cold, as being without life

But God's hammer, his word, Jer 23 29, breaks the rock in pieces, and gives a heart of flesh, such as Paul had, who from a persecutor became a preacher of Christianity, so the hardened jailer when he became softened, he began to cry out, Acts 16 30 This hammer fastens conviction as a nail in a sure place, Is 22. 23 It softens and smashes the hardest rock

Persian—A drop of rain makes no impression on a hard stone

Kurd—Grass grows not under a stone

China—The heart of the worthless is as unfixed and changeless as a mountain stream

Persian—He tries to extract oil from the sand

Tamul.—The solemn thoughts of the funeral pyre last till each one returns home

Tamul—Even stones may be dissolved, the heart of a fool not.

He, Hastening with his Foot, Stumbles — Prov 19. 2

Turk — Step by step we mount the ladder

Arab — Patience is the key of joy, but haste is the key of sorrow

Telugu — Why do you cry before you are beaten, he asked, you are going to beat me in future, replied the boy

Afghan — The Patan boy and his brother taking a short cut fell over the cliffs

Afghan — He takes off his clothes before he reaches the water

China — Silly birds fly first

Russian — Hurry is good only for catching flies

Sanskrit — A small beginning is good

Sanskrit — Debt, a sore, and a stain will be effaced by time

Sanskrit — Slowly, slowly place the foot

The Swallow knows her Time, not so the Ignorant —

JER. 7. 8.

The swallow, like various other bird, is a bird of passage. What was it that skimmed over the stream, where the ripples are so bright in the morning sunshine? It was the first swallow of the returning spring. It has come back in its season—the spring and summer—nor will it leave again till the leaves which in spring burst from their buds are withered and falling. When cold and winter are coming, the swallows often remain in a torpid state in the holes of walls or the banks of rivers. The swallow, like the Indian adjutant, is true to the divine law which concerns its return and its departure. It knows the time to come and the time to go, and neither loses the summer pleasantness by delaying its return nor runs the risk of suffering from the winter frost by prolonging its stay too late. How many do not begin the work of salvation till summer is over, and the winter of life is well nigh at hand, when if they work at all they work with every disadvantage!

Kural — The learned have eyes, the ignorant have merely two spots on the face

Slander is a Mall, n Sword, and a Sharp Arrow.

Prov 25 18

The slanderer wounds threc at once—himself, him he speaks of, and him that hears. If we cannot stop other's mouths, let us stop our own ears. As soon as a person takes pleasure in hearing slander, he is to be ranked in the number of slanderers. By the approbation of evil we become guilty of it. The witnesses against Naboth showed that a false witness is, in some respects, as bad as a murderer, 1 Kings 21. 13

In the case of the two false witnesses against Christ the words were true, the evidence false, while they reported the words, they misreported the sense, and thus swore a true falsehood, and were truly foresworn, Mat 26 60, 61. So the witnesses against Stephen, Acts 6 13, 14, Prov 12 17. In these last two instances it was not by direct falsehood, but by a partial statement of truth, that they involved themselves in the murder of the innocent, such were the masters of the damsel possessed with a spirit of divination, Acts 16 21.

China—Sitting alone, meditate on your own faults—: e, in conversation talk not of others

China—The world's unfavourable view of your character and conduct is like the fleeting clouds from which the brightest day is not free

Bengal—The mud sticks not to the back of a pankhal fish, (which is smooth), so calumny with respect to an innocent person

False Sympathy—Rom 12 15

Urdu—One man's house is on fire, another warms himself by it

Arab—He roasted his fish in the conflagration

Telugu—When the sheep cries will the wolf be grieved?

Telugu—When one man cried that his beard was on fire, another followed him asking him for a light for his cigar

Telugu—Is the lion's roar ter' he cow?

- China* —He may sit in a tub of cold water, but it will not steam
- Bengal* —Sprinkling salt on a new cut wound—sic Job's comforters, Job 16 2
- Polish* —The ox bores with his horns the wounds, the woman with the tongue in her mouth
- Tamul* —A word that lacks sympathy and a rafter that lacks a nail, are useless
- Tamul* —It is said that the wolf wept because the sheep were wet
- Turk* —If my beard is burnt, others try to light their pipe at it, Luke 10 32

Temperance, or Self Control.—Psalm 13 28

- Russian* —It is not the sword that kills nor the wine that makes drunk
- Turk* —The knife does not make the cool
- China* —Who can govern himself is fit to govern the world
- Kural* —As the hook guides the elephant, we should with the hook of firmness restrain our passions
- Turk* —The chimney never takes fire except from within
- Russian* —The nail is not guilty that the hammer beats it into the beam
- Mahratta* —Man has five senses, if any is not under control his reason will ooze out there as water out of a skin that is rent
- Russian* —Shut the door on the devil, but he will enter by the window
- Afghan* —Though the food was another's, the stomach was your own—sic, over-eating not the fault of the food

- Tamul* —No one cuts off the hand because it has struck the eye
- Mahabharat* —The gods do not, like cattle herds, guard men by carrying clubs, but they endow with understanding him they wish to preserve
- Mahratta* —Man's body is a chariot, the charioteer is himself, and his passions are the horses, if the latter are well managed all goes well

Temptation —1 Cor. 5 9, 10.

Temptations to sin are represented in the Bible as stumbling blocks to trip up the unwary, as the wiles of the devil, as thorns in the flesh, as fiery darts, as sent for sifting, while we are to flee from sin as from the face of a serpent

Afghan —Shoes are tested on the feet, a man on trial

Turk —If you wish to keep company with a wolf have the dog near

Bhagavatgita —

He who, as the tortoise does with its limbs,
Withdraws the senses from the sensual objects

His wisdom is confirmed

China —One dressed in clothes made of leaves going to put out a fire is in danger

China —It is not beauty that beguiles men, men beguile themselves

China —Leisure breeds lasciviousness

Russian —

The priest comes to us by the trodden path,
The devil comes to us by crossing the fields—

i e, temptation comes from unexpected quarters

Guilt is the wolf that has eaten the sheep,

Not guiltless is the sheep that strays into the woods—

i e, we must be on our guard, however, not to go into his path

Turk —The heart is a child, it desires what it sees

Turk —The devil tempts man, but the idle man tempts the devil

Arab —Where the eye does not see the heart does not grieve

Telugu —By experience we learn our weakness.

Telugu —A man will not build a hut until he has been drenched, nor stoop until he has hit his head

Vernan —

The crocodile in water can destroy an elephant,

The crocodile out of water is destroyed by a dog—

Avoid Temptation.—COL. 2 21

- Arab* —Follow the voice of a dog, not of a jackal, the one leads to the village, the other to the desert If you do not want a fool's medicine, keep away from him.
- Afghan* —Who lives with a blacksmith will at last carry away burnt clothes
- Afghan* —Have your ass tethered if you have a thief as your friend
- Afghan* —A low friendship lights a fire on the forehead
- Russian* —Do not tread, doggie, in a wolf's footsteps, he will turn round and eat you
- Russian* —Our eyes are our enemies
- China* —Throwing on stubble to put out the fire
- Tamul* —To roast a crab and set a fox to guard it
- Telugu* —Without eating, you can't tell the taste, without going down into the water, you cannot tell the depth
- China* —What the eye sees not, the heart is not vexed over The well fed and well warmed indulge impure thoughts, the pined and starved encourage thoughts of stealing
- Afghan* —The bird sees the grain but not the snare
- Japan* —The bird flying in the air troubles not the water
- Telugu* —The fox offered his services for nothing—to guard the sheep
- Urdu* —Can fish remain in a kite's nest?
- Telugu* —Like ghee (melted butter) poured on fire
- Vernam Telugu* —A crocodile while swimming in water can destroy an elephant, out of the stream it is discomfited easily by a dog In the water a ship will float smoothly, out of it it cannot crawl even a cubit.
- Malabar* —If you sit close to the mortar you will be struck by the pestle
- Tamul* —Play not with snakes, sic English "Play not with edged tools"
- Afghan* —When edged tools are used, blood flows
- Persian* —Where there is much fire the elephant's foot slips.
- China* —Throw on stubble to put out the fire
- Turk* —He who fears the fire shuns smoke

Arab —It is only a wise man who despises himself. It is only a fool that trusts his own judgment.

Syriac —If you wish to be a king become a wild ass; if you wish to be master of yourself withdraw from society as the wild asses do.

The Body a Tent. 2 Cor 5 1-4.

All men are but passengers and pilgrims through this world, not real possessors of anything, but only tenants and occupiers in this transitory life. Some dwell in stately palaces, and many more in poor cottages, but all are born to the same mortality. If the poor man's hut drops into decay, he dies never the sooner, and if the house of the rich is founded upon a rock, he lives never the longer.

The holy patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob inhabited no lofty cities, built no strongholds, but lived in tents or tabernacles, with which they removed from place to place as God was pleased to order them, Hob 11 9, very remarkable in their east, in the land which God had promised to them for an inheritance thereby signifying that they did not accept of the earthly land, but looked for a better country, that is, an heavenly. The children of Israel, journeying to Canaan, lived by encampments in a wilderness, removing their tents from place to place for forty years and ending their days in that unsettled way of life. Even when the people were fixed in Canaan, good men still devoted themselves to live as sojourners and pilgrims, thus the Rechabites who renounced the pleasures and possessions of the world, dwelt in tents as their holy fathers had done before, Jer 35 7. Even God himself was pleased to partake of the condition of his people making himself even under the law, that stranger upon earth which he was to be afterwards under the Gospel as the place of his worship in the wilderness and long afterwards was not fixed as a house, but movable as a tent and a tabernacle, and when Christ the Word was made flesh. It is said to have tabernacled amongst us, living as one who renounced this world and all its possessions, more unprovided with house and land than the foxes of the earth or the birds of the air. The passage from this world to the other is much more easy to those who live in this manner. The man of the world who fixes his abode here is violently torn away at his death like the banyan tree pulled up by the roots and has no prospect after it but he who lives in a tent can easily remove.

It was an act of faith in Abraham to dwell in tabernacles in the land of promise as in a strange country. His practice in this respect was a perpetual confession that he regarded himself only as a stranger and traveller on the earth and that he looked for a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. The feast of tabernacles was appointed to remind the children of Israel of the wanderings of their forefathers in the wilderness (when they dwelt in tents) and thus to suggest to them continually the same thought that this life is only a pilgrimage and that our true home is elsewhere that we have here no continuing city but seek one to come. The Jews even now live in tents or booths made of trees when this feast comes round. Tents were sometimes placed on the house-tops 2 Sam. 16. 22 some times under trees Gen. 18. 8.

The Moguls lived often in tents miles in circumference which cost many lacs of rupees being decorated with silk and gold, still they were but tents and exposed to being blown down by storm or consumed by fire.

By faith the righteous continually regards the body as a tent or tabernacle a frail and uncertain habitation suited to the condition of one who is only a traveller to his true home offering no effectual protection against the many dangers to which he is exposed—a dwelling place which may be struck or taken down in a moment opened to heat or cold rain or lightning. Peter (1 Pet. 1. 14)

regarded the putting off his tabernacle as emancipation
This short life is the first steps of a ladder, the top of

The Wages of Sin is Death—Rom. 6 23

The wicked are said to be holden with the cord of their own sins, Prov 5 22, such was Saul hence death to the wicked is called the king of terrors Job 18 14, it is likened to a wolf, Ps 49 14, a flood, Ps 90 5, darkness, Job 10 22

God's punishment of sin or wages is compared to dashing in pieces like a potter's vessel, treading down as the mire of the street or ashes, grinding to powder, melting as a snail, gnashing of teeth Even in this life the wages are—sickness, Deut. 28 59, famine, Mat. 24 7, war, fear, Job 18 11 In the next it will be the blackness of darkness, 2 Peter 2 17, the wine of God's wrath, Rev 14 10, everlasting contempt Dan 12 2

The devil is a bad master, his servants work hard, they are fed with husks in this life Luke 15 16 The pay of sin is sickness Lev 26 16, famine, Lev 26 19, war, Lev 26 17.

Babylon had walls 300 feet high and 70 feet thick, so that six carriages could drive abreast yet the city was taken owing to the gates having been left open when the people were drunk The walls of Gaur in Bengal were 100 feet high. The walls of Jericho were high, but they fell down at the command of God, Jos 6 20, who often destroys walls by earthquakes.

Eastern shepherds and travellers, to protect themselves and their flocks from wild beasts at night, make fires all around them, over which the most furious animals dare not pass not even the tiger—being afraid of fire.

The righteous is travelling as a pilgrim through this world, a howling wilderness, the devil is a dragon, and the wicked as lions are ready to devour him, but he sleeps secure, surrounded with God a Wall of Fire; so the Jews walked through the Red Sea, the waters standing up on both sides as a wall, Lx 14 22.

What wicked army passed away as a whirlwind ?

The Worm of Conscience — MARK 9 48

Conscience compared to a worm in three points

1 Sprung from filth, earth is a dunghill, 2 produce death by gnawing the internals, so Herod was eaten up of worms, 3 source of great pain, Acts 12 23, 4 medicine, required, otherwise no internal cure

Conscience is compared to a candle, such Joseph's brethren found it, Gen 42 21, 44 16, Pharaoh, Ex 9 27, 10 17, Saul, 1 Sam 24, Herod, Mark 6 26, Judas, Matt 27 4, Felix, Acts 24 25 It is called a witness, Rom 1 9, as Cain's wounded spirit led him to wander as a vagabond

Man a Worm—Job 2, 7, 6.

(Man like a worm in five points)

The Shinti Shatak compares the wicked to dogs who delight in swallowing human bones filled with worms and moisture, eagerly licking the putrid juice as if it were palatable. Man is compared in the Bible to earth, dust, grass, a lie, vanity, in this text to a worm.

The butterfly spreads its wings, and the sun shines upon its plumes! The wisdom of the Creator has adorned it with beautiful lines and painted it with glorious colours. It flies about and finds the plant which is proper to feed its brood of caterpillars, and there it lays its eggs to be hatched by the sun. In its infant state it crawls about as a helpless worm, and feeds upon green leaves. Then it folds itself up in a case like a coffin where it lies, as it were asleep, till the time of its change when it breaks this covering, it comes forth with wings and feathers like painted birds to fly about the air, and the dew of the fields and meadows and visit every sweet and pleasant flower. The white ant in India also has its change when it gets wings.

We are now like the infant worms crawling about upon this earth. But if we go on in the ways of God we shall at length be changed from a worm into an angel. But first we must be shut up in the grave, and hide ourselves in the state of death till the resurrection. Then we shall be raised to life and liberty and put on a spiritual body, and be able to visit and enjoy all the wonders of God's works such as poor helpless mortals cannot now see or understand. O! let us not forget this expectation for the sake of such low enjoyments as caterpillars are capable of—grovelling on the earth!

The worm of the text means that kind which breeds in flesh, such as the worms that came out of the manna which was reserved contrary to God's commands Ex 16 24

1 Earth sprung, from corruption and putrefaction so man was made of clay, Gen 2 7, he loves earthly things and feeds like swine on the dunghill of vice

2 Mean looking, so is man by sin, though once in God's image and very beautiful

3 Frail, trod on easily so man's life is sometimes ended by a fly or a bit of bread, a worm cannot easily escape from dangers it becomes like scud a prey to fowls, Mat. 13 4, Herod was eaten up of worms Acts 12 23, great men, like glowworms at night, may seem great but in the morning they are like others

4. Various kinds, but all are worms, so the silkworm which spins its dress out of its own bowels, the much worm, the glowworm, the caterpillar, Joel 1 4, the palmer worm, Am 4 9

5 Abode means suitable to those who dwell in it Job calls the grave his house, Job 17 13, yet God says fear not thou worm Jacob Is 41 14, though man is now a worm yet he will hereafter nestle above the clouds

The Tongue fires the Wheel of Nature—Jas 3 6

'This course of nature' means the wheel of nature, and refers to a wheel catching fire from its rapid motion, spreading its flames around and so destroying the whole machine if not carefully greased or oiled to prevent friction or hard rubbing, so will the words of the tongue inflame the mind and burn up the whole body with the fever of passion, and the whole heart with anger, if the oil of love and humility be not applied. The tongue sets on fire the wheel of human life, and thus destroys the whole life. So Korah's party, speaking evil of dignities, were punished, Num. 16 1.

Tamul.—A slip of the tongue is worse than that of the feet.

PART II.

The Wicked deaf as an Adder to the Charmer's Voice —Ps. 58 5

SUCH were Pharaoh, the Jews, Mat 23 37, Mark
8 18

The wicked are said to have uncircumcised ears, Acts
7 51, heaping up teachers they have itching ears 2 Tim
4 3, stopped at the cry of the poor Pr 21 21

There are four different kinds of hearers, those like a sponge that suck up good and bad together, and let both run out immediately—having ears and hearing not, those like a sand glass that let what enters in at one ear pass out at the other—hearing without thinking, those like a strainer letting go the good and retaining the bad and those like a sieve, letting go the chaff, and retaining the good grain

Profession without practice is compared to failing does not taste the flavour of broth

The Anchor of Hope — Heb. 6 19

Every man has some kind of hope

This world, full of uneasy cares and unlimited desires, is likened to the sea, which is ever restless , treacherous in its smiles ; swept by frequent tempests , full of hidden rocks and quicksands, the ruin of many a gallant ship
Some on this sea make shipwreck concerning faith,
1 Tim. 1. 19 , the Church of God has, however, to cross its wild and stormy waves before it can reach " the haven where it would be " The ark of Noah, borne up in safety above the waters of the flood, was in this respect a type of the Church of Christ.

Hope is also compared to a house built on the sand, Job 15 2 , or to a helmet, 1 Thes 5 S, protecting the head against spiritual enemies The Arabs

call a water-melon hope, because of its tendrils which cling to a prop. The merchant trades and the ploughman ploughs in hope. Hope deferred makes the heart sick, Prov 13 12, and the hope of the wicked is as the giving up of the ghost, Job 4 20—i.e., like the last puff of breath when the person is dying.

Hope is like an anchor in three points —

1. The anchor secures the vessel against tides or storms, Heb 6 19

2. The anchor is out of sight, so hope dwells on things invisible, as Abraham hoped against hope in reference to the birth of Isaac, waiting 25 years, Rom 4 18. So Paul in the case of shipwreck, Acts 24 15

3. This anchor rests on the ground. the spiritual anchor is fixed not on the mud of this world, but on the rock of ages.

Maha Mudgar—Day and night, evening and morning, winter and spring come and go, time sports with our passing age, still the wind of hope ceases not. The body dissolves, the head gets grey, the mouth becomes toothless, the handsome stick trembles in the hand, yet hope ceases not to jest with us.

Arab—He delighting in the world drinks the milk of vain hopes.

Bengal—Dancing on an unbaked water vessel.

Telugu—Mountains are smooth at a distance and rugged when near.

Arab—Worldly hope is like the mirage, deceiving him that sees it and hopes from it.

Telugu—Measuring the air.

Talmud—Be very humble, the hopes of men are worms.

Arab—Hoping from the vile is seeking fat in a dog's tail.

Tamul—The crane hoping to eat dried fish when the sea should be dried up, wasted away in vain hope.

Arab—The more you hope the more you suffer.

The Arrows of God's Punishment — Deut 32 42

"Arrows" mean God's judgments on the wicked, which often fly through the world to punish them. The lightning and tempest, war, pestilence, and famine, all may be his arrows to slay the ungodly, and to cut them off from the earth. So God threatened the inhabitants of Jerusalem by his prophet Ezekiel, and assured them that for their wickedness he would 'send upon them the evil arrows of famine,' Ez 5 16.

Arrows wound quickly and unexpectedly, no noise is made, they stick sharply in the wounds, such are God's arrows of pestilence, Ps 91 5, famine, as in David's case, and the sword, Job said (6 4) God's arrows of disease and the sword were within him, God's arrows for crushing the wicked are compared to treading down the grapes in a wine-press, Rev 19 15.

Persian — God's club makes no noise, when it strikes there is no cure for the blow.

Arab — The corn goes from hand to head, but at last falls into the mill.

Turk — Even the Indian elephant fears the gadfly.

Mahabharat — When men are ripe for slaughter, even straws turn into thunderbolts.

Japan — No escape from the net of heaven.

The Axe of Punishment at the Root of the Tree

Mat 3 10-12

Time has been figured as a scythe mowing down the grass, here God's vengeance is compared to an axe. The King of Assyria is so called, Is 10 15.

The Church of God is often likened to a vineyard or garden of fruit trees from which the owner looks for fruit in due season and too often finds none. He is unwilling however, to relinquish his hope of a return for all his labour, and continues year by year to prune with the greatest skill, as well as patience, the plants which so ill repay his toil

However high and stately may be the tree, and however green and luxuriant its foliage, the time comes when the owner is tired with waiting for fruit, and trying the effect of only cutting off branches, he determines that he will lay the axe to the root, and remove the tree itself from the ground which might be so much better filled. See parable of Barren Fig Tree, Luke 13

How fearfully the event, thus figuratively described, was accomplished when the temple of Jerusalem was burnt, and the city taken by the Roman General, and how afterwards, when the nation rebelled against their conquerors, Jerusalem was utterly destroyed, and the miserable survivors sold in vast numbers as slaves'

What God wants is fruit, not leaves, however rich may be the foliage—in other words, however high the profession—it is utterly worthless in His sight if there be not the true fruits of repentance

The Soul bartered for the World —Mar 16 26

Buddhagosa —Evils follow the fool, smouldering as fire covered by ashes

Malay —The loss of a little mustard seed is observed, while that of an elephant is unknown

China —To gain a cat but lose a cow

Badaga —In trying to save a drop of ghee he upset the ghee pot

Tamul —Is the foot to be cut off to try on a shoe?

Badaga —For the nourishment of a day he sacrificed the food of 1 year

Tamul —Like burning down the house for fear of rats

Shanti Shatak —How vainly have I passed the whole of my life! Alas! how inestimable a jewel have I bartered for mere glass

Panchatantra —The fool, in seeking riches, suffers one hundredfold more than he who strives to attain eternal happiness

Hitopadesha —It is right to sacrifice one person for a household, a family for a village, a village even for one's country, but for one's soul we should give up the world •

Turk —For to save the head we sacrifice the beard

Sinners are Blind —REV 3 17

The Atmabodh states, 'The eye of ignorance does not behold God, as a blind man does not see the light' Sinners are like the blind, who are not able to see the sun, to know what colours and lights are, they see not the dangers in the road, Mat 15 14 Those naturally blind regret not seeing the light of the sun, and desire a guide, not so those spiritually blind, the eyes of the rich man's understanding were not opened till he reached hell, where he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, Luke 16 23

The man in the tombs was naked, the wicked are also blind, they see not the light of life, discern not the sun of righteousness, have no true knowledge of spiritual objects, nothing is nearer them than God, his unspeakable gifts, and their own heart yet nothing is less known How oft they stumble and fall into sin without any proper cause! How constantly they wander out of their proper course, and mislead those who follow them! How useless is the clearest light of the Gospel to them!—hence they feed on the wind Hos 12 1, and on husks, Luke 15 16 Deut 28 29 Diseased in every way the wicked have the blindness of ignorance, the deafness of spiritual unconcern, the fever of impurity, the jaundice of malice, the swelling tympany of pride the vertigo of inconstancy, the dropsy of covetousness, the palsy of stupidity, the rottenness of envy, the rheumatism of discontent the delirium of constant levity, the moonstruck madness of passion and rage, hardness of heart and the stings of conscience.

Chanak —He who has no sense, what does the Shastra do for him? What does a mirror do for a man without eyes? What does an eloquent man

* English —Sometimes the best gain is to lose. Mat 5 29.

Serbian.—Better sometimes a woman blind than one too beautiful

The Book of Life —REV. 20 12

There are the books of Nature, Providence, Revelation, and here "the Book of Life"—an allusion to the register book in which the names of all the tribes and families of Israel were entered from generation to generation, so that their claims to property and to the privileges of their fathers could not be disputed, or reference to a custom in the courts of princes, of keeping a list of persons in their service, of the officers in the armies, and even of the names of their soldiers. When it is said that any one is "blotted out of the book of life," this signifies erased from the list of God's friends and servants, like as those guilty of treachery are struck off the roll or list of officers belonging to a prince. There are also books of judgment, which are said to be opened, and the dead judged out of them according to their works, Rev 20 12, alluding to a custom of the Persians, to write down every day what had happened, the services done for the king, and the rewards given to those who had performed them, as we see in the history of Ahasuerus and Mordecai recorded in the Book of Esther Ec 32 32.

This book of life is the eldest book, Rev 13 8 it is written in Heaven, Heb 12 23, time destroys not its writing as it does that on tombs or pillars. The life it writes of is spiritual life which differs from natural life in—(1) the Holy Spirit being the parent, 1 Cor 15 45, there is hidden manna to eat, John 6 55, (2) eternal.

Natural life is common to devils, worms, trees, flies, man dies as the beast, but lives for ever in his soul. Life preserves from corruption, so does spiritual life.

Who are Brands plucked from the Burning — ZECH 3 2

The fire is already blackening and scorching the brand, but there is yet time to snatch it from the flame, and to save it for some nobler use. Linger not, but seize it, ere too late. Another minute, and you could not have plucked it from the fire. It bears the marks of the peril from which it has been scarcely saved, but having thus far concerned yourself to preserve it, you will not lightly throw it back again in to the flame. All we are as brands plucked out of the fire, and bear indeed the marks of the scorching flame, but God has not plucked out the brand only to cast it into a yet fiercer furnace. The Apostle Judas bid us, "save others with fear, pulling them out of the fire." Each of us is as a brand plucked out of the fire, and it is owing to the distinguishing mercy of God that we were not left in the guilt of original sin, or were not left to perish in our sin's fuel for hell fire.

Persian — He should be exposed to danger of death in order that he may be content with fever.

Doing Good is Bread cast on the Waters — ECCL 11 1

In the East rice is sown upon the waters, but before sowing the ground while still covered with water, is trodden by oxen which go mid-leg deep, and as the rice is sown on the water so it springs up through the water, and the height of its stem is generally in proportion to the depth of the water on the surface of the soil.

It is in reference to this practice of the rice in the rains being formed into hills and sunk in water, that the passage in Is 32 20, is to be explained. 'Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters." In Egypt a rice crop comes up in six months

The relief given in secret to a stranger, who may never be seen again, shall be blessed not only to him, but still more surely to the donor, it shall be found after many days, so Abraham entertained angels, Heb 13 2, who afterwards requited him. And the same may be said of the word of good advice, given "in season" to some one at a period of brief intercourse, nor shall any effort fail of due fruit by which persons have shown forth their love to Christ their Saviour, Mat 10 42, Luke 19 16

The corn seed thrown into the mud at the subsidence of the Nile, seems lost, but nothing is lost that is done for God. The fruit will be found at the resurrection of the just, Luke 14 14, so also is the case with instruction, Is 55 10, Prov 19 17, charity is loan to God

Persian—Give in this world, receive in the next (Mat 10 42)

Turk—What you give in charity in this world you take with you after death. Do good and throw it into the sea—if the fish does not know it God does.

Russian.—Throw bread and salt behind you, you get them before you

God a Builder—11m 11 10.

God as a builder different from earthly builders in five points

A good builder must be clever to plan, so known to God are all his works, there was the pattern on the Mount, Heb 8 5, he lays a good foundation, so God laid the pillars of the earth, man's foundation has often bad materials in it, employ a variety of workmen, so God has angels men Nature the firmament, in his hands Ps. 19. A variety of work—God made the fountains of the great deep the windows of heaven hell the prison and paradise the garden, he tells the number of the stars.

Earthly builders are mortal, limited in knowledge; build for others improve in their plans, require materials for a building Abraham looked for a city without foundations, Heb 11 10 The Telegus compare one who uses bad agents to one scratching his head with a firebrand, but God can make the wrath of man to praise him, Ps 76 10

The Burden of Sin — MAT 11 30

A burthen presses heavily on the chest as the tenderest part so sin on the heart, provided it be not past feeling, Eph 5 14, Christ, pressed by the weight of the world's sins sweat blood, Luke 22 44, a burthen impedes action, so does sin, Heb 12 1, believers are to bear one another's burthens Gal 6 6, not so did the priest who passed by on the other side of the way, Luke 10 31, the Jewish law ordered one to relieve even the ass of an enemy Sin is to be carried not as a golden chain round the neck, but as an iron chain round the feet The devil when he mocked Eve, did not see sin a burthen neither did the old world when it ridiculed Noah's building the ark, Gen 3 4 5 A burthen is unpleasant

China — Forethought is easy, repentance is hard

Trusting in Riches compared to a Camel passed through a Needle's Eye — MAT 1 24

When Christ says it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven he meant those who trusted in riches rather than in God those who use riches for purposes of pride, oppression sensuality, Jas 2 6, as Haman Esth. 5 11, Esau, Gen. 36 7, for Abraham was a rich man yet good.

Gen 13 2, so were Isaac, Gen. 26 13, so Joseph, Gen. 45 8, Joseph of Arimathea, Mat. 27 57

Talmud — To let a camel go through the hole of a needle

Persian — A needle's eye is wide enough for a friend, the whole world is too narrow for foes

The Wicked are Captives — 2 Tim. 2 26

Truth only makes free Christ, in his first sermon which he preached at Nazareth, stated he came as a Redeemer to purchase the captives Men are captives to—(1) sin, Rom. 7 14—26, ancient tyrants fastened captives to a dead body face to face until they were suffocated by the stench, (2) Satan 2 Tim 2 26, (3) the Law Gal. 4 25, (4) Death, in Heb 2 15, called the king of terrors The believer's body may be captive, but his mind is free as in Paul's case

Captives in war were often stripped naked, and thrown into a dungeon, their eyes were put out, as Zedekiah's, 2 Kings 25 7, or as the Mahrattas gouged out the eyes of the Great Mogul in Delhi, they were often loaded with chains, devoured by vermin, fed on bread and water, living in darkness among rats

God Chastises his Spiritual Sons — Heb 12 6 8-11

Chastisement is compared to a fan, Mark 3 12, a pruning hook, John 15 2, plough, Jer 4 3, a fiat, like Egypt to the Jews Is. 48 10, corals, Job 36 8

In Jer 31 18, Ephraim is represented chastised by God as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke, the bullock rebels against the will of his master, though nourished and supported by him, it will not subscribe his interests, when chastised, it rebels the more, repeated strokes only serve to inflame its rage, nor will it ever submit until it be wearied out, and unable to maintain its opposition, thus the sinner generally fights against God

God chastised Solomon and David for their improvement, but he punished Saul with death for his offering sacrifice and sparing Agag 1 Sam 15, Peter's denial of Christ was worse than Ananias's denial of a portion of his goods, yet how different the punishment Pun is God's chiselling to produce his likeness

Christ learnt obedience from suffering Heb 5 8, so the Prodigal Luke 15 17, and we are silly sheep prosperity makes us stray the more as sun shine on the dunghill only produces a greater stench, so Jas. 1 2

The Germans say a child may have too much of its mother's blessing Better the child weep than the father The Spaniards say more sprigs in the garden than the gardener ever sowed Did God hate his people he would suffer them to go merrily to hell Calm weather lets Christ sleep, the storm rouses him

Fruits of Chastisement —

1 Tests reality as Solomon's scord did the true mother 1 Kings 3, as the storm did Peter's faith Mat. 14 30-31, a painted faith no more avails than a painted helmet.

2 Fructifies as the palm tree by pressure so prayer, as with Manassch in fetters, 2 Ch 33, so Paul when blind, Acts 9 9, the hammer of chastisement squares the stones for the heavenly temple

3 Not a mark of vengeance for sin, Job 42. 10, Pauls, Acts 28 4, Siloam's tower, Luke 13 4-5. Saint Ambrose would not stop a night in the house of a man who had never seen chastisement, lest some judgment should seize him

4 Peaceable fruits the Prodigal, in some points, happier among scine than he had been in his father's house

Unsanctified affliction parbols a wicked man for hell, to the righteous affliction is not a fiery, but a brizen, serpent God beats his children as we do our clothes in the sun only to beat out the moths Manassch got more good by his iron chain than by his golden chain.

Humble as little Children —MAT 18 2.

Christ the Lord of Glory became an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes, he carried the lambs of the flock in his own bosom. When his disciples repelled them he took the little children up in his arms and blessed them and he has used children as an emblem of humility. He was a teacher of babes, and has taught us humility by babes, and particularly when the disciples disputed about pre-eminence he set a child in the midst. See parable of Marriage Feast, Luke 14 7-11.

The humble like little children in six points

1 Docile, no prejudice, no habit to prevent its receiving impressions, "train up a child in the way he should go," Pr 22 6, so believers are made new men by the Spirit, the mind of a child is compared to a sheet of white paper on which you can write anything. David calls himself a weaned child Ps 131 2.

2 Confiding, the young of animals are not so dependent in reference to the world as are infants. This, however, causes more love. The mother's smile and breast are every thing to the helpless babe, so the believer depends entirely on God for many years, the father's house is its home. "Ask and ye shall receive, so Abraham went forth, not knowing whither he went," Heb 11 8. Jacob in the same spirit went down to Egypt. Moses forsook Egypt not fearing the king. Paul said I know in whom I have believed.

3 Humble and contented with little things. Christ said, I am meek and lowly in heart. Paul said, in whatever state I am, I have learned to be content Phil 4 11, submissive obedience is easily taught to a child, so with the believer every high thing is cast down, whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.

4 Simple minded, a child tells its meaning at once its desires and aversions, so the believer has God's glory as his sole guide "Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile," John 1 47 Still, to prevent imposition in the world, the wisdom of the serpent is to be united to the harmlessness of the dove Gentle love to be without dissimulation, anger endures only for a little The Christian does good unto all, especially to those of the household of faith

5. Detached from the world, 1 Cor 15 20, to it business, ambition, wealth, pleasures are nothing, on the Exchange it would find no pleasure, 'not a grey head upon green shoulders', so the believer is not conformed to the world, his joys a stranger intermeddles not with, weeping as though they wept not, 1 Cor 7 30

6. Attached to its father's house Early recollections lead him to it as a bird to its nest, so Jacob, domesticated in Padan-Aram, longed for his father's house, so Joseph when he saw his brethren, so the believer longs for heaven, as the hart after the water brooks, for Jerusalem above is his home, we in this tabernacle grove.

Death of Righteous as a Shock of Corn.—Jon 5 26

Death of righteous like shock of corn in eight point

The wicked are compared to weeds to be burned but the righteous to corn in the harvest See parable of Tares and Wheat Mat. 13 Autumn after the hot season is pleasant a time of the joy of harvest Is 9 3, the righteous in death is compared in the text to the cutting of grain and to harvest home

1 Sown in order to be reaped again, at first the leaf is fresh and the stalk firm but not so beautiful as when the stalk is thin and the leaf sere but grain yellow, so the body must die to be raised again

2 Require preparatory agency, so showers of grace to nourish the sun of God's favour and harden the grain the dews of the Spirit to refresh and the winds of affliction to keep the roots loose Jacob, not knowing the preparatory agency, said All things are against me, Gen 42 36 when he was on the eve of great prosperity, God's chastening gives the penceable fruits of righteousness

3 Only cut when fully ripe, if cut too soon the ear is watery, if too late dried up, the sower waits for the early and latter rain the wicked are driven away but the righteous are always prepared by hope Prov 14 32, Ahyah and Josiah had their harvest in early youth, Noah and Abraham in advanced years

4 The ripe corn is handled with care, the scythe of death is put to the roots but the sheaves are bound up with care Lazarus was nursed by dogs in life but angels took charge of him in death Luke 16 21, many grains in the natural harvest are lost but not so with the righteous John 10 28

5 Wet ripe housed in safety there may be anxiety about the weather but harvest home is a time of joy the grain is lodged in the granary no more tears

6 Wet ripening langes its leaf, so with increasing humility the righteous see more of their sin and of God's goodness, Job repented in dust and ashes, Job 42 6; so Peter took off his coat at first through zeal, but finally wants to put off his tabernacle, 2 Pet. 1. 14, so Paul at first calls himself the least of the Apostles, next less than the least of all saints, finally chief of sinners.

7. Ripening becomes weighty, the believer, a father in grace, has a zeal and love with a steadier flame, his graces are complete, hope with joy makes not ashamed

8 Ripening corn becomes gradually looser, less need of the earth, so Paul learned to be in all things content; the worldling is attached to a shadow, but Paul thinks the world only dung

9 Ripening easily distinguished from tares by the smell and fruit, the righteous bring forth fruit in old age, Ps 92 15, tares are then distinguished from wheat

10 Ripened corn more susceptible of injury, as showers or wind may lay it level, so Jacob on his bed said, My soul, come not thou into their secret, Gen 49 6, David wished for wings like a dove to flee away

11 Ripened corn apt to fall of its own accord, so Paul wished to depart The righteous seek a heavenly country, Heb 11 16, hence no tears for them, Rev. 7. 14, they are clad in white robes

Turk —Weep not over the dead but over the fool.

Canara —An old man may have a youthful heart, a poor man may have a noble inclination

Canara —Nothing like newness in clothes, like age in men

Oriental —A good old man is like old wine which has deposited its lees

Arab —The remembrance of youth is a matter of sighing, the remembrance of death refreshes the heart

Raghuransa —The men of feeble mind think the death of a friend a thorn fixed within the heart, whereas the wise men look on it as extracted—for death is the gate to happiness

Raghuransa —The king performed the obsequies for his deceased wife, of whom nothing, except her virtue, was left

Charity covers a Multitude of Sins—PROV 10 12

Love pours water not oil on the flame, so with a conciliatory demeanour, love has a large mantle to hide faults, so with Christ and his disciples, Mat 26 31, 41, John 20 25-27

Talmud—To love a thing makes the eye blind, the ear deaf

Arab—Love is the companion of blindness

Galic—Faults are thick where love is thin

Let the Dead bury their Dead—MAR 8 22

One of Christ's disciples asked him leave of absence to go and bury his father. He replied, Your business is to preach my religion and let those who are dead to God attend to burying the dead. A man in England, who lived to the age of 84, but was converted when 80 years old had the inscription on his tomb—Died aged 4 years"—as he reckoned that he was only really alive when he served God

To be carnally minded is death saith St Paul, Rom. 8 6, and the poor Prodigal son in the parable, having lived in that state of mind till his conversion, the father says of him 'Thy brother was dead and is alive again' Luke 15 24. Man has a soul and body, each of which dies in its own way, and so either of them may be alive while the other is dead. There is a sense in which Adam died on the day when he sinned, and there is another sense in which Adam lived 930 years. Adam delivered down a natural life to all us that are born of him, but the only inheritance he could leave to our spirits was that death to which he was fallen. It is this death of the spirit which makes it necessary for every man to be born again.

There are multitudes of people who seem to live but are no better than dead, they are unburied dead, in them no sight, no sense of spiritual things, no appetite, no affection for them. We may preach to them all day long, and do no more good by it than if we were to preach to a man in his coffin. If we were to cry into their ears, or blow a trumpet to give them warning of the fire of judgment, and of eternal damnation, they would hear nothing. If we offer to them the bread of life, they want it not, for a dead man hath no appetite. Were the souls of men as visible as their bodies, we should see as much difference betwixt devout believers and the children of the world as between a living healthy body and a corpse. They are truer dead, as Jude 12 saith, dead once by nature and dead again unto grace. The pleasures of this world will extinguish the life of a believer, she that liveth unto this world is dead while she liveth, 1 Tim 5 6. All heavenly affections will die. On the other hand Abel while dead yet spoke—i.e. by his works.

Sanskrit —A man of evil repute is, though living, as one dead

China —Let the dead care for the dead, the living for the living, i.e., in reference to excessive sorrow for the dead

Kural —He lives whose life is love is led Another reckons with the dead

Arab —A benefactor is alive though removed to the mansions of the dead, Heb 11 4

The wicked is dead though in the mansions of the living

Persian —Whose soul is alive, his sensual desires are dead

Syriac —Seek death to obtain life

Persian —When I am dead the world is dead

The Righteous are Epistles not Written with Ink

2 Cor. 3 3

God's writing things in a book denotes his perfect knowledge, exact remembrance, and continued just regard to them. His writing bitter things against one, signifies his gradual afflicting of him with severe and lasting troubles, as he did Job His writing his law in men's heart, and sealing them with his Spirit, imports his applying his word by his Spirit to their heart, that they may be conformed to his image and law, and comforted by his influence, Rom 2 15 His writing men's names in heav'n in his book of life, with the living with the righteous, imports his particular and fixed choice of them to obtain everlasting life, Luke 10 20 His writing his name in their foreheads imports his rendering them like him in holiness, and enabling them to make an open profession of his truth, Rev 14 1 His putting their tears into his bottle, and marking them in his bool, imports his kind observation, and careful rewarding thereof

Afghan — What is white shmes best amid black

Providence guards the Righteous as the Apple of the Eye — Ps 17 8

The ball of the eye is secured by the eyebrows which turn aside the perspiration of the forehead from the eye, while dust and insects are kept off by the eyelids, the socket of bone the eye is placed in protects the apple or pupil of the eye, which is in the centre of this, surrounded by the white of the eye. Such is God's protection

Bengal — He who has given life will give food

The Single Eye of pure Intention — Mat 6 22

Turk — The eyes are a balance of which the heart forms the weight

China — A hair's breadth at the bow is a mile beside the butt

Arab — The contemplation of vice is a vice Prov 23 31

Turk — The chimney catches fire from within

Yemen — A feast given without kindness is a mere waste of flour cakes, worship devoid of piety is a waste of the sprouts used in sacrifice, and gifts devoid of charity are a mere waste of gold 1 Cor 10 31

Oriental — You cannot drive a straight furrow without a straight eye

Telugu — Observances void of purity of heart ' to what end are they? to what is the preparation of food without cleansing the vessel? Mat 15 8

Telugu — Those who mortify their bodies, calling themselves saints, are yet unable to cure the impurity of their hearts. If you merely destroy the outside of a white ant hill, will the serpent that dwelt therein perish?

Telugu — The hypocrite's meditations are like those of a dog on a dunghill

Tamil — Like a jackal going round the grave of a child — i e, not from respect, but to tear up the corpse

Shanti Shatak — Praise to the stomach which is satisfied with little food, but shame to the heart, which, though it has a hundred desires satisfied, is pursuing after more

Sanskrit — As the spokes of a wheel are attached to the nave, so are all things attached to life

God our Father — HEB 12 9

Authority and dignity belong to a father, hence the rulers of Israel were called fathers Abraham commanded his children, and was hence called the Father of the Faithful

God like a good father in fifteen points —

1 Compassionate to children, so were the Apostles, 1 Thes 2 11, hence Paul calls Timothy his son, Tit 3 4, John 3 16, 1's 103 13, God treats them as lambs, 1's 40 11

2 Reverenced by children and not rebuked

3 Governs with wisdom

4 Gives being so Jacob to the twelve Patriarchs, so Abraham to the Jews numerous as the sand of the sea, Acts 7 8, believers are begotten by the word of truth, Jas 1 18, 1 Cor 4 15, God is the father of all men, especially of all regenerate Gal 4 6, 1 ph. 4 6

5 Nurishes, believers as new born babes receive the milk of the word 1 Pet. 2 2, a father gives a fish, not a serpent Mat. 7 10, Ps 34 8-10

6 Clothes, so Jacob made for Joseph a coat of many colours God clothes the grass so will He us, Matt 6 30, He gives the robe of salvation Isa 61 10

7 Protects, covers them with his wings so David, 1 Chr 16 21, 22

8 Delights even in their hisping so prayer the language of a sigh, Rom. 8 26, though they chatter like a crane, Isa 38 14, the publican only smote on his breast, yet God delighted in his humility, Luke 18

9 Sets a good example, merciful, Luke 6 36, patient,
Col 1. 11

10 Joins best those most like Him so Daniel was greatly beloved Dan 9 2, so David a man after God's own heart Acts 13 22, John the beloved disciple.

11 Educates, God's word makes wise unto salvation
2 Tim 3 15, sends Prophets, Eph 4 11, in Christ hid treasures of wisdom, Col 2 3

12 Ready to hear requests, 2 Cor 6 2, grants not injurious things Jas 1 5, 6, but takes away hurtful things, so hedges their way with thorns, Hos 2 6

13 Regards them even at a distance, so in the parable of the Prodigal son Luke 15 20

14 Patient, values sincerity, the children have rebelled Is 1 2-5

15 Chastises Prov 22 15, He rebukes transgression with a rod, sometimes he only remonstrates Mic 6 3, to be without chastisement a note of bastards, Heb 12 8, punishment a mark of love Rev 3 19, for our profit Heb 12 10, even then he is pained, thus chastisement is in measure

16 Makes provision for Earthly fathers often passionate though they be kings yet of poor dignity, often know not the condition of their distant children who may become poor Is 54 10, cannot convert, Heb

feeling of our infirmities

Bengal —The tree feels not its own fruit weighty

Badaga —Mix milk with water, it is still milk Your mother might behave badly, still she is your mother

The unripe fruit has little beauty, little flavour, is plucked with difficulty from the tree. But let the air and light, the warm sun and the fruitful showers, unite to swell it, and to ripen it, it is beautiful, it is sweet, falling from the bough into the hand of him that touches it.

In Gal 5. 22, 23, the fruits which the righteous ought to bear are described, those of the wicked are given Gal 5 19-21, the barren fig tree was cut down, Luke 13 7

Afghan — Cold is not kept out with a "for God's sake," or 'for the Prophet's sake,' but with four seer (2 lb) of cotton—i.e., cotton is used to stuff quilts and make them warm

China — To come to the river wishing to fish is not enough, you must bring the net in your hand

Sadi —

Though the water of life from the clouds fall in billows,
And the ground were strewn over with paradise loam
Yet in vain would you seek, from a garden of willows,
To collect any fruit as beneath them you roam

Oriental — Expecting good fruits from the wicked is draining swallow's milk, plucking a hog's soft wool, sands yielding pomegranates

Bengal — One knows the horse by his ears, the generous by his gifts, a man by laughing, and a jewel by its brilliancy.

Tamul — Will the tiger's young be without claws?

Arab — A learned man without works is like a cloud without rain

Rabbins — A basket full of books—i.e., a man of knowledge, but without using it

Sanskrit — A fallen woman is dead

Panch Tantra — As shade and sunlight are ever closely joined together, so an act and the agent stick close to each other

The Earth waxes old as a Garment — Heb 1 10-12

The earth itself is millions of years old and has changed its garment—i.e., the surface—many times. The Himalayas were once islands in an ocean which covered all India and the Bay of Bengal washed the foot of the Himalayas. India was once not a continent but an archipelago, its present mountains were then islands, while the valley of the Ganges was formed from the earth brought down from the mountains. England itself was then a tropical climate, sharks, alligators, and elephants lived there, though it is now too cold for them.

The heavens will be folded up as a scroll, Is 34 4,
Rev 6 14

Arab — The garment of salvation never grows old, Is 59
17, P's 104 2

China — The pleasure of doing good is the only one that

Hebrew — All flesh waxeth old as a garment

Bhagavatgita —

As their old garments men cast off, anon new raiment to assume,

So casts the soul its worn-out frame, and takes at once another form

The weapon cannot pierce it through, nor wastes it the consuming fire,

The liquid waters melt it not, nor dries it up the parching wind,

Impenetrable and unburned, impermeable and undried

Perpetual ever wandering, firm indissoluble, permanent, invariable unspeakable

The Strait Gate and Narrow Way to eternal Life
MAR 7 12

The Athar Veda of the Ugri Veda states 'The way to the knowledge of God is considered by wise men difficult as the passage over the sharp edge of a razor. Though the way to heaven does not allow the unclean or lions to pass on it the wayfarer, man though a fool may find it Is 35 8, it is not like the broad way, crowded or on an inclined plane or easy like a boat going with the tide or ending abruptly as Sodom did in limestone the way of transgressors is hard as Samson Jud 16 16, Saul 1 Sam 31 4 and the licentious found Prov 2 18 5 11, Josiah found the way that seemed right to him ended in death 2 Chr 35, the way of life goes to the eternal city John 14 6, the broad way has many on it and is easy leading to death Prov 4 19

Persian—The water of life is in darkness—the search is necessary

Persian—Travel the highway though it be roundabout—the short cuts are dangerous

Hitopades—A stone is rolled up a hill by great exertions, but is easily thrown down

The Girdle of Truth.—LKN 6 14.

Some girdles are made of gold or fine linen yet are perishable but truth is immortal, as the Persian proverb states Truth is not drowned in water nor burned in fire and the Bengali proverb False words and sprinkled water remain not long Better totter in our bodies than in our words Truth means the unleavened bread of sincerity 1 Cor 5 8

The Shanti Shatak treating of the marks of the friends of truth states they have as a father patience as a mother forgiveness, as a wife peace of mind, their heir truth, their sister pity, their brother temperance, the earth their bed, their garment the air, and wisdom their nectar" The Marl anda Purana writes of truth —

Through truth only the sun shines, on truth the earth stands,
To speak the truth is the highest duty, on truth the heaven rests,

Though we weigh a thousand Asvamedhs against truth,
Yet will truth outweigh a thousand Asvamedhs

Hypocrisy and malice are called leaven as being sour, and making other things sour, working secretly, puffing Leaven also, from its diffusive nature, symbolized the rapid spread of the Gospel, Mat 13 33

Nathaniel was an example of sincerity, a man without Jeaven, John 1. 47, such was Paul

Truth or sincerity is like a girdle in seven points —

1 A belt used by soldiers to protect the stomach and vital parts We are told to gird up the loins of our mind, 1 Pet 1 13—14, restrain earthly affections.

2 Cloaves close all round therefore the clothes were not easily loosed The righteous should not turn to the right hand or the left, 1 Kings 13, as the Bengali proverb, 'One foot on land, another on water'

3 Strengthens the loins gird up thy loins, 2 Sam. 22 40, God girds the loins of kings, Job 12 18, sincerity strengthens, 1 Kings 20 11, sincerity is the girdle to faith, hope, love, Matt. 6 22

4 A preparation for battle, Ps 65 3 a war of words necessary to contend for the faith as the righteous is a soldier

5 A preparation for travelling as the garments were long, so Elsha's, 2 Kings 4 29, so the spiritual pilgrims have to travel far, and the storms of persecution will blow away loose garments

6 Preparatory to serving so the servant ploughed with loins girt Luke 12 35

7 An ornament covers the joints of the armour, hides seams, sincerity covers low birth even in one of low descent, Is 43 4, it covers poverty All are yours, 1 Chr 3 22

Seeing through a Dark Glass —1 Cor 13 11

The eastern mirrors were made of polished steel, or brass, hence the ely is compared in Job 37 18, to a molten looking glass The Moorish women in Barbary hang looking glasses on their breasts

There were in Paul's time no windows of glass, but tale or horn ones, through these people saw very dimly, and such is our vision now of God's attributes, and of the mysteries of religion, Providence is a wheel within a wheel, Ez 1 16 Ships get on the rocks in a fog

Hearers not Doers gazers in a Looking glass

God has given us a mirror in which we may see the true character of our soul, we may thereby grow in self knowledge, and may adorn ourselves, not with what ministers to pride and worldly vanity but with the ornaments of meekness and holiness which are of great price in God's sight. This mirror is his holy Word which holds up to us the true lineaments and features of the soul and shows us how greatly it has lost the beauty of the image and likeness of God and how it is disgraced and deformed by spots and blemishes of sin. The swellings of pride the lines of envy and care the shades of sensuality, sloth, and earthliness appear too plainly, when we look into this faithful mirror, which is not like flattering friends who say smooth things to us, and sometimes puff us up with the notion that we are clothed with various graces, but it tells us the very truth concerning our spiritual state, and no veil of false excuses, or artful cloaking and colouring of our faults, will disguise from us our true state, if only we never neglect to consult this mirror in sincerity and with earnest prayer

There is looking without helping, as the Levite did, Lul e 10

Hearers not doers are also compared to those leading captive silly women ever learning never coming to the truth, 2 Tim 3 7, or to those hearing a fine song Ezek. 33 32, children with rickets have large heads, but weak joints God's word was designed as milk to enable persons to grow, 1 Pet 2 2 A fresh corpse can have the image of an object painted on the eye, but it reaches not to the heart Some hearers are like a sponge which suck up everything but all goes out again, others like a strainer letting go the good and retaining the bad, while some are like a sieve dropping the chaff and retaining the good grain

The Wild Goat on the Mountains protected, so the Righteous — Ps. 104. 18

How safely does the wild goat rest on the side of the precipitous mountain or climb the dizzy height, where man's brain would turn and his feet would inevitably slip. How freely and fearlessly does she leap from rock to rock! Her eye is as true and her foot as sure upon the steep and slippery crag as on some beaten road! God has fitted her for the high hills on which he has appointed her to live and has endued her with those faculties of the foot and of the eye which enable her even in the darkest night to walk on rocks and precipices where man could not tread securely under the noonday light.

The lesson taught is God's protecting providence which tempers the wind to the shorn lamb. It is like Jacob's Ladder extending from heaven to earth though God's way to us may be in the sea. Is. 43. 16 — i.e. leaving no track. God's acts are like clouds which though black have the rainbow of hope from Christ the Sun of Righteousness or like wheels of quick and easy motion which though wheel within wheel are regulated by the main wheel.

4 A hen's wings receive her young, Ps 91. 3. God says, I have spread out my hands, Is. 65. 2, come to me all that labour, Mat 11. 28, 29

A hen scratches to get meat for her young; she fasts herself to give meat to them, so God says, Ho every one that thirsts Is 55 1. A hen soon forgets her young when grown. Not so God. du — Among men some are jewels and some are pebbles.

ulri' —The ideal grows not in every wood esteemed wife is called by the Hindus a jewel of a woman See parable of the Pearl, Mat 13 45

The righteous are like jewels in seven points —

1 All jewels are dug out of the earth from rubbish, except the pearl found in the oyster, the diamond is only crystallized carbon or coal hardened in the earth, so believers at first of the earth earthy (1 Cor 15 49) dead in trespasses

2 Jewels receive a fine polish, which requires a long time A wheel is used for this purpose, so adversity polishes believers to put on the new man as it did to Job and David, the polishing continues till all the flaws are removed, thus the Church hereafter by affliction's rubbing, will be without spot or blemish

3 Jewels are rare Many stones and metals are not equal in value to a small one, so believers a little flock, Luke 12 32, not many wise called. Silver and gold were, however, as stones in Solomon's times, 1 Kings 10 27, so again in the New Jerusalem.

4 Jewels are very beautiful—yellow, green, purple, so the graces are beautiful—as love with John, humility as in Mary patience as in Job—whatever things are lovely, Philp 4 8 Believers like jewels shine in the dark so believers are the light of the world, so Peter and John's boldness was admired, though they were ignorant men Acts 4 5 Stephen's face shone when dying Jewels are ornamental, set in a crown, ring, or seal, used by brides and kings, so the believers crown will be an ornament to Christ's crown, Ex. 28 29 To angels is manifested the love of God to man.

5 Jewels are durable, such as the Kohi Nur of Ranyt Sing This is one cause of their value so the hidden man of the heart, 1 Peter 3 4, when earthly jewels shall be destroyed at the last day the righteous shall shine forth Mat 13 43, many seeming jewels are only glass, so with hypocrites.

6 Jewels are very valuable, so the righteous are the pearls of creation of great price Mat. 13 45 redeemed not with corruptible things 1 Peter 1 17, the precious sons of Zion were esteemed by the Chaldeans as earthen vessels Lam. 4 2, yet regarded as the apple of God's eye, Deut. 32 10 Ten jewels—i.e., good men—would have saved Sodom could they have been procured

God a Judge —REV 19 12.

From God's judgment seat there is no escape by bribery. God spared not the devils neither Nebuchadnezzar nor Pharaoh. He is the Father of Lights, and knows the law he himself made, he is patient because he is eternal, he spared the world in Noah's time 120 years, and the world has been spared now 6 000 years.

The eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the evil and the good. There is no secret place in which the sinner can hide himself, for God who is present every where, sees in the dark as well as in the light. He hears us when we do not speak because he hears our thoughts. As the light of the sun reaches to the ends of the world so his power is everywhere Ps. 139

God differs from earthly judges in four points —

The judge who punishes sins in a court of justice receives his information from others and can know only that which the witnesses tell him. But God is both judge and witness and knows all things. When the judge has condemned a man and he is put to death, he has no more that he can do; but the power of God reaches beyond the grave, for he can destroy both the soul and body in hell. His hand shall find out those whom the grave has hidden from our sight, and they shall be brought forth, and placed before his judgment-seat to be judged for their past lives. Thefts, murders, and other sins which were committed in the dark, and were hidden from men so long as the offenders lived, shall then all be discovered, and made known. With the fear of this, the guilty shall tremble when they rise from their graves, then shall they call upon the mountains to fall upon them, and hide them from the face of their judge, Rev. 6. 16.

Arab — Ignorance is the greatest poverty

Sanskrit — One void of learning is a beast

Sanskrit — The spring is the youth of trees, wealth is the youth of men, beauty is the youth of women, intelligence is the youth of the young

Arab — One day of a wise man is worth more than the life of a fool

Niti Shatak — The man without learning is a beast

Sin, a Leprosy — Is 1 6 .

Disease called an arrow flying at night, Ps 90, such as cholera. David was a man after God's own "heart," though living in a palace of cedar, he could not prevent disease the fruit of sin, from entering, no soundness in his flesh no rest in his bones, an emblem of sin, thus was the man once so lively who danced before the ark, Ps 38 7

Sin is like leprosy in twelve points —

1 Painful Pain is often useful in warning of danger to the body, thus fire warns, but the absence of mental pain is often an opiate to the conscience thus Cain did not feel at first that he was guilty of murder, he said, Am I my brother's keeper? Gen 4, 9 So when David committed murder he slept well. On another occasion, however he states the arrows of the Almighty are within him. A pain often points out the seat of disease, opiates are not good in such a case. The pain of future punishment should be anticipated like as in the case of the men that heard Peter, and who were pricked to the heart, Acts 2 37, others however as in Judas's case suffer pain without any benefit

2 Wastes the body and beauty His beauty consumes like a moth, Ps 39 11 The Nazarites whiter than snow, became black as a coal Lam 4 8 God saw once every thing he made was good, even man's body, but sin has

10 Extremely complicated Now the fever of agitated passion, the palsy of want of natural affection, the decay of spiritual affection—a complication of disorders, so that what is a remedy in one case is a poison in another

11 Hereditary “What is born of the flesh is flesh” “In sin did my mother conceive me,” Ps 51 5 By one man sin entered into the world, Rom 5 12, so Gehazi’s family inherited from him the leprosy, 2 Kings 5 27

12 Most infectious The atmosphere of the earth is charged with disease which is caught from the air of a room or from clothes, but sin from a glance, or a word, as in David’s case Evil communications corrupt good manners Only Christ was exempt from this infection, like a sunbeam he could penetrate impurity without being soiled

13 Very loathsome and malignant The drunkards and libertine’s complaints are such. The body, as in leprosy, is often a putrid mass so that friends cannot come near Paul says, ‘Who shall deliver me from the (putrid) body of this death?’

14 Incurable by human means, sin when it hath conceived, brought forth dead Quack doctors will not do No doctors can cure this leprosy

God’s People graven on the Palms of his Hands

Is 49 15 16.

God is a mother may forget her sucking child but he will not forget his people, Is. 49 15 An engraving is not impressed on the surface as writing but is cut in or graven with a pen of stone or of writing iron, this impression is not rubbed out like that of ink or on palm leaves, but remains like the impression of the style on leaves. God's having his people graven on the palms of his hands, means their being in a secure place, and one easily observed by the individual

Hitopadesh —He by whom swans are made white, and parrots green, and peacocks variegated, will provide thy subsistence

Sanskrit —A mother curses not her son, the earth suffers no harm, a good man does no injury, God destroys not his creation

Light —Ps 36 9

God the sun, the source of light, Jas 1 17, communicated to the body through the eye, Mat 6 22, the path of the just like the shining light, Prov 4 18, the favour of God is light, Ps 27 1, and is therefore agreeable, Ecc 11 7

Upanishad —It is through God's shining that all else shines, by his lustre the universe is illuminated

The Righteous Bold as a Lion —Prov 28 1

The roaring of a lion in quest of his prey resembles the sound of distant thunder, and being re-echoed by the rocks and mountains appals the whole race of animals and puts them instantly to flight. So great are the terror and dismay which his roaring produces, that many animals which by their swiftness might escape his fury, astonished and petrified by the sound of his voice, are rendered incapable of exertion. He never flies from the hunters nor is frightened by their onset, if their numbers force him to yield he retires slowly, step by step, frequently turning upon his pursuers. He has been known to attack a whole caravan, and when obliged to retire he always retires fighting, and with his face to his enemies "An army of deer with the lion as leader is more terrible than an army of lions with a deer as leader"

A lion was the symbol of a king, Judah is called, from its brave character, a lion's whelp, Gen 49 9, Babylon is called a lion on the eagle wings of conquest, Dan. 7 4, Paul was delivered out of the lion's mouth—i e, from the wicked—2 Tim 4 17, Nebuchadnezzar was called a lion, Jer 4 7, Christ called the lion of the tribe of Judah, Rev 5 5.

A lion is

1 Courageous, such was David, Ps 27 3, so Nehemiah said, shall such a man as I flee, Neh 6 11, so Paul boldly avowed his doctrine to be what the governor called heresy, Acts 24 14, he fought with beasts, 1 Cor 15 32, the Apostles said they must speak of the things they had seen, Acts 4 20, so Elijah, 1 Kings 10 15, 19, Is 41 14 The lion called the king of beasts, so believers are more than conquerors, Rom 8 3, other beasts fear it, so Herod feared John, Matt. 15 5

2 Strong Samson says, out of the strong lion came forth sweetness, Judg 14 14, Christ as a lion is mighty to save, Is 9 6, at times the lion is still when he crouches down before his spring, Christ is now a lamb, but afterwards will be a lion, on the last day, Am. 3 8

3 Mild to these submissive yet firm, so John before Herod, Paul before Felix, so Moses

Time like a Mail-post, Swift Ships, Eagles.—Jas 9. 25. 26.

Time, in its rapid devastating course, is compared to a flood, Ps 90. 5; to a tale that is told, Ps 90. 9; a hand-breadth, Ps 39. 5, a dream, Ps 73. 20; a weaver's shuttle, Job 7. 6.

In Job's days human life had been gradually shortening from 500 to 70 years.

The dromedary post, though not as quick as a horse in a given space, yet maintains an uniform continued progress.

Time is like a mail-post, in four points:

1. The postman rides on swift horses 150 miles a day, while the caravan moves only at two miles an hour.

2. Changes in order to increase speed.

3. Delays little for rest or mere salutation, Luke 10. 4.

4. Allows no obstruction on the road. The Persian messengers could, by royal authority, press horses, men, or ships, so as to expedite them, Esth 3. 15.

An Oppressor like a Crouching Lion.—Ps 10 9

A lion is proud, strong, and crafty, lying in wait for the prey, such were Nebuchadnezzar, Dan 3, Manasseh, 2 Kings 21. 16, Rehoboam, Satan is compared to a roaring lion, 1 Pet 5 8, active as with Job, knowing his time is short, Rev 12 12

Oppression is an abuse of power, the practice of unjust and uncharitable actions as to a hired servant, Deut 24 14, or widow, Ex 22 21-24 Oppression makes a wise man mad, Ecc 7. 7, grinds the face of the poor, Is. 3. 15, slays the poor, Mic 3 1-3 Envy one cause of oppression, as in Ahab and Naboth's case, pride another, as in Jezebel's case,

Telugu —There is no justice in oppression and no sight in a blind eye

Bengal —The landlord loves the peasant with the same love as the Musalman has to the fowl—i.e., which he fattens in order to kill.

A Living Dog better than a dead Lion.—Lev 9: 4

This text points out the value of life, using as an emblem the dog, the meanest of animals, Matt. 15: 26, and the lion, the noblest, Prov. 30: 30.

Man and Wife one Flesh—Matt 19: 5

There is an union, but not like the one in Nebuchadnezzar's image, Dan 2: 33. No bitterness is to be shown, Col. 3: 19. The Egyptians represent a man without a woman by a single mill stone, which cannot grind alone.

Talmud.—Even though the wife be little, bow down to her in speaking, i.e., do nothing without her advice.

Jainicriter.—The husband and wife must, like two wheels, support the chariot of domestic life, otherwise it must stop.

Arab.—Women are parts cut out of men. Gen 2: 23

China.—Husband and wife in perfect accord;

Are the music of the harp and lute.

China.—A good man will not beat his wife;

A good dog will not worry a fowl

Badaga.—If you yoke a buffalo and an ox together, the one will push for the swamp and the other for the hill

Arab.—A mule yoked with horses. 2 Cor 6: 14

Persian.—Tied by the neck, i.e., married to a bad woman

Persian.—A bad wife is a tree growing on the wall, i.e., like the fig tree which undermines the wall by its roots

Russian.—A wife is not a guitar, i.e., which having done playing with you hang on the wall

Telugu.—The house is small and the wife like a monkey

China.—A widow is a rudderless boat.

Basque.—He who marries a wolf often looks towards the forest

Talmud — God did not make woman from man's head, that she should not rule over him, nor from his feet, that she should not be his slave, but from his side, that she should be near his heart

Bhagavadgita — Women like flowers are of tender fabric, and should be softly handled, Eph 5 25

Badaga — A passionate wife is as bad as a house that leaks

Bartrilari — This is the fruit of love among married people, one mind among two persons, where there is discord, it is the marriage of two corpses

Mrichakati —

Look round the garden mark these stately trees,
Which duly by the king's command attended,
Put forth abundantly their fruits and flowers,
And clasped by twining creepers, they resemble
The manly husband, and the tender wife

THE MISER — LUKE 12 19.

Sanskrit — A miser's wealth goes by fire, robbers and kings

Telugu — Practising the humility of a fox, he heaps up wealth and does not use it, thus is rice sprinkled at the mouth of a bandicoot trap Prov 13 11

Badaga — A miser is a tree with fruit you cannot get

FALSE PEACE LIKE UNTEMPERED MORTAR — EZEK. 13 10

In Persia proper mortar is made of plaster earth, and chopped straw well kneaded together, but often to save expense they put much water to a little plaster, which looks as well but is not plaster. There is no cement in a house so built, it is like the house on the sand which the whirlwind or flood breaks down. Mat 7 27 like some of the bridges in India cemented by rubbish not by mortar, or like the virgins without oil Mat. 25 1-13. Such is all false peace without repentance and faith in the atonement of Christ like that of the rich fool Luke 12 19.

Bhagavadgita — The soul floats like the lotus on the lake unmoved unruffled by the tide, Acts 20 24

Modern Greek —No one is disgusted with his own bad smell

Telugu —Like sprinkling rose water on ashes

Arab —Temperance is a tree which has contentment for its root, and peace for its fruit

Malayalam —Time shows the value of a bridge built of wood, Prov 5 3, 1 Cor 3 13

Modern Greek —Neighbour! your house is on fire Impossible, I have the keys

Russian —The bell calls to church, but goes not in itself

Oriental —The prosperity of an ignorant man is like a garden on a dunghill

China —We never wander so far away as when we think we know the way

Cingalese —Like changing the pillow when suffering from headache

Modern Greek —He who eats flax seed eats his own shirt—e, the future sacrificed to the present

Tamil —As quiet as a snake in a box

Bhagavatgita —Without quiescence there can be no bliss
Even as a storm tossed ship upon the waves,
So is the man whose heart obeys his passions,
Which like the winds will hurry him afar

Buddhagosa —Who subdues his passions is a lake without mud

Arab —Patience is the key to joy

Mountains —DAN 2 45

Their solid strength untouched by visible decay, gave mountains the name of the pillars of heaven, Job 26 11
Their majesty defies the turbulence and confusion of the world at their feet yet God weighs them in a balance, Is 40 12

Raghurause —The storm may uproot the trees, but not the mountains Ps 125 2

The Spiritual Net—Mar 13. 47

As the sea is a frequent type or emblem of the world, so "the fishes of the sea," which take their course at will, and so often prey upon one another throughout that waste of waters, represent the vast numbers who know not God, and walk in the way of their own hearts, without any sure guide or rule of conduct, and too often only envying and provoking, hating and devouring, one another. Into this broad sea of the whole world a net was to be cast, and instead of their lowly labours on the little sea of Galilee the Apostles were to be employed in gathering men out of every clime and country into the Church of God, and in drawing them under the blessed restraints and holy discipline of "the obedience of faith." A net will indeed gather of every kind, and when it is drawn to the shore, a separation is made of the fishes which are worth the pains of taking out of the sea, and of such as are nothing worth, and may be cast away. Thus among those who are gathered into the visible Church of Christ, there "are good and bad," many false professors as well as sincere servants of God, nor will the good be separated from the bad until the net is drawn completely to the shore, which will not be till the end of the world. The fish, whether big or little, are taken out of the sea of this world, a stormy place full of rocks, subject to tempests

The Night of Isao and Day of Eternity—Rom 13. 12

The Shānti Shatak states, "The world is like a wild desert, the house of our body is full of holes our fancies are a night which throws the veil of illusion over us be watchful and defend yourself with the sword of knowledge, the shield of resignation, and the armour of caution"

Morning comes after night, so the morning of eternity,

Is 49 14 morning longed for, P 130 6, morning makes things manifest Is 58 8 1 Cor 4 5, morning brings joy birds sing, flowers are fresh Is 26 19, morning foreshows the king of day

Life like night in four points —

1 A state of darkness whereas light symbolizes knowledge Is 8 20 holiness 1 John 1 7, comfort Ps 97 11 and glory, Col 1 12

2 The time of sleep 1 Thess 5 7 hence sleep is called the son of night Half our days we pass in the shadow of the earth and the brother of death (sleep) extracts a third part of our lives

3 Time of danger beasts and thieves prowl about Is 21 12 heaven is light the inheritance of the saints in light

4 Inactivity, ignorance Luke 1 79 night an emblem of death, John 9 4 The Arabs say he who has done justice in the night has built himself a house for the next day

Bengal — Where there is fear of the tiger it is evening

Arab — The day blots out the dread of night

Turk — Night is the day of the wicked.

The Sensualist's Old Age — ECCLES 12 1 7

This is a description of the dreary old age of the man who when young would go on in the way of his heart, not as the good old age of Abraham and David Gen 15 1, 1 Chron. 29 28 or the serene old age of Isaac Jacob Moses and Joshua Is 40 30-31 The pious old renew their youth as the eagles they bring forth fruit in old age, Ps 92 15

In the 12th chapter of Ecclesiastes, the Preacher Solomon admonishes to dedicate youthful days to the service of our Creator, considering the evil days of the winter of life which are coming on when the faculties of our minds and bodies often fail. For then, the sun and the moon and the stars are darkened—i.e. the superior powers, which rule in the body of man as the heavenly luminaries do in the world—viz. the understanding and reason, the imagination and the memory—are obscured as when the clouds interpose between us and the lights of the firmament. In the earlier season of life the clouds of affliction having poured down their rain they pass away, and sunshine succeeds, but now the clouds return after the rain—i.e. old age itself is with the wicked a continual sorrow, and there is no longer any hope of fair weather. The keepers of the house, the arms and hands, which are made to guard and defend the body, begin to shake and tremble, and the strong men the shoulders, where the strength of the body is placed, and which were once able to bear every weight begin to stoop and bow themselves, the grinders, the teeth begin to fall away and cease to do their work because they are few. Also those that look out of the windows are darkened—i.e. the eyes those windows of the soul through which we look at all things abroad, become dim, and he that uses them is as one who looks out of a window in the night. The doors are shut in the streets—i.e. difficulties and obstructions attend all the passages of the body, and digestion becomes weak when the grinding is low. The youthful and healthy sleep soundly and are apt to transgress by taking too much rest, but the aged sleep with difficulty and rise up at the voice of the bird, at the crowing of the cock. The daughters of music are brought low, the voice falls and becomes hoarse, the hearing is dull, and the spirits now less active than they used to be are less affected by the powers of harmony, and so the old sit in heaviness, hanging down their heads, as virgins drooping under the sorrow of captivity. Old age being inactive and helpless, becomes afraid of that which is high, it is fearful of climbing because it is in danger of falling, and, being unfit to endure the hardships of fatigue, and the shocks of a rough journey, the fears which are in the way discourage the old from setting out. Then the almond tree flourishes—i.e., the hair of the head becomes white as the early almond blossoms in the hard weather of the winter before the snows have left, and even the grass hopper becomes a burthen—i.e., the legs, once light and nimble to leap, as the legs of that insect, and which used with ease to bear the weight of the whole body, are now become a burthen, and can scarcely carry themselves, and when the faculties thus fail, the desire fails along with them, for nothing is desirable when nothing can be enjoyed.

Such are the evil days which come upon many when their youth is passed in sin, and prepare the way for death, when man goeth to his long home. Then the silver cord, the nerves, whose coat is white and shining as a cord of silver is loosed, and no longer does its office. The circulation of the blood stops at the heart the fountain of life, as when a pitcher which draws water is broken at the well, or the watering wheel circulating with its buckets, which it both fills and empties at the same time, is broken at the cistern. Thus do the vital motions all cease in death, and the dust returns to the earth, to become such as it was before man was made out of it, and his immortal spirit returns unto God, the fountain of immortality from whom it proceeded.

Arab—Hoary hairs are death's messengers

Arab—The gravity of old age is fairer than the flower of youth

China—In clothes we value novelty in men old age

China—A wall is craked and lofty, its fall must be speedy

- Afghan* — Oh! greybeard thou eatest earth—i.e., money to an old man is as useless as earth
- Afghan* — The ass grown old did not know his master's house
- Arab* — The cat became blind but still was hankering after mice
- Bengal* — Plastering an old hut with clay and cow dung—i.e. passing off a vile article as excellent

Oppressing the Poor a Sweeping Rain — Prov 18 3

The periodical rains which follow the long-continued drought of summer in Eastern countries sometimes occasion a devastation unknown in a European climate. The rivers and brooks in consequence of the periodical rains overflowing their bounds carry run into the most cultivated districts but especially among the dwellings of the poor which being usually built of mud or of bricks burnt only in the sun are the first to fall before the torrent involving the inhabitants in destruction.

The giants before the flood were oppressors Gen 6 4 12 13, so were the Filistines Ex 1 13 so Jerbel 1 Kings 21 7-13 devoured by dogs 2 Kings 9 30-37 not so Job 31 13-15 or those obeying the law of Moses Deut. 15 7-11 24 10-15 See the parable of the Unmerciful Servant Mat. 18 30-34

Oppression of the poor is called a pinch g after the dust on their head Amos 2 7—i.e. thereby the oppressors in line to rob them of everything and crush them to the dust of death. It is represented as a sell ing the poor for a pair of sh Am 3 8 6, to mark how lightly the oppressor esteems them, and for how little he is disposed to ruin them. It is called a crushing and treading upon them, Amos 5 11, to signify the grievous, afflictive, and debasing tendency thereof. It is called a slaying of them, a chopping their bones Mic 3 3, a frightening and terring them in the manner of lions, wolves or bears, to denote the inhuman cruelty contained in it and the utter ruin effected by it. It is represented as a building of houses and cities by blood, Hab 2 12, because oppressors rear these structures with the wealth extorted from others, to the endangering of their life. It is called an eating of God's people as bread, Micah 3 3, to mark the pleasure and greed wherewith wicked men persecute the persons, ruin the character, and consume the substance of the godly.

The widow of Zarephath, 1 Kings 17 12, was happier than Queen Jezebel the oppressor, while the rust of the rich man's gold shall eat his flesh as fire Jas 5 2-3, it shall also like the dust be a testimony against him, Mark 6 11.

Solomon writes, the teeth of the oppressor are knives to devour the poor from off the earth, Prov 30 14. We are to open our mouth for the dumb, Prov 31 8.

The Righteous as the Palm Tree —Ps. 92 12

The righteous resemble the palm tree in five points

1 The palm tree grows in the desert. Earth is a desert to the righteous. true believers are even refreshed in it as a palm is in the Arabian desert, so Lot amid Sodom's wickedness and Noah who walked with God amongst the antediluvians.

2 The palm tree grows on the sand, but the sand is not its food, water below feeds its tap roots though the heavens above be brass. Some righteous live not as the lily, by green pastures, Hos 14 5, or willow by water-courses, Is 44 4, but as the palm of the desert, so Joseph among the Cat worshippers of Egypt, Daniel in voluptuous Babylon. Faith's penetrating root reaches the fountains of living waters

3 The palm tree is beautiful, with its tall and verdant canopy, and the silvery flashes of its waving plumes, so the believer's virtues are not like the creeper or bramble, tending downwards, their palm branches shoot upwards, and seek the things above, Col 3 1, some trees are crooked and gnarled, but the righteous is a tall palm, as a son of the light, Mat 3 12, Phil 2 15 The Jews were called a crooked generation, Deut. 32 5, and Satan a crooked serpent, Is 27 1, but the believer is upright like the palm. Its beautiful unfading leaves made it an emblem of victory, victors in heaven are represented as having palms in their hands, Rev 7 9, it was twisted into verdant booths at the Feast of Tabernacles, and the multitude, when escorting Christ to his coronation in Jerusalem, spread leaves on the way, John 12 13 No dust adheres to the leaves as it does with other leaves, the righteous is in the world, not of it, the dust of earth's desert adheres not to his soul. The leaf of the palm is the same—it does not fall in winter, and even in the summer it has no holiday clothing, it is an evergreen the palm tree's rustling is the desert orison

4 The palm tree is very useful The Hindus reckon it has 360 uses Its shadow shelter, its fruit refreshes the weary traveller, it points out to water Such were Barnabas, a son of consolation, Acts 4 36, Lydia Dorcas, Acts 9 39, and others, who on the king's highway showed the way to heaven, as Philip did to the Ethiopian eunuch, Acts 8 34

The palm tree bears fruit even to old age The best dates are produced when the tree is from thirty to one hundred years old, and 300lbs of dates are annually yielded, so the righteous grow happier and more useful as they become older, knowing their own faults more, they are more mellow to others, like the sun setting, beautiful, mild, and large, looking like Elim in the desert, where the wearied Jews found twelve wells and seventy palm trees, Ex 15 27.

The Heavenly Race — Heb 12 1, 7

World's race differs from the heavenly in six points —

It was the practice in ancient Greece to celebrate once every four years with great solemnity certain games, as trials of bodily strength or skill in wrestling leaping, running the quoit, these were attended by a vast assemblage of people of all ranks. The prize that was contended for was a crown or chaplet of leaves, with which the victor was crowned, while his name was proclaimed by heralds in the presence of the whole assembly, judges were appointed to decide on the merits of the candidates and to see that the several contests were conducted according to the laws that were laid down

The foot race was one of the principal of these games ; and St Paul has in many places alluded to it in illustration of the Christian life, 1 Cor 9 24-27, as a continual strife or contest for victory over our manifold, corrupt, and deceitful lusts, and he encourages us to maintain the conflict by the thought that we are contending for a glorious prize in the presence of a great crowd of witnesses. The crown for which we contend is not a chaplet of fading leaves, but a crown of righteousness and glory, 1 Cor 9 25. The witnesses of our manful efforts are the great company of those cited by the Apostle, who have before us gained this mastery over sin, the world, and the devil, and have now by faith and patience attained the promises, we contend for the prize of our high calling in the presence of God and of his holy angels.

A man, who was about to contend in a foot race, would first lay aside every weight that might be about his person, and would disencumber himself of every needless garment. Yet Paul ran his race in Rome, when he was a prisoner in chains. Thus we are to prepare ourselves for our course by laying aside every weight, and "the sin that doth so easily beset us." He who does not take pains to divest himself of covetousness, sensuality, pride, and other too-easily besetting sins, is as one who should lade himself with thick clay when about to start upon a race, Habak. 2 6.

When once the candidates started on their course, they did not suffer themselves to relax in their efforts until they had reached the end. They did not linger on the way, nor stop to look back with satisfaction on the progress which they had made, but they thought only of what yet remained to be done, and they kept the eye steadily fixed upon the mark or goal. If they found themselves disposed to give way they remembered the prize which was such an object of desire and pressed forward with renewed spirit, Rev 2 10. It will not do for us to relax our efforts to obtain the mastery over our own lusts and passions as they will gain upon us if we give them the least advantage, Thess. 3. 13.

In the heavenly race all may be winners; there is no jealousy, the strong are to help the weak; there is joy in running, Ps. 19. 5, the value of the prize is an exceeding weight of glory; the spectators are angels, devils, and God, the Judge is impartial, and perfect in knowledge.

God will not Break the bruised Reed.—Mat 12. 20

See the parable of the Publican, Luke 18. 9-14. illustrating God's kindness to the humble and penitent.

The bruised reed, which has been crushed by some weight that has passed over it, and appears to be bowed hopelessly to the ground, is the emblem of one who has been crushed under the burthen of his sins, and of all that sorrow and remorse which are sure to follow in their train. Judas was so weighed down with remorse that he went and hanged himself, Mat 27. 5.

"The smoking flax" is another emblem of the same case, and with this additional resemblance. If the flax which has been lighted will not burn, its smoke is so offensive, that all cry out impatiently to have it quenched as soon as possible. And this fact is elsewhere used to show how abominable are the wicked in the sight of their holy

Maker, for he says of them, and especially of such as say to their fellow sinners "Stand by thyself, for I am holier than thou" "These are a smoke in my nostrils (Is 65 5), a fire that burneth all the day"—that is, not a quick and pleasant flame, but a mere smouldering fire, such as lingers in flax when too damp for any flame to break out, and emitting only a noxious smoke. God will not rashly snap asunder the last thread by which a spiritual life keeps its hold on the soul of one who has fallen. It is far better to be as a bruised reed (of a contrite and humble spirit) than to be as the cedars of Lebanon that are exalted and lifted up, or as the oaks of Bashan, on which the day of the Lord of Hosts shall be, Isa. 2 13

God a Refuge and Shield—Ps 17 1, Gen 12 1-4, Dan 2. 16-19

God is a hiding place, Is 32 2, and a strong tower—i e., a refuge in time of war, Prov 18 10. But the name "refuge" has a very particular meaning. If any Israelite killed a man by accident, God told Moses that he must not be treated as a murderer, because he did not design to murder, Num 35. But, lest the kinsman or relation of the person killed should take away the life of the manslayer, which was allowed to be done in the case of murder, he was to hurry off with all speed out of his way, and to take refuge in one of the six cities appointed for the protection of such persons. These cities were well supplied with water, and plenty of provisions, so that there was no occasion to go out of them to buy, which would endanger the manslayer. The roads to these places were all plain and easy of access, kept in good order, and provided, wherever it was necessary, with bridges to cross streams of water, and wherever two roads met, there were hand posts pointing to the proper direction, on which was written in large characters, so that it might easily be read, "Refuge, Refuge." So God is our refuge, to whom we may flee in distress, as the manslayer did to the city of refuge.

Rend the Heart, not the Garment.—JER 2 13.

Rending the garment was a sign of grief, as Jacob did, Gen 37. 34, Job 1. 20

The Russians have a proverb "People sometimes sin like David, but do not sorrow like him," 2 Sun 12 13 Repentance is compared to awakening, 1 pl 5 14, & pricking at the heart, Acts 2 37, smiting, Luke 18 13, coming to oneself, Luke 15 17 The tear of repentance is dropped from the eye of faith, repentance consists in attrition, as when a rock is broken in pieces, and in contrition, as when ice is melted in water, the former is the work of the law, the latter of the Gospel—the one is like a hammer, the other like dew Ice must not only be broken, but melted, so the coldness must be taken out of the heart False repentance is the sudden torrent after rain in the mountains, or like people who throw their goods over in a storm, and wish for them again in a calm. False repentance is also compared to the sow returning to wallowing in the mire 2 Pet 2 22 See parable of Prodigal Son, Luke 15 11–32 The true is the stream flowing from a living fountain

Divinely applied to our heart the Gospel is not only a net but a plough breaks up the fallow ground, tears up the roots of corruption, and prepares us for receiving the good seed of grace How proper for its operation, the winter of adversity and spring tide of youth! How necessary that every application be attended with the dewy influence of the Holy Spirit!

The hypocrite's repentance is like Jonah's gourd, which came up in a night and perished in a night, Jonah 4 10, or a deceitful bow, Hos 7 16

Examples of true repentance in rending the heart are met in Manasseh, 2 Chr 33 12–13, Nineveh, Jonah 3 5–8,

Peter, Mat. 26 75, the thief on the cross Luke 23 40-41, Ahab rent his clothes and his heart, 1 Kings 21. 27-29 Examples of false repentance in Pharaoh, Ex. 9 27-34 Saul, 1 Sam 15 24-30, Judas, Mat. 27 3-5, Jews pricked to the heart, Acts 2 37. The furrow will be crooked if the eye looks back. The plough of repentance breaks the hard stony soil of the heart, kills the weeds, Luke 9 62

Persian —God rights him that keeps silence

Talmud —Be as strong as a leopard, light as an eagle, quick as a goat and brave as a lion to do the will of thy heavenly father which the eastern gardens were planted and cities were erected; and the church of God is called a city, because like a city it is composed of many individuals living together, having the same common privileges, which is refreshed and delighted by this river common to all—i.e., by the spiritual blessings which God bestows upon it, regaling all its spiritual senses, and supplying all its spiritual need

A flowing river is often spoken of in Scripture, when it is intended to describe the abundance of anything, Job 29 6 "The rock poured me out rivers of oil"—i.e., great plenty and abundance of oil, Ps 36 8, "Thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures," that is, thou shalt make them partake of that abundant pleasure, delight, and satisfaction which thou didst not only enjoy thyself, but bestowest upon thy people. In Job 40 23, it is said of the hippopotamus, "He drinketh up a river"—i.e., a great quantity of water. 'Thou waterest the earth with the river of God,' Ps 65 9, that is, with plentiful showers of rain from the clouds, and 'river' may denote the constancy and perpetuity of these pleasures as well as their plenty. John 7 38 "He that believeth on me, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water"—i.e., he shall be endued with the gifts and graces of the Spirit in a plentiful measure, which shall not only refresh himself, but shall break forth and be communicated to others also for their refreshing. In Psalm 46 4, the words mean the gracious presence of God, and the blessings following thence, which shall make Zion, or the Church of God, glad

God is compared to a place of broad rivers, Is 33 21, by him suns in their situation and blessings, are adorned and beautified, by him the an—i.e., the soul's breathing is rendered pure and wholesome, by him they are completely defended from every foe, by him they have full access to the profitable commerce of the celestial country, in him how wide their prospect into eternity, into things in heaven and on earth ! How inexhaustible his fulness to quench their thirst, to satisfy their desires, refresh their souls, and purge away their filth

A river however large like the Amazon, which is 180 miles wide springs from a small fountain scarcely seen, like the founts of the Ganges at Gangautri, the river of grace rises far as ay in heaven from the throne of God A river, not like a tank, has much water constantly flowing, all may come to it Is 5, 1,—it sometimes overflows, so at Pentecost and in the time when God's knowledge shall cover the earth In its course it is impetuous, carries away impediments, so Paul went out a lion came in a lamb, Acts 9 6, it fertilises the righteous are compared to willows by the watercourses Is 44 4, the banks of Indian rivers are very fertile, its waters are carried to the ocean so all grace ends in God, the water is always new and fresh hence grace compared to a tree of life bearing twelve manner of fruits every month.

The river of God's grace differs from earthly rivers in these points—it never dries up, is never frozen up, breeds no noxious animals its channel is not shifted, never muddy, cleanses the soul its fountain—the Holy Spirit—is eternal, its waters as clear as crystal, no trail of the serpent, no tigers near this river, no gold alloyed, no blighted flowers

The Sacrifices of the Body and of Praise—Rom 12 1

Paul wished to be delivered from his body of death referring to the custom of fastening a living body to a dead one until the criminal so fastened died from the stench of the putrefying corpse, and yet this vile body which will be glorified is to be used in God's service—but the sacrifices to God are a broken spirit Sacrifice was the immediate commerce of a creature with its God in which the Lord of all condescended to receive offerings at our hands Paul in this view offered his body as a sacrifice, and he was beheaded 2 Tim 4 6 We are to offer the meat-offering of charitable distributions, the drink offering of penitent tears, the hen offering of prayer, the peace offering of praise and the whole burnt-offering of worldly desire The priests before offering sacrifices must be washed anointed and put on white garments, they must have clean hands Is 52 11, so must we spiritually The sacrifice was not to be offered with strange fire, Nadab and Abihu were killed for doing so, neither were the blind to be offered Lev 22 22 The sacrifices of the wicked are an abomination Prov 21 27, so Absalom found 2 Sam 15 7-13, Jeroboam in his worship 1 Kings 12 26-33, Jezebel's fast, in order to murder Naboth 1 Kings 21 9-12, the Pharisee in his prayer, Mat 23 14

Tamul—Flowers beyond reach are sacred to God, those within reach are for themselves

The Troubled Sea of Evil Passion—Is 57 20

Passions like the sea are generally considered as terrible yet they have their use. Men do not reflect on the wonders and blessings which the sea presents to us in so visible a manner, it conveys ships cools the air yields plenty of fish supplies water to the clouds and salt, the saltness of the sea is such that a pound of its water contains two ounces of salt The sea salt appears to be lighter than that which we use in common, yet it is not drawn into the air by evaporation nor does the salt diminish by the continual pouring in of fresh water from all the rivers flowing into it yet not filling it this saltness is necessary for certain purposes, it prevents the water from corrupting and contributes to make it so heavy that the greatest ships may be transported from one place to another The creatures of which the sea is full ought also to excite our wonder and

* admiration, as well as its depth, in some places as much as five miles

Evil passions like the troubled sea in seven points —

The quiet spirit of a good man is like the clear water of the fountain, but the restless mind of the wicked is like the dirty waves of the sea, when the mire of the bottom is stirred up by their motions. Such were Samson Judg 16 16, Saul, 1 Sam 16 14. The wicked are devoured by foolish lusts, 1 Tim. 6 9. Our wicked passions, such as pride wrath and envy, disturb our hearts, like the winds which blow upon the sea and nothing can quiet them but the word and grace of Jesus Christ, who spoke to the raging waves, and commanded them to be still, so can He now command our restless spirits, and restore them to peace, so that there shall be a calm within us.

The wicked and their passions are like the sea, (1) a collection of many waters (the sea in scripture sometimes means numerous armies), so the passions various Jer 51 42

2 Sometimes roars and swells, the waves rise in great storms 60 feet, such are persecutors swollen with pride, Ps. 65 7

3 Bounds set by God. The sea shut up by doors, hitherto shall thou come Job 38 8. God set the sand as the ocean's boundary, Jer 5 22, the clouds as its garment Job 38 9, and darkness as its swaddling bands Job 38 9. Still at God's commands so God quiets the wicked. The winds and seas obeyed Jesus Mat. 8 26, so God stilleth the tumult of the people, Ps. 65, Jer 5 22

4 Monsters in it, Job 41 31 some are 80 feet in length, so Daniels four beasts of the sea or monarchs Dan 7 3 the Poman beast had great teeth, such was the emperor Nero, who killed his own mother such was Haman against Mordecai—i.e., the sea is always in motion even in a calm, hence the peace of heaven is represented as there being no more sea, Rev 21 1—i.e., no more trouble. The Bible compares the tranquillity of heaven to a sea of glass—i.e., still without storms, no separation. Mud and dust are cast out, so from the wicked heart arise envy, malice, and the filthy waves of passion.

So men change from restlessness. Ahasuerus turns off Vashti his queen, and entertains Esther, a Jewish maiden. Reuben is unstable as water, Gen 49 4. Pharaoh now on the throne anon in the bottom of the sea. Hezekiah healthy, now anon hears, set thy house in order for thou shalt die. Jerusalem besieged and freed in one night. In youth we are for pleasure, in manhood for fame in age for riches as if thick clay must be a provision for heaven. There is no constancy in health or wealth.

6 Deceitful, the sea allures by its calmness then heavy storms arise, so the world promises content but that cluster never grew on the world's thorns, it gives an hours pleasure and violent torture. Dues dainties now bite like a serpent. Achilles wedge of gold purchased the stones that beat out his brains. Judas thirty pieces bought the halter that hanged him. Sichem s lust brought the sword upon himself and the city, like a man in the sea with his pockets full of gold, which hastens his drowning. Job presented kindness to Amasa, but it is cruelty he killed and killed him 2 Sam 20. Agag is hewn in pieces and Jezebel was eaten by dogs like a piece of carrion. Isaac began with milk and butter, but ended with a hammer so Adonijah 1 Kings 1 50.

7 The sea water is unsatisfying. A Persian proverb states. He who covets this world's goods is like one who drinks sea water. the more he drinks the more he increases thirst nor does he cease to drink until he dies.

We all have to pass over this worldly sea, but we have the Bible as our chart Christ is the Pilot and the winds from heaven waft us on, hope is our anchor—we can thus escape the hidden rocks and whirlpools which abound in this sea

Tamil—Will the headache be cured by changing the pillow?

Hebrew — Were there no passions no one would build a house, marry, bring up children, or drive any trade

Buddhaghosa — No fire like passion, no spark like hatred, no snare like folly, and no tyrant like greed

Bhagavatgita — The heart which follows the dictates of the moving passions, carries away his reason, as the storm the bark in the raging ocean Prov 25 28.

Conscience seared as with a Hot Iron.—1 TIM 4 2

Men's conscience is compared to a candle, Prov 20 27, to lighten us in the darkness of this world, to a judge, John 3, 20, a witness, Rom 9 1, a worm, Mat 10 44

The Telegus, referring to a conscience dead to all moral restraint, say 'it is a tongue without nerves moving all ways' Reason is compared by Plato to a charioteer driving his two horses, concupiscence and anger

Conscience called God's vicegerent, named, Luke 11 35, the light within, as a law also enlightens and directs, a blind man sees not evil coming neither do sinners good and evil, life and death Sin blackens and darkens the light of conscience, dirt obstructs the sun's rays, so David's soul was darkened when his eye was dimmed by adultery Nathan awoke him 2 Sam 12 7 Holiness compared to white, shines as crystal, or is transparent, but only when the sun is on it.

Conscience is called by Christ the eye of the soul, which, if single, the body is full of light, the affections are apt to go to excess, like a balance when one side moves up, and the other moves down so with the flesh and spirit, Gal 5 7, thus—(a) Sensuality blinded Samson and Herod (b) Intemperance others Hos 4 11, fumes of meat and drink obscure the upper regions hence Paul's watching and fasting 2 Cor 11 27, he who comes to make his belly his business will quickly come to have a conscience of as large a swallow as his throat, lords of meat and drink are fit for none but a beast of burthen to bear, and he is much the greater beast of the two, who comes with his burden in his belly than he who comes with it on his back, Prov 23 29, such as are best at the barrel are generally weakest at the wheel (c) Consciousness buries the soul underground in darkness, while the body is above it, Deut 16 9, 1 Sam. 12 3, Ecc 7 7 (d) Ambition looks high, and giddiness from it makes a mist before the eyes Satan, like an expert wrestler, usually gives a man a lift before he gives him a throw Sensuality, covetousness, pride are the devil's trident to strike men's hearts

The conscience is seared when a man's wounds cease to smart, only because he has lost his feeling, they are nevertheless mortal, he does not see his need of a surgeon, acquittal before trial can be no security in this case Great and strong calms usually portend and go before the most violent storms

China—A fleshy pupilless eye (a mind with conscience blind)

Talmud—The flesh of the dead feels not the knife—i e, is past feeling

Arab—Reckon him with the beasts who does not distinguish good from evil

Bengal—He hides his head in the bushes—i e, fancying he is not exposed

China—Talent without virtue like silver without a master

The Seed of God's Word.—LUKE 8. 11

The Word of God is compared in Scripture to a key to open out the treasures of Divine Wisdom as milk, to nourish the feeble minded, as fire to consume or enliven, and to gold for its value and use here it is compared to a seed on account of its hidden qualities, its power of spreading from a small beginning There is a tree in New Zealand 400 feet high and 50 feet in circumference yet thus has sprung up from a small seed

The Word of God like seed in seventeen points —

1 Seed is small, compared with its future produce, so faith is like a grain of mustard seed or leaven which leaveneth the whole lump, the seeds of faith, in the 11th chapter of Hebrews yield plentiful fruit

2 Seed must be sown Industry and forethought are required but bad seed springs up of itself, for God cursed the ground so that it gave of itself thorns and thistles The seeds of faith spring up as the gifts of God as the radicle from the kernel, when God sows in the wilderness an oasis springs up

3 A good seed requires good soil The application of the plough is however necessary as weeds grow anywhere, Christ in his parable mentions three soils as unproductive Our heart is the soil and conviction the plough we must be moistened by the tears of godly sorrow saturated by the dews of God's grace like the 3000 picked to the heart who were baptized Acts 2 40 41

4 Seed must be buried Some seeds though thrown on the surface however strike their roots deep, and require soil above them Mat 13 6 but in other cases the root and stem soon wither, so Lydia's heart was opened Acts 16 14 believers are rooted and grounded in love Eph 3 18

5 Seed lies for a time in the earth in darkness Sometimes a very short time—so the thief on the cross Egyptian mummy &c. after being buried 3000 years springs up—so the Prodigal son came to himself after he had spent all in riotous living and was feeding swine, so Manasseh after many years sought in affliction his Father's God 2 Chron. 33 13 cast thy bread on the waters Lecl. 11 1, one soweth another reapeth.

6 Seed once sown makes steady progress Christ speaks of the blade, the ear and the full corn Mark 4 27 28.

grow in grace They shall bring forth fruit in old age Ps 92 14 The righteous shall grow like a cedar of Lebanon Ps 92 12

7 Seed depends on the influence of heavy rain, which waters the earth. Light soil, and moisture are necessary, we must wait for the latter rain, so Paul plants Apollos waters but God gives the increase 1 Cor 3 6 God will pour floods on the dry ground Is 44 3

8 Seed matured yields a rich return Gods word is compared to rain that returns not again Is 55 10 You shall reap if you faint not Gal 6 9 and have a hundredfold more in this present time Luke 18 30

9 Produce is as the seed sown There is a great variety of seeds but the generic distinction remains as figs come not of thistles Mat 7 16 He that sows to the flesh reaps corruption Gal 6 8 he sowing the wind reaps the whirlwind Hos 6 7 Haman sowed pride reaped defeat, so the drunkard Prov 23 29, so the rich man drowned in destruction 1 Tim 6 9, so war from lust Jas. 4 1

10 Water is required, hence the thorny ground allows none, early rain necessary after the seed is sown and the latter rain when the corn is ripe Jer 5 24 so the dews of the Spirit

11 The seed dies—i.e. the albumen dissolves an emblem of the Resurrection 1 Cor 15 36

12 If sown too deeply no an comes hence ploughing brings the seeds up for malting barley heat moisture and air are necessary, thereby the starch is changed into sugar the seed to sow is reserved from the choicest grain by the husbandman.

13 A skilful sower required Such was Christ

14 Seeds must be covered from the birds Mat 13 4

15 The sooner the seed is sown the better the crop
2 Tim. 3 15

16 Diligence needed, winds storm thunder hinder not the sower

17 Seeds must be widely scattered, 1 Cor 1 16 Seed must be sent from land to land, and handed down to others, some seed bad some not successful

When the corn is fully ripe it bends down the ear, so the believer is to be clothed with humility, 1 Pet 5 5.

Tamil —Those who are of inferior stature may accomplish great things

Tamil —The seed of the banyan is small, but the tree affords a large shade

Persian —Vegetables do not grow on a stone, what fault in the rain? Mat 23 37

Tamil —Though it may rain to the end of the world, a broken potsherd will not germinate, Mat 13 5

Afghan —When you fixed your hopes on the soil you lost your seed in it—te, by neglecting to weed and water

Self-conceit.—Prov 26 12

Wise in ones own eye, Prov 3 7

Afghan —The fox thought his shadow very large—te, a little man puffed up

Syrac —If the camel had seen his hunchback he would have fallen and broken his neck

Selfishness

Afghan —The one was dying and the other was asking his daughter of him

Panjabi —The goat was weeping for his life, the butcher for his fat

Afghan —What does the satiated man know of the hungry man's state

The Righteous as Sheep—Mat 10 16

The righteous resemble sheep in ten points —

1 Cleanliness Not like swine dogs or wolves the righteous come out of the wilderness of sin yet, as subject to filth need washing 1 Cor 6 11 Ps 51 7 hence they love still water Ps 23 2, 2 Sam 24 17

2 Harmless innocent as doves but wise as serpents Mat. 10 16 not crafty as foxes or devouring as a lion 1 Cor 14 20

3 Weak So Christ was led as a lamb to the slaughter Is 53 7, so Stephen and Job so David Ps 39 9, and Aaron when his sons were killed.

4 Profitable, in life by fleece in death by their flesh. So the blood of the martyrs was the seed of the Church, so saints are lights Ten saints would have saved Sodom Gen. 18 32, being dead they yet speak Heb 11 4 so Jacob proved to Joseph and Joseph to Potiphar

5 Obedient follow the shepherd, the shepherd knows their name, calling them they follow him John 10 4

6 Fiable Gen 33 13 They are apt to go astray 1 Sam 17 20 they have many enemies—wolves dogs Rom. 8 36, nourished for slaughter Ps 64 22, subject to many diseases Jer 7 38

7 Love union Saints are like David and Jonathan scattered by dogs they soon unite Acts 4 23

8 Live on little often on barren commons so the righteous are content 1 Tim 6 8

9 Need a shepherd Acts 10 3 to select pasture 1 Pet 5 1, to select shade Ps. 23 2 sheep may be lost not so believers pigs and cats find out their way not so sheep When one strays the others follow 2 Sam 20 1, 2 Acts 5 36 37 Sheep may return of themselves the spiritual sheep never

10 Love green pastures Cant. 1 7

China — A sheep was never known to climb a tree

The Shipwrecked Soul — I TIM 1 19

The body has been compared to a casket, the soul to a jewel, in the text the soul is like a ship, launched at birth on the river of life, constructed with great skill, fitted up for a long and dangerous voyage over the ocean of life, exposed to the storms of temptation, the rocks of sin the waves of passion needs a good bottom of faith so necessary to prevent a leak, the wind of God's Spirit to fill the sails of the affections and the compass of God's word, Christ is the pilot

Turk — The soul is the ship, reason is the helm, the oars are the soul's thoughts and truth is the port

Malay — The boat which is swamped at sea may be baled out, but a shipwreck of the affections is final

Silence — LUKE 21 19

Solomon states Where no wood is the fire goeth out, so where there is no trebeirer the strife ceases or is silent

Sanskrit — Silence is the ornament of the ignorant

Arab — Silence is the remedy for anger

Syrian — Shut your door and you will not fear an enemy —
i e, silence the remedy against calumny

Sanskrit — By silence there is no quarrel, by vigilance no fear

Turk — Two ears to one tongue, therefore hear twice as much as you speak

Modern Greek — The tongue has no bone, yet it breaks bones

Arab — Silence is the sweet medicine of the heart, Ps
37 7

Sanskrit — Where frogs are the croakers, there silence is becoming

Turk — A great river makes no noise

Amyar — Do not come near one in a passion

Estonian — Time heals wounds

Amyar — A calumnious mouth is a fire in a wind

Death a Sleep to the Righteous — Joux 11 11.

Sleep called death's brother Death is a departure, Phil 1 23, from a wilderness to the promised land, the wicked are driven away, Prov. 14 32 Sleep in death is applied in Scripture only to the righteous, as to Lazarus, Solomon Hezekiah, Jehoshaphat, Stephen.

Death is like natural sleep in four points —

(1) Calm in its commencement, people know not when they are dropping off to sleep We gradually become insensible to outward things, such was Moses' death (2) Rest from labour, life is warfare, death is peace, the slave hears not the voice of the oppressor, Job 3 18 (3) Awakening to vigour after sleep, Is 26 19, Isaiah calls the grave a bed (4) Mind active even in dreams

Conscience Asleep — Eru 5 14.

An unpenitent sinner is said both to be "asleep" and also to be "dead" He is "dead," because his soul is destitute of spiritual life, as, however, it has a capacity for receiving spiritual life, he is compared also to one who is "asleep," but who can wake again.

A man who is buried in sleep is unconscious of all that is going on around him His mind is entertained, indeed, with dreams, which for the time he takes for realities while the real and important business of life is totally unheeded and neglected by him Matters which affect his interest, or even his life, may be transacted around him he is dreaming on, and when he awakes he will find how material it would have been to him to have resisted the drowsiness in which his faculties for the time were lost. The building may be in flames or the thief may have broken through the house, but the owner sleeps on in total ignorance of his danger or his loss until it is too late to escape the one, or to prevent the other The ship was on the point of being engulfed in the raging waves, when Jonah was fast asleep!

In sleeping we are disturbed by vain hopes and fears, on awakening they are all gone, Job 20 8 In dreams we run away when there is no danger, and are delighted with that which is nothing but a shadow We think we are flying through the air, while we are motionless in our bed, we think we have found great treasures, but we wake and are as poor as ever Of that which is real we have no knowledge, while our mind is thus filled with shadows but perhaps we dream that we are sailing on the water, while the chamber in which we sleep has taken fire, and we know it not till the flames reach our body and awaken us, then we start up but it is too late to escape

Shānti Shatak —The careless sinner is a moth, unaware of approaching evil, hovering over a lighted lamp until consumed by it or a fish falling into the hands of the angler

Telugu —What matters it whether we drink milk in a dream out of bell metal or gold? Is. 14 20

Arab —To sleep on the mountain peaks

Malay —To fight in a dream—i.e., labour in vain

Tamul —The wealth seen in a dream, the water observed in a mirage

Veman —They live like a silkworm in a cocoon, seemingly secure, but in reality helpless Prov 7 22

Mahabharat —Seeing thy spirit abides like a bird in a body, which resembles mere form, why sleepest thou in this dear shade, which is so transitory?

The Smoke of God's Anger —Is 6, 2-5

Nothing is more offensive to the nostrils than smoke, Prov 10 20 The expression There went up a smoke out of his nostrils signifies God's wrath against those who did what was offensive to him When Sodom and Gomorrhah were destroyed by brimstone and lightning a dense smoke arose from the ruins indicating the terrible

* fire that was there Gen 19 28, so God is said to be to the wicked a consuming fire, Heb 12 29, as fire he appeared in the burning bush, Ex 3 2, on Sinai Ex 19 18 to Isaiah 6 4 Ezekiel 1 4 John Rev 1 14 and as a flaming fire will he appear at the Judgment Day, 2 Tim 1 8, then all will be confusion as when fire breaks out Rev 6 10, it will be sudden like at Belshazzar's feast, Dan 5 5 it will destroy everything, while the wicked will be only stubble Nah 1 10 the righteous will be as the burning bush on which fire had no effect Ex 3 2 God's angel is described in Job 37th chapter

Smoke quickly disappears not so the smoke of God's anger, Pev 14 11 In Pev 9 2 the smoke which rose from the bottomless pit refers to gross errors which darken the understanding

The Righteous a Soldier — Tim. 2 4

A soldier is one employed in military affairs bearing arms under military command Mat 8 9 Every true believer is a soldier to fight the good fight of faith against the world the flesh and the devil Is 51 9 Col. 2 15 2 Tim 4 7

The righteous is like a soldier in twelve points

1 Under a captain Christ is the Captain of our salvation Hcl 2 10, there is a covenant in baptism.

2 Leaves all other worldly affairs 2 Tim 2 4 The righteous forsake all as did the apostles their heart was set on things above they minded not the things of the flesh Rom 8 5 they were crucified with Christ Col 3 1—10 a painful separation from the world like crucifying.

3 When enlisted is armed so the believer has armour Eph. 6 10 12 but only one offensive weapon the sword.

4 Uses iron to distinguish him so the garment of love and humility 1 Pet 5 5

5 Clad at the King's expense The believer's white^{*} raiment, an emblem of purity, was purchased with Christ's blood, Rev 7 14

6 Enemies sized for him The world, the flesh, and the devil. Paul writes, that the believer is more than a conqueror, Rom 8 37

7 Obedience in everything, Mat 8 9, so Paul, Acts 26 19

8 Order and discipline, 1 Cor 14 33

9 Acquainted with devices of the enemy, wise as serpents, 2 Cor 2 11

10 Courage necessary, no turning back, Heb 11 38, the cause good, Is 41 10, a good conscience, 1 Pet 3 16, sure of victory, Rev 12, 11

11 Endures hardships, Mat 10, 23, Heb 11 38, David watered his couch with his tears

12 The righteous soldier is sure of victory, more than conqueror, Rom 8 37

Tamul — Of what use is a moustache to a sneaking soldier?

China — To hide the head and leave the back exposed, Eph 6 13

Breton — A cat in gloves is no use to catch mice

Telugu — Even a sheep will bite a man without a stick

Tamul — Those who regard relationship are not fit for military service, 2 Tim 2 4

Tamul — The handle of the axe is the enemy of its kind

China — Armies are kept 1,000 days to be used on one

Niti Shatak — Fortune conquers the wise no more than a straw, the elephant, whose cheeks are streaked with the marks of passion, is not fastened by the filaments of the lotus

The Righteous shall shine as the Stars — DAN 12 3

The bodies of the righteous after the resurrection will be bright and dazzling like Christ's body on the mount of transfiguration Mat. 17 1, Paul, on his way to ° Damascus, saw a light brighter than the sun, the effulgence of which blinded him for three days, Acts 11.

The righteous will be like the stars in five points —

(1) A great ornament to the Heavens, (2) they differ in brightness, 1 Cor 15 40, (3) guide mariners on the ocean and travellers at night, so believers on the dark ocean of life, (4) though distant, they exercise an influence, as a cloud of witnesses, Heb 12 1, but many do not as there are stars so far from this world that their light has not reached the earth from the time of Adam's creation, though travelling like the sun's light at the rate of 12,000 000 miles in a minute, many of them are bigger than the earth though they seem so small, and are so remote that a cannon ball would take 700,000 years to reach the nearest of them, (5) their number is immense, the redeemed in Heaven are a great multitude which no man can number

Tamul — Though astrological calculations prove false, the stars will not

The Rich are only Stewards — 1 Cor. 4. 2

Parable of the Steward — Luke 19 11-27

In this place, as in many others, God compares himself to a master, and we are placed on earth not to do our own will, but the will of him who placed us here, we have nothing which is properly our own but what ever we seem to have is entrusted to us by another who has left us in charge for a season and will call us to account when he shall return Luke 16 We are not our own but are bought with a price, and it is therefore our great duty to glorify God in our body and in our spirit which are his, 1 Cor 6 20

The various faculties of our soul and body the opportunities afforded by having our days lengthened, the gifts of station, education, friends, and worldly substance, the knowledge of religious truth and all the means of grace, the various occasions for doing or receiving good, these and numberless advantages and blessings, which are daily and hourly extended to us, must all be accounted for

The rich are stewards having a great master, the King of Heaven, a great charge, their souls, and much entrusted to them, they must improve their property (see parable of the Talents, of the Parren Fig Tree, and of the Rich Fool who thought he was absolute proprietor, hence Christ said it was easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for those trusting in riches to enter heaven—i.e., an impossibility in human sight—as the Bengalis say, "A horse's eggs, or putting in elephant into a narrow dish."

Sanskrit—The rivers themselves drink not their water, nor do the trees eat their own sweet fruit The clouds eat not the crops, the riches of the good are employed for the benefit of others

China—Wealth is but dung—i.e., useful only in being spread *holds for protection. Oude, in the days of the king, had many of these.

Faith is like a stronghold in three points —

(1) Built on a rock to prevent its being undermined, such were the fortresses of Gwalior, Chunar, Dowlatabad, the believer dwells in the munition of rocks, Is 33 16, Christ is the rock of ages 1 Cor 10 4 (2) Strongly defended, yet Babylon, with its walls 300 feet high and gates of brass, was taken. Tyre like Calcutta, a great trading-place, is now only a rock for fishermen to dry their nets, though it was once a stronghold. Jerusalem had three walls round it, yet it was ploughed up, not so the heavenly Jerusalem, God is to it a wall of fire (3) Fully supplied with provisions and arms, not like Jerusalem where the women eat their own children, or Carthage where the women cut off their hair to make bow-strings, in the believer's weakness is God's strength made perfect, 2 Cor 12 9 Elijah was surrounded by a strong army, but he saw the mountain full of Angels under the form of horses and chariots of fire, 2 Kings 6 17

Arab —The strength of the heart is from the soundness of the faith. Mat 17 20, Heb 11 33-38

The Death of the Righteous an unsotting Sun.

Is 60 19, 20

The righteous dying sets like the sun in one part of creation, but it is only to rise amid glowing clouds and a clear blue sky in another region, but even when setting his light lingers, and the western clouds are bright with his beams. The heat of the day has gone, and man ceases from labour. Even the twilight is beautiful—at eventide it shall be light, Zech 14 7. The Hindu writings state that old age “is like a dried up stream, fallen as a tree levelled by thunder, dreaded as a house in ruin, it takes away vigour, as if a man were placed in a marsh.” Very different is the English proverb, “Nothing old but shoes and hats" Solomon compares the path of the just to the light shining more and more to the perfect day, though the morning might be cloudy and stormy, such as was that of Simon's, Luke 2 28-32, Peter's, 2 Pet. 1. 3, 11-16, they were not like the wicked, driven away in his wickedness

As the Aloe is green and well liking, till the last best summer of its age,
And then hangeth out its golden bells to mingle glory with corruption,
As the Meteor travelleth in splendour, but bursteth in dazzling light,
Such is the end of the righteous, their death is the sun at its setting

Telugu — Worldly possessions are like a drop of water on a lotus leaf

Death's Shadowy Valley — Ps 23 4

Life is a journey through a waste howling wilderness, the dark valley of the mountain of death forms its close, bounded by the river of death

Death is like some valleys in seven points —

1 Dark, the sunbeams enter not, so no natural light illumines the grave's path, it is like a dark tunnel. The apostles feared when they entered the cloud, Mat. 17 5 Satan wraps the valley often in clouds of doubt and dark-

* ness—a darkness that may be felt, so the Jews, when entering the dark cleft of the Red Sea, found it “a land of darkness,” Job 18 5–21, the righteous in death, however, have no sting, 1 Cor 15 57, the Sun of Righteousness illumines the gloom

2 Lonely, mountain passes are solitary—all pass through this, but none meet even though they die together Angels, however, are present, but as a matter of faith more than of consciousness Jacob said of the desert, ‘How dreadful is this place? Gen. 28 17 Moses, entering the cloud, exclaimed, “I exceedingly quake,” Heb 12 21 The Jews crossed the Red Sea at night when quite dark

3 Sometimes Painful, thorns, stones, and briars abound, so death is the wrenching of soul and body, even Christ prayed that the cup might pass from him, Mat. 26 39

4 Dangerous, robbers, wild beasts in the dark possess the valley, the domain of death, the king of terrors Some have passed through this valley amid showers of stones, others wrapped in flames, others knee deep in blood.

5 Leads to a strange land Separates temporal and seen from eternal things, no correspondence with friends, in a moment millions of miles distant from earth

6 A route never retraced, the great gulf between, this tree sprouts not again, Job 14 7, no work, no device in the grave Ecc 9 10

7 Has two terminations, the gate of life, the gate of death the land of rest, and that where the worm never dies, like Pharaoh’s butler and baker, who looked forward to the third day, but with very different feelings Gen 40

All have to pass this valley, it is the house appointed for all living Job 30 23, the righteous walk in the valley implying calmness Prov 14 32, as to them the shadow of death is like the shadow of a sword harmless Death is even counted a treasure Phil. 1 21

The Spiritual Warfare—2 Cor. 10 3

Life is compared in the Bible to a dream, an eagle hastening to its prey, a band breadth, a swift ship, a tale told, in the text to a war. The Niti Shatak states "time no more conquers the wise than a straw the elephant, he, whose cheeks are streaked with the marks of passion, is not fastened by the filaments of the lotus"

What a strange thing is war, yet it is everywhere, and vile as it is and very destructive to life and comfort, we ourselves are engaged in it, whether we will or not, there is war in the natural creation, the hawk is always in arms for the seizing of his prey, the tiger and the wolf are at war with cattle, birds and beasts are persecuting one another, and the innocent birds are destroyed by the cruel and rapacious. Even in seas and rivers, there are sharks, alligators, and piko which devour other kinds. Among mankind, nation rises in arms against nation, and kingdoms are divided against themselves. The invisible world is also at war, there was war in heaven Rev 12 7, when Satan and millions of Angels rose in rebellion against God, prompted by pride and jealousy. God himself has his enemies among Angels that excel in strength, principalities and powers are confederate against all the great and merciful designs of heaven, and the war, which they began there, is carried on upon earth against us (men) and our salvation. We are therefore, born to a state of war, and are accordingly enlisted as soldiers at our baptism under Jesus Christ the captain of our salvation, under whose banner we are to fight against His and our enemies. Our Christian profession is called a fight of faith, 1 Tim. 6 12, because it is subject to all the dangers, losses fears, and mis-carriages of war, and the same rules are to be observed.

In war soldiers must submit to hardships from want of clothes houses food, sleep, but they look forward with joy to the expiry of their time of enlistment, Job 7 2
So believers wish like the dove to flee away and be at peace, Ps 55 6

The Righteous are Watchmen.—Mat 26 42, 43

The Shānti Shatāl compares man to "one in a ferry-boat crossing the whirling gulf of this world, which he must do with watchfulness so as not to be drowned in the abyss David says his soul watched for the Lord more than they that wait for the dawn, Ps. 130 6, an allusion to the watchmen on the city wall or the watchers of the temple who passed the night there in devotional exercises anxious to catch the first beams of the morning sun on the hallowed day of atonement.

Watchmen were set on high towers to give notice of fire or the invasion of an enemy's approach hence called seers 1 Sam 9 9, Is 21 11, watchman what of the night Is 21 11, the night is far spent Rom 13 12

The righteous are watchmen in seven points —

1 Must have sharp eyes to be overseers, see to a distance, Ez 33 6, if the blind lead the blind both fall into the ditch, Mat. 15 14

2 Must be active, not drowsy, look for the morning, Ps. 130 6, otherwise wolves come in, Acts 20 29, while men slept the enemy sowed tares, Mt 13 25

3 Must endure hardship, the heat of the day, cold of night, sentinels are out in all weathers, so Paul, 2 Cor 11 23-30, the Apostles were beat, Acts 16 22.

4 Consult not their own interest, Paul sought not theirs but them, 2 Cor 12 14, Is 58 1

5 Charged with the care of others, Heb 13 17, death the punishment of sleeping on their post

6 Appointed to the duty, Ez 33 7

7 Prevent evils of fire by forewarning, so angels were watchmen to Lot in Sodom, Gen 19

Angels called watchers, Dan 4 17, hence represented full of eyes, Ez. 1 18, said to have wings to move about, Zech 1 11, 1 Kings 22 19, 2 Kings 6 17, gave warning to Lot, observant All men have to set a watch on the door of their lips Ps 141 3

What six proverbs illustrate the need of watchfulness?

The Waterer Watered or Fatness for the Liberal

Prov 11 25.

Liberality is called a sowing 2 Cor 9 6, a lending, Prov 19 7 Abraham was no loser by his liberality to Lot Gen 13 9 14, 15), nor by his hospitality to the three men Gen 18 2) He thereby entertained angels unawares, in the care he took of the religious instruction of his servants, he was rewarded by their fidelity to him, as appears from the conduct of his eldest servant, Gen 24 The widow's oil increased not in the vessel but by pouring it out, 2 Kings 4 1, 7 The barley bread in the Gospel multiplied by breaking and distributing it, the grain brings increase not by the lying in a heap in the garner but by scattering it upon the land, so with the graces of faith, hope, and love, the talent gathereth nothing in the napkin but canker and rust.

China —As the rivers pour their waters back again into the sea, so what a man has lent is returned to him again

Arab —The garment in which you clothe another will last longer than that in which you clothe yourself

Bengal —A giver is like a cocoa-nut, hard without, good within, a miser is like a bambu, hard without, but hollow within

Persian —A closed fist (miser) is the lock of heaven, an open hand (liberal) is the key of mercy

The Wilderness World.—CAPT 8.

The Shanti Shatid states our mortal bodies are liable to decay—our earthly friends are like passengers on a journey whom we meet casually and from whom we soon separate." In the wilderness the sun smites by day and the cold by night, serpents infest the rocks, while sand storms often overwhelm the traveller, or the simoom destroys thousands of men and camels, sometimes they perish by thirst, like this is the world which Solomon, the wisest and richest of men, called vanity of vanities, Ecc 1 2, and Paul called dross and dung, Phil 3 8. Man is born to trouble as the sparks that fly upwards, Job 5 6. People hasten through a desert looking for rest at the end, Heb 4 1, like Lot, they must not linger in Sodom, all creation is groaning under the curse, Rom 8 22.

* The Georgians say Many will swallow an egg and give away the shell in alms

In reading of the journey of the Hebrews from Egypt to Canaan by the way of the wilderness, we see a pattern of our own life, and of all the trials we are to undergo in our progress through this world to the kingdom of heaven. The Jews' journey began with baptism in the Red Sea, a deliverance from Pharaoh and his host, so our baptism, with which our Christian life begins, is an escape from the Spiritual Pharaoh. As they were supported by manna, and the waters of the rock, so must we live by bread from heaven, and our thirst must be satisfied by the waters of life. The end of this our pilgrimage upon earth is the possession of the heavenly land, which God hath promised to us, but in the way to it, we must undergo trials and temptations of every sort, and die in this wilderness, as Moses and his people did, before we can obtain it. As they proceeded by encampments and wandered many years in the wilderness, so is our life a pilgrimage, and their example assures us that we have here no abiding place, no fixed habitation, like them we have the pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night.

The world a wilderness in fifteen points —

1. A waste wild place, little planting, so the earth in spiritual matters.

2 Abounds in thorns, the wicked are briars destined to be hurnt, Heb 6 8

3 Dangerous, wild beasts numerous, the wicked are compared to wolves, bears, lions, dogs, Dent 8 15; Jer. 2 6, Mat 12 43, hence is God a wall of fire to keep off beasts, Zech 2 5, thieves abound, Acts 21 38, Job was robbed in Arabia, people travel in caravans composed of persons of different countries, this keeps off robbers, so is the communion of saints necessary

4. No path, liable to wander, hence a guide necessary through the sands, Is 35 8 Lonely

5 Storms frequent, the sinroom buries thousands of men and animals So passions

6 The sand is burning, the sky is as brass, water and shade wanting

7 Though barren, oases are found—i e, cultivated spots for a short rest, so for the Christian are ordinances

8 Foggy and misty, so Satan ruses heresies to lude sin (misleads travellers)

9 Food little, so the husks of this world, Luke 15 16, the believer gets manna from heaven

12 Lightly equipped to travel easier, Heb 12 1, the covetous man loads himself with thick clay, Hab 2 6

13 A varied route—mud, good roads, desert, green fields, slough of despond, valley of humiliation, mountains of opposition, the rock of ages

14 A strange country passed through, Heb 11 13, Ps 39 12, stay only a day or two in each place Heb 13 14

15 Congenial companions and fellow-travellers divide griefs and double joys, Ps 119 74, Ecc 4 9-10, relieve the tedium of the way

Turk —A traveller amid the discomforts of a bad khan (inn), reflects he has only to pass the night there.

China —To meet an old friend in a distant country is like the delight of rain after a long drought

Afghan —The world is a traveller's serai (inn)

Tumul —Conversation on a journey is equal to a conveyance

Turk —Though the na's goes to Mecca he becomes not a pilgrim for this

Ramayane —As two logs of wood meet on the wide ocean and soon part, so wives relatives, riches, having come into contact with men, hasten away again

The Wicked are Wolves and Locusts —MAT 10 16

Stephen, surrounded by the fierce Council when they gushed upon him with their teeth stopped their ears and ran upon him with one accord although they had just before seen his face as though it had been the face of an angel, Acts 7 57, Stephen was like him who is brought as a lamb to the slaughter and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth

Wolves are fierce and cowardly, they often carry off children and devour them, they love to hunt in packs, are particularly fierce against sheep fond of darkness,
hence bad judges were compared to evening wolves,
Zeph 3 3 The wicked are also called slaves of sin,
John 8 34 dry bones, Ez 37 3

The wicked are compared to locusts, Prov 9 3 as being cunning Prov 30 24-27 voracious rapid in movement carried about by every wind, very numerous

Modern Greek —Nourish a wolf in winter that he might devour you in summer

The Words of the Wise Goads and Nails —ECC 12 10 11

As the elephant when sluggish and disobedient must be quickened and corrected by the goad which has a stinging correctly aiming and deeply penetrating effect,

*so does our sleeping conscience need the continual pricks and admonitions of a faithful expounder of Scripture, both for correction and instruction in righteousness, 2 Tim 3 16 And as it is the use of "nails" to fasten what is loose, or what would otherwise drop to pieces, so the exhortation of a wise preacher should fix in our treacherous memory what we might otherwise "let slip"

God's word is compared to a hammer breaking the rock in pieces, but the hand of God is required, according to the strength and skill of the holder is the blow, this hammer fastens the nails of conscience and of promise, it pierces even a stone

Fit words are apples of gold in pictures of silver, Prov 25 11, this is a definition of a parable or a proverb which sets off grave sentiments by elegant language, as the appearance or imitation of finely coloured fruit is improved by its shining as through a veil, through the network of a silver vessel finely carved, or like oranges in baskets of silver The beauty of truth is heightened by the veil of imagery Christ without a parable, spoke not unto the people.

Arab —Proverbs are the lamps to words

Persian —A word and a stone thrown away do not return

Persian —Great talkers are like broken pitchers, everything runs out of them

Tamul —The force of an elephant is subdued by a goad

Tamul —An elephant requires a goad, and boiled rice a chili (a spice)

Hebrew —What flowers are to gardens, spices to food, gems to a garment, and stars to heaven, such are proverbs interwoven in speech

Sanskrit —Chewing the chewed—i.e., repeating idle words

China —Good words are a string of pearls

Telugu —Sweet as a cuckoo warbling in a garden are the charming words of the wise, but the words of sinners are vile as the cawing of a crow

* Arab —Truth is a cutting sword

PART III

Who is the Altar for Believers?—HEB. 13. 10

Christ's sacrifice like an altar in six points —
1 All even the most polluted might approach it
Christ was also the brazen serpent on high John 3 14 (2)
Its horns or four corners a place of refuge for the guilty, 1 Kings 2 28 (3) The altar the only place for sacrifice
so prayer can be offered only through Christ's mediation Heb 9 28, (4) The incense for it was beaten and prepared so prayers must be from an humble spirit, no strange incense allowed to be offered, incense to be offered morning and evening so special prayer then,
(5) The altar was sprinkled with blood once a year so Christ was once offered (6) Fire was necessary to kindle
the incense on it so the Holy Spirit's influence is requisite

Who has the Everlasting Arms?—DEUT. 33. 27

How Born again?—JOHN 3 3

A Brahmin is called dyva twice born—the first by nature and second by dedication to his religion. A Christian is twice born in regeneration, which is compared to an old tree grafted, through which its nature is changed and improved and the old stock is made to bear good fruit. A child when new born is a perfect man as to limbs, though not yet at their full growth and size, similar is God's grace in the new birth. Christ, in his conversation with Nicodemus showed the need of the new birth.

The new birth of a Christian is expressed by the emblems of a resurrection Col 3 1, a transformation Rom. 12 2, having a heart of flesh, Ez. 36 26, a new creation, 2 Cor 5 17, putting off the old man Eph. 4 22, metal figures cast in a mould Rom 4 17, adoption, Rom 8 15

Believers are called by the world its offscouring but by God His jewels yet though by nature children of wrath, by the new birth they become sons of God, like the angels they have access to their Father Rom 8 14, their petitions are heard, Mat. 7 7-11 and they become heirs of God 4 7

Who is the Bread of Heaven?—JOHN 6 51

Man has a soul as well as a body and as the body cannot live without food so neither can the soul. The soul can never die like the body, the death of the soul is when it has no life to love and serve God, like a dead body it can serve no one, is displeasing to God, as a dead body is offensive to us. Our Lord Jesus is called "bread" because all our spiritual life must come from him. Bread, to do us good must be eaten, and, by faith, we feed on Jesus Christ. Faith, then, is the mouth of the soul, or the way by which this spiritual nourishment is received into the soul. Jesus is called the "Bread of Life" and the "Living Bread" to those who believe or trust in him, he gives this spiritual life to serve God here, and this is but the beginning of a life which shall never end, for he who eats of this bread "shall live for ever."

The hungry know the value of bread Prov 27 7, gold is no use in a starving city, and all need bread, for hunger will eat through a stone wall.

Who are Buried with Christ?—Rom 6 4

The old man—i.e. our corrupt nature, derived from the first man, dies by the painful lingering death of spiritual crucifixion to the world, it becomes dead to sin but alive to righteousness, Rom 6 11, and is buried with Christ, a great honour, not like Jehoiakim, said to have had the burial of an ass, Jer 22 19

Satan in Everlasting Chains of Darkness—Jude 6

Chains signify the degradation of the devils, they are—(1) marks of bondage as Paul wore them before Felix Acts 26 29, pride compassed the wicked as a chain Ps 73 6 while love is to the good the bond of perfectness Col 3 14, (2) heavy 1 Kings 12 10, Peter was fastened with two chains to prevent his escape, Acts 12 6, (3) a subject of reproach, 2 Tim 1 6. The devils are banished from the presence of God the light of heaven and now in their dungeon, lead a severer captivity than the Jews endured in Egypt

The City in Heaven—HEB 12 22

An earthly city differs from the heavenly in five points—

Earthly cities were often founded by blood and rapine, Mic 3 10 or like Babel to perpetuate a name, Gen 11 4, built of stone or wood surrounded with walls, infested by dogs, often burnt or sown with salt, Judg 9 45, the city of the heavenly Jerusalem has God as its architect, nothing evil in it. A city, from its numerous inhabitants is called a mother 2 Sam 20 19, while Babylon was called a widow as desolate Isa 47 9. The city in heaven is—(1) well situated far above earth, (2) surrounded by walls of salvation Job 1 10 its walls of gold and streets of pearl, no enemy can approach it the palace and court of the king, guarded by holy angels Ps 34 7 Dan 4 23, (3) various nations in it a great multitude of which no men can number Rev 7 9 (4) enriched by the best of earth and creation, (5) its citizens are all first born—i.e. the choicest the first born thus had a double portion and were superior in rank Gen 49 3. The term first-born is applied also to inferior things Job calls worms the first born of death 18 13 as death is called by the Arabs the mother of vultures

Content—1 TIM 6 8

- Arab*—Content lies in three things—satisfied with what is given—no reliance on what is in men's hands—acquiescing in God's decrees
- Hebrew*—Who is rich? He who is content with what he has
- Tamul*—Though the river is full to overflowing, a dog laps—i.e. amid the greatest abundance one enjoys only what is required

Christ drank a Bitter Cup—Mat 26 39.

The master of a feast appointed to each of his guests his particular cup, Jer 25 15. This cup denoted Christ's intense sufferings, Mat 20 22, he sweat blood, wine mixed with bitter ingredients was given to malefactors before being put to death, to render them insensible to the acute pain of hanging on a cross. Christ refused to drink the latter cup. Babylon is represented, Jer 51 7, as a golden cup in the hands of Jehovah—i. e., to give pain, the cup of salvation Ps 16 13, denoted the joy from the river of God's pleasure, Ps 36 8, the cup of the wine of God's wrath, Rev 14 10, was the vengeance of God apportioned to each.

Joseph's cup was that out of which he drank, and which was taken from Benjamin's sack, Gen. 44 12, and the cup which our Lord gave to his disciples at the Last Supper was one out of which they drank the wine. "The cup of salvation" is an expression taken from the custom of the Jews of making a feast after presenting their thank offerings, when the priests and offerers ate and drank together. Among other rites, the master of the feast took a cup of wine in his hand and solemnly blessed God for it and for the mercy which was at that time acknowledged, and then gave it to all the guests of which every one drank in his turn. Christ, suffering on behalf of sinners in the hour of his agony, prayed, "O my Father, if it be possible let this cup pass from Me Mat 26 39. When afflictions are the result of God's vindictive justice, then "cup" has a more awful sense and the wicked are often threatened with the dregs which is the most unpleasant part of the liquor, Isa 51 17.

Hell is the Blackness of Darkness.—MAT. 22. 13.

Heaven is compared to a banquet in which, amid blazing lights, chosen guests sit down; no night there; but hell is the cellar outside all in darkness; this implies terror as in Egypt, Ex. 10. 21; separation from good people, they stumble and wander; evil deeds in secret are called chambers of imagery, Ez. 8. 12.

Some fires have light but are dark. Hell is the blackness of darkness, Jude 13; in earth there is some light; in hell none natural, artificial, or spiritual; in earth some comfort, in hell none. The Egyptian darkness might be felt, Ex. 2. 22, but was only for a time.

Sin as a Debt Blotted out —Acts 3 19

Chanak writes, "to extinguish fire, remove disease and pay debts are of use as they increase if they remain." Sinners are debtors, the money duty to God, Gal 5 3, Rom. 8 12, 15, 27

The wicked are bad debtors in six points —

1 Unconcerned about the debt, so Cain who slew his brother, Gen 4 7, Mat. 18 24, Luke 16 1

2 Wasteful about saving up, so the prodigal son.

3 Love not to see the creditor or settle accounts, who is God say the wicked

4 Afraid of the bailiff, so Cain afraid of every one he met, Gen 4 13, 14, Adam hid himself, Gen 3 8, so Felix, Acts 24 25

5 Dilatory, so the debtor who aw's a suspense, Mat. 18 29, so excuses for the supper, Luke 14 18

The Dew of God's Providence —Hos. 14 5

The dew arising from the moisture evaporated by the sun in the day, and falling by night refreshes the parched earth, and often supplies the want of rain. The short-lived character of the form of godliness, without the power, is compared to early dew exhaled soon by the sun, Hos 6 4. The love of brethren is compared to the dew, Ps 133 3. God's Word is said to drop as rain, and distil as dew, Deut 32 2. God's influences are likened to a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest, Isa. 18 4. The refreshing, vivifying influence of God's spirit is in this text compared to the silent but powerful dew as the dew of herbs, Isa 26 19.

Providence like the dew in seven points —

1 Dew comes from above, from the air, not from the clouds, "drops down," so Christ promised to send from above the Comforter, John 14 16. Every good gift is from above, Jas 1 17.

2 Dew is the result of the sun's influence. The sun evaporates the water which the cold makes to descend, hence the brighter the sky the more dewy the night, so Christ shed down the Spirit. The sun must withdraw for the dew to fall, so Christ said he must go but the Spirit will abide John 14 16.

3 Dew falls from a calm unclouded sky. Wind or a cloud will dissipate it, Christ, the Sun of Righteousness, dispels the clouds of unbelief. If we walk in the light we have fellowship with God, when the mind is so clouded by passion the dew of the Holy Spirit does not fall.

4 The dew's descent is silent and imperceptible, rain falls in torrents. Dew is seen only by its crystal drops, Job 38 28, 2 Sam. 17 12. The dew like gravitation is known by its effects. The Kingdom of God cometh not by observation. The still small voice alone is heard 1 Kings 19 11 12. Conversion is a change taking place in the mind, hence the Spirit's influence is compared to the wind, John 3 2, we cannot see it or tell whence it comes, but we know it by its effects.

5 The dew's influence is all pervading Where dashing run will not enter dew will, it rests on blades of grass, the traveller's head is filled with dew, so under Christ's influence All partake, it pervades each All things are become new, the dry bones live, Ezek 37 3

6 Dew often copious, always seasonable. In Israel once for 3½ years there were no dew—how lamentable were things, 2 Sam 1 21 The Spirit in the latter day is to be poured on young and old When the weather is hottest the dew is heaviest, so Stephen when stoned, saw heaven opened Acts 7 55, so John, banished to Patmos was in the Spirit and saw wonderful visions Rev 1 10 Innumerable are the drops of dew, such are God's graces

7 The dew's effects are most obvious and salutary Egypt would be almost uninhabitable, were it not for the dew, the dew of heaven was promised to Ishmael When the ground is parched the dew gives new life, so the letter killeth but the Spirit gives life 2 Cor 3 6 The sun hardens the soil The growth of plants from the dew is often wonderful, so the believer strikes his roots deep in the Rock of Ages and in humility bends towards the dust but the refreshing sheltering branches shoot up in beauty, the flowers and leaves from the dew-drops look as pearls so beautiful are they—so the robes of righteousness A fragrant smell arises in the morning from the dew on flowers, so Christ is the savour of sweet ointment 'Awake, O north wind,' dead souls are numerous Fruitfulness and moisture are necessary to the growth of plants the dew of heaven and fatness of the earth are conjoined to the fruits of the Spirit, the righteous bring forth fruit in old age are we with red God is no neglector of gifts God will open the windows of heaven Mal 3 11

The Spiritual Life mounting on Eagle's Wings

Is 40 30, 31

Spiritual life like the eagle in eight points —

1 The eagle is the king of birds as the lion is of beasts, so the saints are the excellent in the earth, Ps 16 2, 3, more excellent than their neighbours, of whom the world was not worthy, Heb 11 38 Believers are sons of God and of royal blood, Rev 1 6, while the wicked feed on the wind, or husks, Hos 12 1, the righteous have spiritual manna and angels as attendants

2 Long and quick sighted, Job 39 29, hence a man is called eagle eyed The eagle can look at the sun, or see from above fish in the water, so believers behold the glory of God with open face, 2 Cor 3 18, and as the secrets of the Lord are with them that fear him, Ps 25 14, Gen 18 17, they see the end of the wicked, 2 Sam 14 20

3 Swift they have long wings, hence Solomon says, 'Riches make themselves wings, and fly away like an eagle' Ps 23 5 David, lamenting the death of Saul and Jonathan says They as friends were stronger than lions and swifter than eagles, 2 Sam 1 23 Achishad-nezzar came as an eagle against the temple Job compares life to an eagle, 9 26, Lz 17 2-10, Rev 14 6, hence, Nebuchadnezzar is represented as a great eagle, with great wings and long feathers—i.e., having various nations in his empire, and took the highest branch of a cedar The Romans are called eagles Dent 28 49 The prayer of the righteous swiftly reaches heaven

The Angelic Encampment—Ps 34 7

Angels are said to be full of eyes, before and behind, Rev 4 6, to denote their knowledge of the past and future, 1 Pet 1 12. Angels are called a host, Gen 32 1, commanded by Christ, the Captain of Salvation, they protect the saints, they slumber not like some watchmen, are called holy watchers, Dan 4 13, the figure of Cherubim, an order of angels, had four faces—that of a man, representing their majesty, prudence, and beauty, that of a lion, their strength and courage, that of an ox, their patience and diligence, and that of an eagle, their quick vision and continued vigour.

The great Mogul at Agra used to have an encampment several miles in circumference, accommodating many thousand soldiers, it was soon broken up, and removed to another place. The angels' encampment has many millions of troops in number, Dan 7 5-14. Christ on the Cross said he could call to his aid twelve legions of angels, or 80,000. Those angels are encamped, and are powerful, they broke the iron gates, Acts 12 10, caused earthquakes, Mat. 28 2, destroyed 185,000 Assyrians in one night, killed all the first-born in Egypt in one night, they are orderly, Michael and his angels fought with the devil, Rev 12 7-9. They smote Herod for his pride, Acts 12 23, Balaam for his covetousness, Sodom for its sin, Gen 19 11.

The Great Family of Believers.—Eph. 3. 14.

God is our father the Church our mother, all the faithful are our brethren. The many millions of angels in heaven are comprehended within this family as well as the saints upon earth. As faithful people are our brethren it must be our duty to love them, and to bear in mind that wise advice of Joseph to his brethren see that ye fall not out by the way, Gen. 45. 24. In our journey through life we are under so many trials and afflictions that it is both foolish and wicked for the faithful to add to one another's troubles by strife and envying by quarrellings and disputings. Proud people are ashamed of their poor relations, but we must not be ashamed to own the poorest child in the family of God who perhaps after a laborious life of faith and patience will be our superior in the kingdom of heaven.

A family is a retiring place from worldly cares, so is the family whose father is God, Christ the elder brother or head Col. 1. 17, the Holy Spirit the guide and all true believers members.

Satan the Father of Lies.—John 8. 44

Jesus Christ is the true light, but the devil is the prince of darkness the god of this world who blinds men's eyes that they may not see the truth 2 Cor. 4. 4 The

Saviour is a shepherd who gives his life for the sheep, but the devil is a lion who goes about seeking what he may devour, 1 Pet. 5 5 The one is a lamb, meek and harmless, the other a serpent, full of devices and more subtle than any beast of the field The one ruses men to life, the other was a murderer from the beginning The one is our advocate with the Father, suffering and pleading for the pardon of our sins, the other is the accuser of the brethren, first tempting them to fall into sin, and then accusing them that they may fall under the judgment of God Jesus Christ is the truth and the devil is the father of lies And lastly, Jesus Christ is the true God worshipped by all believers, and the devil is the false god worshipped under a variety of names The children of the devil are like the devil, as the young viper is like the old one

Judas, the traitor, was hence called a devil, John 6 70, as God is called the father of mercies, so is the devil of lies, he was first an angel of light, and then by his lies induced one third of the angels to rebel against God, he told lies to Eve in the garden, Gen 3 6, and to Christ in the desert The devils are also compared to birds of prey for their piercing eye, sudden pouncing, residence in the air, Eph 2 2, yet Satan was once called the son of the morning, Is 14 12 The Danes call lies the devil's daughters

Keep the Feet in God's House — Ecc. 5 1

This text means take heed to your ways in God's house. See that ye walk circumspectly As in walking we take as much care as we can to keep our feet from stumbling, so, in going to the house of God, we must take care about the state of our minds. When Moses saw the Angel of the Lord in the burning bush, the voice of God said to him "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground," Ex 3 5, and when Joshua saw the same Angel, he said, 'Loose thy shoe from off thy foot, for the place whereon thou standest is holy,' Josh 5 15. In both these instances it is believed that the Lord Jesus Christ took human form in appearance, before he really took our nature, and died to redeem us, and, by commanding the removal of the shoe from the foot, he showed that nothing which was defiled could acceptably appear in his presence. So Jacob in the desert, Gen. 28 17.

Look before you leap. He that hastens with his feet sinneth Prov 19 2, John 18 10. Chanak says, 'A prudent man moves with one foot, but does not move the other till he considers where he goes to. The Philistines were punished for touching the ark, 1 Sam. 6 19, a beast that touched Sinai was to be killed, Heb 12 20, Nebuchadnezzar was chastised for using at a feast the vessels of the temple, Dan 5 23. The sacrifice of fools is an offering without obedience. Christ flogged those that bought and sold in the temple, John 2 15.

God's Name on the Believer's Forehead — PER 2^d 4 5

The Vishnavites have the tilak, or forehead mark, a longitudinal line marked in vermilion, the Sivites a parallel line of a tawny colour. The Athenians marked an owl on their captives' forehead, idolaters put on such the mark of their god as Jupiter's thunderbolt, Neptune's trident. The forehead is the most conspicuous part, the countenance being the index of the mind, and implies an open confession, as Paul was a chosen vessel to bear Christ's name before the Gentiles, Acts 9 15, 16. It was a custom of ancient date in Asia to mark servants on the forehead, hence in Ezek 9 4, the Angel sets a mark on the foreheads of the men who cry for the abominations of the time. The Jews were forbidden to brand the forehead, Lev 19 28. Only the High Priest bore on it a plate of gold on which the name of God was written.

Paul said, I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus—ie, the scars of the stripes he received, Gal 6 17. Believers have God's mark in regeneration, and sanctification impressed on them. 1 Pet. 2 9, the name is Jehovah. Zech 14 20, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the Living God, 2 Cor 3 3.

foundation is out of sight, so Christ must be strong to bear the superstructure, earthquakes cannot destroy it

2 Have a regular and orderly erection, the rule of architecture applied to its building, so Israel's Church was "according to the pattern shown in the mount," Heb 8 5. Sin breaks up the harmony of society, grace unites in a church, "God is not the author of confusion" "That he might gather together in one all things" On the regularity of a building depends much of its strength, so "the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace," how symmetrical was Solomon's temple, so the spiritual one, 'the whole building fitly framed'

3 Be composed of many stones Every stone has its place, though there be many, some are polished, as James, Cephas, John "pillars," some of these are hidden, some form the coping, yet all are on the foundation. Some houses are of turf, or layers of brick, or sandstone, or marble, but God's houses are of living stone, 1 Pet 2 4, pictures, statues, sometimes seem alive, but here the stones are living—i.e., active

4 Undergo a great transformation Polished statuary and fine buildings are originally from the quarry, so believers were encrusted with fleshly lusts, sunk in the mire of spiritual corruption, so Paul the blasphemer preached the faith he once destroyed, "Look unto the rock whence ye were hewn"

5 Have a skillful architect in their transformation, Christ is such, Heb 3 4 Stones are inactive to raise themselves from the quarry, & scaffolding and masons are required, so in Solomon's temple, Jews, Canaanites, Tyrians, were employed, Cyrus was subsequently God's servant for its rebuilding Ez. 5 13, in the scaffolding of Solomon's temple no noise of axe or hammer was heard

6 Be cemented in the strongest way Their position unites stones but the best union is cement, the whole body composed of that which every joint supplieth Eph 4 6, love is the bond of perfectness, Col. 3. 14 Earthquakes may split the building without breaking the cement, "who shall separate," Rom 8 35

7 Be formed into a complete habitation, vast in extent, and ornamental, "a fount for cleansing, illuminated by the seven spirits of God, it has a throne of grace Heb 4 6

Malabar—The foundation for a thatched and for a tiled house will be laid the same way

Persian—A little water is sufficient for clay already moistened—i e, little instruction will suffice for him who has got a foundation by previous study

God the Fountain of Living Waters—JER. 2. 13.

Water is essential for life as well as for health, it is continually applied in Holy Scripture to represent the necessity of divine grace, and thus a well or spring of water becomes an emblem of the eternal source of all spiritual blessings, and of salvation itself. The blood of our blessed Saviour by which his people are washed from the defilements of sin is called a fountain opened to the house of David, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness Zech. 13 1 The quickening and refreshing influences of the Holy Spirit, are in like manner compared by our Lord Himself to rivers of living water, John 7 38, God declaring Himself 'a fountain of living waters' sets Himself forth as the source of all temporal and spiritual good

With what eager longing must the pilgrims crossing the desert look forward to their repose on the favoured spot, where a perpetual spring creates a little island of verdure or oasis in the midst of the burning plain!

God is called 'The Fountain of Living Waters,'—i e, waters always moving flowing and in action, the constant supply of all the comfort and relief we can possibly need, in contrast to dead or stagnant waters, which constantly send forth a noisome smell.

* The sun has not the less light for filling the air with light. A fountain has not the less for filling the lesser vessels. There is in Christ the fulness of a fountain. The overflowing fountain pours out water abundantly, and yet remains full. God is such an overflowing fountain, he fills all, and yet remains full. As the worth and value of many pieces of silver is in one piece of gold, so all the petty excellences scattered abroad in the creature are united in God.

• God is like a fountain in eight points —

(1) The source of rivers, so God of life, natural and spiritual Rev 21 6, (2) yields abundantly. God is an ocean of goodness, (3) pours freely into low places, Jas 4 6, so the founts of the Ganges, rising in the snows of Gangotri flow into the Ganges valley, (4) free to all Is 54 1, (5) clear rivers have sediment in them, (6) pleasant refreshes the garden of the Church, water makes vegetation spring up, even in the sandy deserts, (7) constant tanks dry up often in hot weather. Abraham's servants dried up the well, but this is a fountain sealed against filth, Cant 4 12, (8) often hidden yet known by its waters. Christ's fountain was opened on the cross when his side was pierced and when his sweet blood, the dying thief was a monument of its efficiency.

The Fowler of Souls — ERN. 6. 11

• We sometimes see a fluttering of wings among the grass on a bank which shows that some poor bird is taken in the snare and is vainly struggling to be free, but the

snare was set so skilfully that the bird could see nothing of its danger, but flew into it unawares

There is an enemy who is ever setting snares in our path—Satan, and the snares are those many false reasonings and vain seductions by which he misleads to their ruin such as are unwary and unstable To one he says, "Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant," Pr 9 17 Satan tried to sift Peter like wheat Luke 22 31, against some he sends fiery darts, Eph. 6 16, with others he wrestles, Eph 6 11 Satan as a fowler is crafty, appears in disguise as an angel of light, 2 Cor 11 14, cruel, hunts and persecutes God's people, who are like the dove before the hawk He is also for his destructiveness called the great Dragon, Rev 20 2

Christ a Friend.—JOHN 15 15

Christ's friendship differs from earthly friendship in five points —

True friendship implies sympathy such Job's friends showed not, but Christ is touched with a feeling of our infirmities Heb 4 15 Union can two walk together unless they be agreed? Saul and Jonathan had their hearts knit, 1 Sam 18 1, so Christ to his people, Eph 2 14-16 Prov 27 17 Love the offspring of desire, Christ loves to the end and has peculiar knowledge, the fuel for this love John 10 27, but the love of Christ passes knowledge Intercourse absence regretted Christ was a great friend to Lazarus and the Bethany family Christ is said to sup with the believer, Rev 3 20 John 1 lay on Christ's bosom John 13 23 Secrets are made known, so Abraham, the friend of God, found, Gen 18. 17, Prov 27 6, faithful are the wounds of a friend.

Christ's friendship is never broken up—formed with mean persons—Christ forsakes not in adversity, and even lays down his life—no king a friend to a beggar, Christ the companion of publicans and sinners—no time or circumstances change it—always able as well as willing, as shown in Dorcas and Lazarus's case, Acts 9 38-41, John 11

Persian—Those false friends whom you see are like flies around the sweetmeats

Naladayur—Friendship with the mean, like the shadow of morning, will continually decrease

Christ the first Fruits of them that Slept—1 Cor. 15 20

The first fruits of the harvest were the pledge of the whole, such was Christ's resurrection of ours, or as the swallow and budding of flowers are of spring, when the body which called the worm its sister shall shine as the sun. The first fruits, like the first born, were esteemed the most valuable, hence the Canaanites caused their first born to pass through the fire, in order to appease the anger of their deities, one of the kings of Moab, when in danger from enemies offered up his eldest son, 2 Kings 3 27. Cain brought to God the first fruits of the ground, as Abel did the firstlings of the flock Gen. 4 4, the Jews always did so, Num. 18 12

Affliction's Furnace—Is. 48 10

There are two furnaces, one of sanctified affliction, as Egypt was to the Jews, Deut 4 20, 1 Pet 1 6, 7, the fiery furnace injured not the three Hebrew children Dan. 3 25, the other of unsanctified like Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace which consumed the evil Dan 3 22, the former is like a pruning knife which improves the plant the latter like a chopper that cuts it off Mat. 13 42-50

God's afflicted people are compared to silver. The precious metals are first taken out of the earth. They are then impure—mixed with other substances and in this state they are called ores. In order to refine them they are put into a furnace and exposed to great heat. But this does not injure them, it only takes from them what is impure and leaves the gold or the silver bright beautiful and clear. The refiner watches the metals all the time they are in the fire, and when he finds that they are so clear and pure that he can see his own face reflected in them he takes them out of the furnace and uses them for the purposes he intended.

Afflictions of righteous and wicked differ in four points —

In Malachi 3:3 God compares the afflictions with which he tries his people to the furnace into which the gold and silver are cast to be refined and purified. God loves and values his people. He calls them his "treasure" his jewels. But like the gold and silver, they have that in them which is impure—sin. And this sin must be taken away. God's people must be made pure and holy before he can have pleasure in them and use them for his service or take them to adorn his glorious home in heaven. And how does God purify them? Sin must be taken away by Christ and the heart must be made clean by the Holy Spirit. God has many ways of working all this in his people and one way is by affliction. Like the refiner he puts his precious gold and silver into the furnace—the furnace of affliction. He sends sorrow and pain and sickness upon them. And why? Not to hurt them no but just for the same reason that the refiner puts his metals into the fire to melt to soften to purify them. And then like the refiner God watches over them. He does not let them suffer more or longer than is right, and when he has made them what he intended by putting them into the furnace he takes them from it. What God desires is to see his own image his own likeness reflected in his people.

A silver coin or medal is generally stamped with the image of the sovereign, this can be done only when the metal is soft, and it is made soft by the heat of the fire. So God's people should bear the likeness of Christ, their King, stamped upon them in their conduct, and God sends affliction to soften their hearts, that they may more easily receive that holy impression, and so become more and more like Jesus.

The Church a Garden enclosed — CAST 4. 17

The Church like a garden in seven points —

Paradise means a beautiful garden, to which Christ refers, Luke 23 43, Babylon had hanging gardens on the roofs of the houses.

As the waste wilderness is the emblem of the world, so a choice garden is set forth as an image of God's Church, as is also a vineyard Mat 20 1-16. A garden is a place enclosed out of the common waste ground, and set apart for special culture and fruitfulness. Its site is chosen for advantage of soil and shelter, as well as for that abundant supply of water, which is so needful for the health and produce of its plants. Care is ever taken to screen it from every rude blast, to maintain or improve the natural goodness of the ground, and to make the water flow in such channels as may conduct it most easily to the several plots and borders. In laying out a garden, it is divided and arranged according to some well-ordered pattern, and he, who is set "to dress it and to keep it," is ever careful both to remove whatever is common and unsightly, and to fill every nook and angle with the choicest flowers, and the most useful and delicious fruits. The owner of the garden delights to come into it when the tender shoots are first showing themselves above the ground, or when it is in all the pride of summer beauty or autumnal fruitfulness, Rev. 1 13. Its sunny stillness and repose invite to peaceful meditation. Its exact order, its smooth lawns, its many-coloured borders, cool shades, and clear waters are soothing to the eye that is wearied with the glare and confusion of the crowded marts, while the soft breeze that whispers among the fruits and flowers is laden with the most grateful fragrance.

It is thus that God has chosen out of the world a Church, or "peculiar people," to be his own portion and inheritance. He fences and protects it from the enemies that seek its ruin, he is a wall of fire, and sets in it the choicest plants, to bear those fruits and flowers which are of price in his sight. So Abraham gave the flower of faith, Moses of meekness, Peter of boldness, Paul of zeal, Gal 5. 22. It is the Paradise of his beloved Son, who is the second Adam, and whose care it is to remove from it the weeds of sin and selfishness, and to preserve it in that godly order, and that blessed unity, which makes it the image upon earth, not only of the heavenly peace, but even of the Divine Unity itself. His Holy Spirit is the fountain in the midst of the garden which nourishes and refreshes the plants, and is also the gentle breath which bears the fragrance of its flowers to Him who is pleased to receive graciously what in itself is unworthy of being offered to Him He sets His servants to tend and cherish the various plants on which He is pleased to set such store, and to see, when He shall come into His garden, that there be nothing there to offend those eyes which are too pure to behold iniquity. Whatever resembles the fruits of the evil world must be rooted out, whatever is useful and lovely must be planted and fostered

Faith more Precious than Gold.—1 PET 1 7

In Rev 3 18, Divine Grace which stands the fiery trial, is called gold faith in the text is not mere knowledge

Faith like gold in ten points —

1 Scarce so the grace of God.

2 Searched after, men go to deep mines for gold or to California, so search the Scriptures John 5 39

3 Tried in fire, to distinguish it from false metal, sometimes a touchstone used so Gods word like faith is tried by fire, so Abraham three times Job six times

4 Precious in its nature hence faith called lively, effectual 1 Thess. 1 3, faith precious as bought with Christs blood wrought by Gods Spirit object of is Christ, unites to God eye of the soul, unfeigned working by love Gal 5 6, holy, procured by Christs blood, Col 2 12, its fruits, Heb 11, faith made a river go back caused a man to give half of his goods to the poor Luke 19 8, and people to burn bad books Acts 19 19

5 The Chief Metal Babylon called the golden city, Isa 14 4, the skull called the golden bowl Lev 12 6

The Righteous Groan in their Bodily Tabernacle

2 Cor. 5 4

The righteous groan from six causes —

Creation itself groans, being under a curse for sin, Rom. 8 22 The soul dwells in the body as in a tent which is easily taken down, being made of frail materials that flood or fire soon destroys, the body soon returns to dust.

The soul's dark cottage battered and decayed

Lets in new light through chinks which time has made

Few care to ornament a tent, as they are but a short time in it, it is crazy and leaky in bad weather, so disease makes the body

It is better to groan for a while in this tabernacle than for ever under God's vengeance, the tears from groaning God puts in his bottle Ps 56 8 This groaning arises from the burthen of the body, which hinders the soul rising on eagle's wings, from Satan's temptations 1 Pet 1 6, bad company 2 Pet 2 7, afflictions, Ps 42 7, indwelling sin, Rom 7 24

Naladiyar —The soul carries the skin bag—the body.

The Right Hand of God dashes in Pieces his Enemies

Ex. 15 6

His right hand in the text imports a signal display of his Almighty power his love, mercy, or wrath in relation to the exalted station of Christ It imports the highest power, authority, glory, and dignity Elymas the sorcerer was struck blind by God's hand Acts 13 11 Hand denotes strength, thus Ishmael's hand as an Arab robber was against every man, Gen 16 12 Christ sits at the Father's right hand—etc., the seat of power, Mark 14 62 The hollow of his hand denotes his easy comprehension, protection, and support of all things God's arms, hands, fingers, denote Almighty power manifested in acts of sovereignty, justice, and grace God is called the head of Christ, to him, as man and mediator, he is the undoubted superior, and it is his to support, rule, and direct him, as such His countenance and face, when represented as set against any, denote the manifestation of his indignation and wrath, in other circumstances, they signify the discovery of his glory and grace God's eyes import his knowledge, his care, and regard, but sometimes the display of his wrath His ears denote his perfect knowledge, his exact observation and favourable regard His nostrils and nose signify his anger, his approbation, and his exact judgment His mouth and lips denote his will, authority and wrath His back imports his anger and disregard His bowels are his most ardent love, his tender mercy, and unbounded compassion His bosom imports secrecy, safety, eminent nearness, amazing intimacy, and endeared love His feet are the less glorious manifestations of his presence, the exercise of his power and providence, for the relief of his people and overthrow of his enemies

Pilate washed his hands in Christ's case to denote that his power was used innocently, Mat. 27 24 Persons were consecrated by the imposition of hands to denote spiritual power imparted Gen 48 14

The Soul thirsts for God like a Hart.—Ps 42. 1.

Prayer compared to the importunate friend at midnight, Luke 11. 5–8, the importunate widow, Luke 18 5, unresting Jacob, Gen 32. 21–32, called pouring out of the heart, Ps 62 8, drawing near to God, Heb 10. 22; looking up, Ps 5. 3, waiting as a servant.

The deer are accustomed to gather themselves at noon to the cool solitude and refreshing brook, and are often seen reclining in groups upon the mossy bank, or quenching their thirst in the shallow stream. Sometimes the hunters scare them from their nook, and chase them over the open brow above the woods under the sultry sun. Panting with the heat and exertion, they make for their favourite haunt and the quiet brook. From some change of purpose, the pursuers discontinued the chase, and the frightened and exhausted creatures are suffered to plunge into the copses, and find their way to the shades for which they longed. How eager must have been their draught, when they reached the brook!—how grateful and refreshing the plunge into the flood, and the rest amidst the moss and fern! Such is the soul in the desert of this world thirsting for the true amrita, or waters of life, flowing from God's throne

Urdu —The thirsty person goes to the well, not the well to him. The thirsty is most eager for water.

Talmud —Should man not go after wisdom? wisdom will not come to him.

Sanskrit —The king is the strength of the weak, crying is the strength of children.

What six proverbs illustrate the thirst of prayer ?
Urdu—Hunger is the best sauce and fatigue the best pillow

The Heavenly Home.—JON 14. 2

Heaven unlike a good earthly home in three points —

Heaven is represented under the emblems of "a better country," "a paradise" without any serpent, "a city" paved with gold, "a palace," but "home" is an emblem familiar to all—all can understand the "father's house"

Allusion in the text to the temple of Jerusalem where God dwelt, 1 Kings 8 10, 11, with many chambers for priests and Levites Kings' palaces have many rooms The Vatican, the Pope's residence, has 4,000 chambers

In this world we are only pilgrims, heaven is our home

Heaven like a good earthly home in six points —

1 Place of birth—earliest recollections early recollections, like the tamarind roots are not easily pulled up, cling to the memory, so heaven to the believer, he is "born from above" The heavenly Jerusalem is the mother of us all, "light from heaven first illumined him," hence he seeks the things above, his religious affections fixed on an unseen world.

2 Residence of our best friends, our family, and the old servants attract us to it, so heaven the residence of the Father of mercies, of "Christ, our eldest brother," the spirits of just men made perfect, "our younger brethren," besides ministering spirits No family contentions there, the Father of lights there without variableness Jas 1 17

3 Source of sweetest comforts the child found in clothes and education, the prodigal son thought of his father's house, Luke 15 17, so the Christian has bread from heaven and the water of life, they shall go no more out, 'the lamb shall feed them'

4 Security a father's house a sure refuge, "no plague comes nigh our dwelling," Ps 91, "no lion shall be there" "Under the shadow of the wings of the Almighty"

5 Habitation to which a right is claimed, the child considers the father's things "ours," my father, your father Though here we may not have where to lay our head, there is heaven, "a building of God"

6 Free of care children have no anxiety to provide for the family, "they shall enter into peace" They shall sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Mat 8 11

The earthly father's house often desolate after years, but Christ the "same yesterday and for ever" Earthly abode a shifting one, small in tents, heaven has many mansions the "palace of the great king," 'if children, then heirs.' David said, "Though father or mother forsake me," believers, though here they may wander in dens and caves, Heb 11, 'shall sit with Christ on his throne,' 'as one whom his mother comforted, so will God' 'Forget thy father's house'—i.e., the earthly

The Righteous are God's Husbandry —1 Cor. 3 9

The righteous God's husbandry in twelve points —

The relation of Christ to his Church is pointed out in the Bible under a variety of pleasing images, such as of a building jewels, friends (see Parable of Vineyard, Mat. 21 33), here it is under that of a well managed farm

1 Believers are God's special property Ground in commonage is not well cultivated, it must become the property of some person to be attended to, so the Lord's portion is his people, purchased from the waste of this world of a price if not according to the intrinsic value, yet according to the interest taken by the purchaser

2 Metal out, separated Boundaries for farms are necessary, so the boundaries of the visible and invisible church of the church and the world— I have chosen you out of the world

3 Fenced and protected A stone may be a landmark or a furrow may be a line of division, but a fence is necessary to prevent trespass 'My beloved had a garden, he fenced it Church discipline and laws are a fence, so is God's providence 'Hast thou not set a fence around Job? A garden enclosed is my sister Come out from among them and be separate

4 Subject to a spiritual cultivation The fruits of righteousness are the great object Many improvements of life have been made in agriculture, so it is necessary to improve in spiritual husbandry God says What could I have done more for my vineyard than I have done?

5 An adequate band of labourers is provided Labourers are necessary for a farm, among the Jews a whole tribe was set apart for this spiritual work, God gave some apostles and some prophets, he finds labourers idle in the market, sees and thrusts them out, he that puts his hand to the plough and looks back is not fit for the kingdom of God

6 Suitable instruments are furnished Man's hand could do little without the spade and plough God's word is the plough to root out weeds The fallow ground of the heart must be ploughed up Weeds must be destroyed, and the light must enter, the word of God is sharper than a two-edged sword, the ploughshare of conviction breaks up the fallow soil, such were those who were pricked to the heart when Peter preached Acts 2:37

The peaceable fruits of righteousness rending the heart not the garment The mattock of the law from sin will break very hard soil Is 7:25 so the hammer of God's word Jer 23:29 Affliction destroys the weeds of corruption

7 The soil is improved and enriched Dung for some manure for other soils is necessary, as the field becomes fertile from blood and bones, & the blood of atonement purges the conscience from dead works. God gives a heart of flesh.

8 The soil must be sown with heavenly seed Without this seed vice will spring up, sowing requires good seed, good soil and a good season, no good seed of itself John 3 6

9 The crop must be watched and dressed Seed must be pressed into the soil and protected from vermin and cattle the crop is sometimes over luxuriant

10 The soil must be watered Egypt was watered by the foot to convey water in rivulets. Blessed are they that sow beside all waters floods on the dry ground

11 Fruit is expected hence the waiting for the latter rain. The harvest of the earth will be gathered in by God then the joy of harvest home Is 9 3

12 Low lands are more fertile than high Rain descends on the valley and remains Jer 17 8

If it was sought on the fig tree three years Luke 13 7 hence Christ cursed it. The husbandmen that would not cultivate were destroyed Mark 12 9. The seven Churches of Asia had their hedges broken down. God is the sole proprietor and cannot be dispossessed. He is never weary and never grows old Is 40 28 he can make bad trees good and send rain

The Incense of Prayer — Pev 5 8

Prayer like incense in five points —

Incense was made from the gum extracted from the bark of a tree being used in sacrifices it was brought as a present to the Infant Saviour Mat 2 11. It was a symbol of prayer as it ascended so did Cornelius's prayer Acts 10 4 Ps 141 2 was made pure from the gum of a tree in Arabia was purifying removing the smell from the burning flesh and blood of the sacrifices,

• was fragrant, Ex. 30 34, pleasant, so when Hannah prayed she was no more sad, 1 Sam 1 18

The 24 elders are represented, Rev 5 8, 8 3, 4, as having an harp and a cup full of incense, which is the prayers of the saints Daniel hazarded his life to offer this incense, Dan 6 10

Prayer is compared to knocking Luke 11 5-8, to wrestling, Gen. 32 24, to an importunate widow, Luke 18 1-8

Arabic — Prayer is the pillar of religion Acts 10 4

Arabic — Prayer comes not in answer to the cat's prayer

Afghan — To say bismillah (in God's name) brings a blessing, but not in jackal hunting

Begotten to an Unfading Inheritance — 1 Pet 1 4

Heaven is the inheritance of those who, by the new birth, belong to the Church of the first born, who get the blessing of the spiritual birthright In an inheritance the heirs are (1) heads of the house, the prop of the family, believers are joint heirs with Christ who is the heir of all things 2 The heir must be qualified to manage the estate properly, so believers are made partakers of the divine nature, 2 Pet. 1 4, the proud God knoweth afar off, Ps 138 6 (3) The estate is in proportion to the wealth of the donor God is Lord of all. (4) An inheritance is future, but this is kept in heaven, and as certain as money in a good bank, here the heirs have little, but are like the Jews in the wilderness who had no house, yet called God their dwelling place Ps. 90 1 God's promises are a heritage, Ps 119 11

The Inheritance of the righteous differs from an earthly inheritance in five points —

• Earthly inheritances are small, subject to law suits limited in duration, unsatisfying common to the wicked and good, often pillaged or wasted as the prodigal son did his Justice.

Christ has the Keys of Death and Hell—REV 1:18

When a person is put into office, he is often intrusted with keys, thus a jailor has the keys of a prison. Ancient keys were often made of wood, and, to be strong, they were made very large, so that they were carried on the shoulder, and, in the east, the carrying of a key on any great occasion was a mark of a person's holding some office of rank and power. Thus it is said of Jesus 'And the government shall be upon his shoulder,' Is 9:6, that is, he shall have power as one that carries the key to mark his authority.

Silence was represented by the Greeks as a golden key on the tongue. Authority to explain the law and the prophets was given among the Jews by the delivery of a key, in the case of one rabbi after his death they put his key and his tablets into his coffin because he did not deserve to have a son to whom he might leave the ensigns of his office.

Christ said to Peter I will give unto thee the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven Mat. 16:19, as stewards of a great family, especially of the royal household, bore a key, probably a golden one in token of their office, the phrase of giving a person the key naturally grew into an expression of raising him to great power, Is. 22:22, Rev 3:7. This was with peculiar propriety applicable to ministers, the stewards of the mysteries of God, 1 Cor 4 1 The Bible is the key of knowledge, Luke 11 52 Peter's opening the kingdom of heaven, as being the first that preached it both to the Jews and to the Gentiles may be considered as an illustration of this promise, as also the power given of binding and loosing

Jesus Christ declares he who believes on him shall never see death—i.e. Spiritual death The Dives say 'A golden key opens every door except that of heaven

Talmud—A man knowing law, but without God's fear, is a man having the key of the inner, but not of the outer chamber

Arabic—Patience is the key to joy, penitence to pardon, modesty to tranquility

Atmabodh Prakash—Without knowledge resembling fire for cooking, no liberation

The Righteous are Kings

The righteous like kings in six points —

Death is called in the Bible the king of terrors Job 18 14 as the alligator is called a king Job 41 34

Believers are like kings occupied with high things Ph. 3 20, shall rule the kingdoms of this world when they become the kingdom of God Rev 11 15, Dan 9 27, highly honoured, high born Christians born from above, 1 John 3 1 well attended angels their servants Heb 1 14, crowned 2 Tim 3 8

* Chanak says a learned man and a king are not on an equality, the king is honoured only in his own country, the learned everywhere.

Christ is called king of kings while the church is styled his daughter all glorious within Ps 45 13 Christ is the only begotten son the treasures of wisdom are hid in him 1 Cor 1 24, he was proclaimed by a star and by the angels singing to the shepherds, his palace was the heaven of heavens angels his attendants and ambassadors, all are his subjects even the winds obey him while rulers like Cyrus and Nebuchadnezzar, work out his will.

Christ's Kingdom Immovable — HEB 12 28

Parable of Marriage Feast Mat 22 1-14, Parable of the Great Supper, Luke 14 16-21

Christ's friends are heirs of a kingdom but not of this world where everything is so uncertain. Christ said his kingdom was not of this world John 18 36

Christ's kingdom differs from earthly kingdoms in five points —

1 Its throne is stable a throne is a great object of human ambition yet like a light tree yields soonest to the storm Job 12 21, such are earthly kingdoms but in heaven the Lord reigneth. Christ once took the form of a servant but he is now highly exalted ruling with the ancient of days God the Father he has an everlasting dominion Dan 4 34

2 Its constitution unalterable—i.e. these fundamental ordinances which determine the form of government. Christ's is an absolute monarchy but it is the rule of absolute wisdom goodness and truth, a change of earthly government upsets men's minds but Christ's kingdom is stable

things are yours—the true equality—all raised to be kings and priests

4. Its prosperity imperishable, wealth takes wings, all the old empires have perished, weather and disease blast the best expectations, but to the bebeliever all things shall work together for good, the poor of this world are rich in faith.

5 Its duration eternal Dan 7 14, Egypt, Babylon, Greece, Rome, all perished. David's stem buried in the rubbish of a carpenter's shop, but Christ's kingdom is eternal, not supported by human ambition or an arm of flesh. 'The kingdom of this world will become the kingdom of our God.' Christ will be "King of kings," Ps. 146 10

Who knocks at the Door of the Heart?

REV 3. 20.

The Prodigal Son, Luke 15 17-19—The Marriage Supper, Luke 14 16

God's ways are not as our ways, with man the inferior waits on the superior, in the text the great God waits on the lukewarm Laodiceans. The door is the heart, this is barred by nature against Christ through vile lusts and passions, and by unbelief.

Christ continues to knock by his word, Heb 4 12, by his Spirit, by his Providence.

China—Men will be no more virtuous without exhortation than a bell sound without being struck.

Telugu—Unless the child cries, even the mother will not give it suck.

Christ the Lamb of God.—JOHN 1 29.

Christ was like a lamb in four points—

(1) Harmless, Heb 7 26, John 21 15, he was surrounded by wolves, by Satan a roaring lion, and by Herod a fox, (2) meek, bore the wrongs of spitting on and scourging when led to the slaughter, Heb 12 3, (3) contented, Christ had not where to lay his head, Mat. 8 2, (4) used in sacrifice, Rev 12 11, Christ like the scapegoat bore our sins away into the wilderness, so the Asiamedh, or horse sacrifice of the Hindus, was designed to typify a sacrificial purpose. An hypocritical power is compared to a lamb with two horns, but speaking as a dragon, Rev 13 11. In the millennium the lamb is to dwell with the wolf, Is 11 6, 65 25

The Spiritual Legacy—LUKE 27 29

These words were spoken by Christ previous to his Crucifixion, giving to his disciples high honour in the next world his legacy. A legacy is a proof of friendship a sign that death does not dissolve it so Christ, eighteen hundred years ago in an upper room eating his Last Supper gave this proof, the next day he was to hang on a Cross, he sealed this legacy by breaking bread and drinking wine

Christ's legacy differs from a common legacy in six points —

This Legacy is—(1) in the Bible, we are to search the Scriptures as the miner searches for gold or as people examine a will immediately after the death of the testator, (2) Eternal, some are left things acquired by fraud or force, and therefore disputed, this property does not corrupt the possessor, 1 Pet 1 4, (3) The legatees are ruined sinners, blessed are the poor in spirit, Mat. 5, (4) Ratified by a seal, baptism and the Lord's Supper, the Sunday is the memorial of it, (5) Unconditional, no debt or mortgages entailed, Boaz's kinsman wished Naomi's property, but not without the condition of marrying Ruth so Moses rejected the treasures of Egypt when the condition implied forfeiting the reproach of Christ, (6)

Enough for all, when the division is small, quarrels are apt to arise, as in Abraham's, Isaac's, and David's families but this kingdom is boundless, many mansions in the Father's House.

Who comes as the Lightning?—MAT 24. 27

Christ's second coming compared to a bridegroom, Mat 25 1-13, a supper, Rev 19 6-9, a restitution, Acts 3 21 We are to wait for it, Rom. 8 19-22, to hasten to it, 2 Pet 3 12 The Virgin's cry was at midnight, Mat 25 6 at midnight the first born of Egypt died, Ex 12 29 at midnight 185,000 Assyrians were smitten.

The sudden flash, which brings so near to us the thought of an awful power that might consume us in a moment should remind us of Christ's coming. He came at first in great humility, and many years passed by before he manifested forth his glory, that his disciples should believe on him But when he shall come again, he will be seen "in the clouds of heaven." "Every eye shall see him, and they also who pierced him." From one end of heaven to the other, his presence like lightning will be made manifest and his coming will be as sudden as it will be terrible to the wicked. The heavens shall pass away, 2 Pet 3 9

At Christ's first coming He was a babe, a servant, his forerunner, John a fakir in the desert, fishermen his attendants, acted as a mediator, spat on, derided.

At His second coming He will be King of kings, the trump of the archangel shall sound, angels, archangels, his attendants, Judge and Lord of all

Christ's coming is also compared Pev 3 3, to a thief in the night. The thief comes to destroy, so in the day of the Lord, the wicked shall be cut asunder, Mat. 24 37 The thief comes with weapons, so Christ comes in flames of fire, 2 Thes. 5 7-8, and he comes unexpectedly when men are at ease and asleep, like as in the days of Noah,

Mat. 24 37, all will be fright and confusion, they will call on the rocks to cover them, Rev 6 16, 17. The thief comes with veiled intent, Christ, on the other hand, to punish injustice, and deliver his people, the thief's coming may be prevented, but the day of the Lord will come, 2 Pet. 3 10 The thief injures a few; Christ executes judgment on all

Telugu —If the thief said beforehand that he was coming, I would have secured witnesses.

Talmud —The owl and the hen waited together for the morning "The light is of use to me," said the hen, "but of what use to you?"

Russian —Prepare for death, but neglect not to sow

Christ the Lily of the Valley.—CANT 2 1

Christ is compared to a lily among thorns, like a lily he is fragrant, Gen. 8 21, white and pure, Rev 19 8, fruitful, not destroyed by the snow of persecution, beautiful, like a lily among thorns Sadi compares an amiable youth to a white lily in a bed of narcissuses

The simple beauty of the lilies drew on them their Creator's approving notice, when in the days of his flesh, he went in and out among men, and was himself capable of being soothed by the works which he made so fair and pleasant for the children of men Those sweet and lovely flowers were then as unreprouable in his sight as in the day when he first "saw that they were good" Man for whose delight and solace they were made, was now sinful and fallen, but the handiwork of God in these his humbler creatures, was still such as he could behold with complacency "They toil not, neither do they spin," the bright clothing, which it is so pleasant to behold is furnished for them without any task imposed on them of painful labour, and they close their flowers at night without any anxious care, lest the kindly shower or the genial sun should fail them on the morrow, Mat. 6 28

Our Saviour does not mean to discourage the toils of honest industry and wise foresight, or obedience to the law which is laid on all of us, "Six days shalt thou labour," but he means, that in these innocent "flowers of the field," we should see an emblem of those who are "without carefulness," and who, having diligently done whatever their hands find to do," are enabled to trust God for the result.

Buddhagosa —The righteous shines amongst the ignorant as the lilies in a heap of rubbish

Looking to Jesus —HEB. 12 : 2

As the weary traveller at night looks for the morning star, so is Christ's advent regarded. The wicked have to look for a fearful judgment day, believers for Christ's coming in the clouds, Phil 3 : 20

A man's looks often indicate his frame of mind, the eye is a mirror of the passions of the soul, it expresses like the tongue joy, and grief, thus the look of a dying husband on his surviving wife or of a drowning man wishing aid.

Looking to Jesus implies—(1) distinct knowledge, Hos 4 : 5, (2) eagerness for relief, Ps 123 : 2, Jonah 2 : 4, (3) humble dependence, (4) affection

This looking implies likeness, 2 Cor 3 : 18. A cat may look at a king, but the looking does not change her. In this looking we are to look off from other things we are not to let the plough stand to catch a mouse

Panchatantra —The lost, the dead, and the past the wise mourn not over

Persian —One's eyes are more delighted at seeing the faces of friends, than by beholding a garden or a parterre

Meekness

Tamul — Are there any snakes who will not bite those who tread on them?

Arabic — Mild speech enchains the heart

Syriac — He who gives not wood to the fire prevents burning

Tamul — A loving disposition is a river without a ripple

Probodh Chandroday — The equanimity of rational men is steady as the clear unruffled ocean, so that they bear with reproach from persons whose eyebrows, gathered up in black anger, present a fearful appearance, and whose eyes are red as the setting sun

Turk — Have the sweetness of the lamb, the force of the lion, and the sagacity of the elephant

China — Stir not a fire with a sword — i. e., provoke not a fool

Syriac — Shut your doors, and ye will not fear enemies — i. e. be silent, no fear of calumny

Turk — Tread not on a sleeping snake

Church Membership — Rom 12 4, 5

The text refers to the different offices and qualifications of Christians. See the Fable of the Belly and Members

The Church is called the body of Christ and He is the head Eph 1 22 which implies superiority and sympathy, 1 Cor 11 3, when the head is cut off the body, in one minute life ceases

Christ the Head who is in heaven is also dwelling by his Spirit in all his members so as to make them one with him and with each other by an union which is closer than that of parent and child. If we are the body of Christ then we have the comfort of knowing that Christ is our life. He is to our souls what the living principle is to our bodies. Being our Head, he is our counsellor and guide in all difficulties and anxieties. Being our life he is our strength in all assaults of Satan in all trials and temptations So that it is not our own strength nor our own wisdom that we depend upon, but the strength and wisdom of Christ As 'the members of Christ we shall regard both our souls and bodies with a more solemn and reverential feeling, and shall fear above all things to defile by any wilful sin what is his and not our own.

The Church is the body in four points —

That is scarcely to be called a member of our body which is of no use to the body, nor can he be called a true member of Christ who is of no use to the Church (which is Christ's body) according to the calling in life which God has appointed for him The apostle says "There are many members in one body, and all have not the same office All have some office but all have not the same office And thus in Christ's body every member is appointed to some useful office, some work of faith and labour of love, in the daily duties of his various callings No two members are appointed to the same office, but all have some service or other assigned to them. The services of some are more honourable than the occupations of the other, but there is no member of Christ that is not called to serve God in some course of useful and dutiful obedience The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of thee nor again the head to the feet I have no need of you. If any member could sever itself from the rest in a proud independence it would utterly perish. The members have the same care one of another The little brook, which waters a few fields, fulfils the office assigned to it by Providence as truly as the mighty river which bears on its bosom the commerce of a nation

Japan —The back and the belly are not interchangeable

Tamul —Who would wish to cut off the hand because by mistake it struck the eye?

Persian —The hands do not perform the business of the heart, but the heart performs that of the hands

Bengal —Are the five fingers equal in length?

Tamul —The head is the chief member of the body, though the others may be larger

Malay —If the right thigh be punched, pain will also be felt in the left

Hebrew —All the fingers are not equal

Turk —Two hands are made for the service of a single head

Urdu —Sometimes a boat on a waggon (carrying on shore), and sometimes a waggon on a boat (in crossing a river) Individuals of different rank can help, each other

Urdu —Is the flesh separate from the nail?

Persian —One roof and two winds—i.e., persons of opposite tempers living together

Persian —The knife does not cut off its own handle

Who are Spiritual Merchants—Prov 3 13, 14

The righteous as spiritual merchants in seven points —

Some supposed in Paul's time that gain was godliness, this is not true yet godliness with contentment is great gain 1 Tim 4 8

The righteous is a good merchant, Mat 13 45 Must be diligent Heb 6 11, punctual Ecc 9 10, regular in correspondence like the importunate widow, Luke 18 1, useful Christians are the salt of the earth, but losses at times occur from storms robbers. His articles of trade are the gold of God's love Pev 3 18, the pearls of Christ's blessings Mat 13 45, the oil and wine of God's spirit Ps 23 5, the spices of graces, Cant 3 6 His capital is Christ's offices as prophet priest and king, the port he trades to is a distant one, Is 33 17, a rich one, a royal one all made kings and priests there, a heavenly, Ph 3 20, his profits are satisfying enduring Jas 4 13 The spiritual merchant deals not in adulterated articles, is sure of his profit, he has arms of defence, Eph 6 11

Mahabharat — Amass that wealth which has nothing to fear from kings or thieves, and which does not desert thee in death

The Church compared to the Moon.—CANT 6 10

The Church is called a pillar, 1 Tim. 3 15, illustrated by the parables of the Tares and Wheat, the Net, the Mustard Seed

The moon receives her brightness from the sun. She is dark herself and reflects his light. One half of her orb is always illuminated therewith—a circle of beautiful splendour, but the whole of that circle is not always visible, sometimes but a thread like portion thereof, and sometimes it is entirely hidden from the eyes. The moon is not in darkness, when we see not her light, her face still looks towards the sun, and is bright with his brightness, but we are so placed not to have the full view thereof

Such is the Church, it is dark itself, but reflects the light of its Lord. For the graces of Christ beheld by faith produce like graces in the soul.

The Church like the moon in seven points —

(1) Receives light from the sun, Christ is the Sun of Righteousness, Mal. 4 2, (2) Dispenses and reflects what she receives Mat 5 14, (3) Gives light at night, so Christians in this dark world, (4) Though fair has spots Jud 12, (5) Sometimes full, sometimes waning, the Church now in prosperity again persecuted, but the wicked have reserved for them the blackness of darkness, 2 Pet 2 17, (6) Above the earth so Christians Ph 3 20; (7) Acts by unseen influence, like the moon on the tides and weather

Rabbins — Be rather the tail of a lion than the head of a fox, Ps 84 10

Bengal — The moon mocks the thieves

Cinghalese — Like the moon shining in the desert

Polish — Life is like the moon—now dark, now full.

The Holy Spirit's Influence like Oil — Ps 23 5

The Holy Spirit like oil in five points —

High priests and kings were appointed to office by anointing with oil, in this way Saul was made king, 1 Sam 10 1 Christ was anointed to heal the broken-hearted, Luke 4 18, hence his name Cyrus, though a heathen was called God's anointed Is 45 1

The Holy Spirit's influence is like oil in its effects, in—softening, hard tumours are mollified so the swellings of pride, healing, draws the bad humours out, so the wounded traveller had oil poured into his wounds, Luke 10 34, the sick were anointed with oil, Jas 5 14, refreshing used in banquets, and called the oil of joy, made a person active, hence wrestlers and warriors used it for their limbs, makes the face to shine, Stephen's face shone like that of an angel, Acts 6 15

Christ's name is compared to ointment poured forth in its preciousness, Mat 26 7, fragrance Brotherly love is compared Ps 123 2, to oil in its qualities of softening making supple fragrant, healing precious, poured forth

Phariseism or Straining at a Gnat while Swallowing a Camel — Mar 7 3 24

The Pharisees urged the murder of Christ yet refused to take the money as the price of blood Mat. 26 65 The Buddhists strain water to prevent their swallowing insects Christ called their pride and hypocrisy leaven, as being sour and penetrating

Tamil — A terrible ascetic, an atrocious cheat

Bengal — Scented oil on the head, the body, so filthy as to drive away sleep

China — Water under the grass

China —The mouth of a Baddha, the heart of a snake

Badaga —If he is in the wilderness, he is a robber. If he comes to the village, he wishes to be a gurn—i.e., a religious teacher, Mat 23 4-7, 14.

Feman —His forehead is that of a worshipper, his mouth that of a wolf, and his heart that of a roaming demon is he so shameless as to say he has learnt of the divinity?

Japan —To clothe a wolf in priest's clothes

Tamul —He tells lies by thousands, and builds a temple

Who is the Great Physician?—MAT 9. 12

Christ went about healing all manner of diseases and spiritual maladies, he said the whole have no need of a physician, but those who are sick

Christ a good physician in ten points —

1 Good natural qualifications Christ has infinite intelligence, "all things are naked to his eyes," Heb 4 13, he has infinite power, we are his workmanship His heart is tender, a High Priest touched with a feeling of our infirmities A merry and feeling heart does good like a medicine particularly so with a physician, but Christ has sympathy, as he suffered being tempted

2 Training A doctor must know the structure of the body the symptoms of disorders, and the properties of medicines Christ partook of flesh and blood Heb 2 14

3 Authorized by competent authority, Christ called of God as was Aaron, lifted up as a serpent in the wilderness The Lord anointed him to bind up the broken hearted, Luke 4 18, his miracles were his diploma, John 5 36, 37

4 Efficient medicines provided he sent his word, and healed them, Ps 107 20 to be spiritually minded is life and peace These medicines are not dear or difficult to procure, the word can be received into the heart by simple faith, all can come to his dispensary, he varies his medicine according to the disease

5 Experience Christ has had 6,000 years' practice ever since it was said the seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head Age does not impair his skill, he saves to the uttermost, even in Heaven the song is worthy the lamb, cholera baffles doctors but Christ searches the reins and checks all diseases, he can make Paul's thorn in the flesh contribute to his immunity

6 Attentive Comes at all times without being asked, and watches the crisis

7 Generous to the poor Christ takes no fees, says buy without money or price, Is 55 1, Christ is the poor man's doctor, he healed the woman who had spent all her money on doctors Luke 8 43

8 Perseveres Christ makes the dry bones live Ez 37 4, he has the brand plucked from the burning

9 Successful Christ said come all that labour Adam's rebellion, Noah's drunkenness Manasseh's tyranny were cured, even death is cured Is 25 8 The Persians say of ordinary physicians—when fate arrives the physician is a fool

10 Accessible Christ is always so, he never sleeps

Christ differs from earthly physicians in nine points —

- (1) Sometimes deceives kill sometimes instead of curing,
- (2) require to be sent for Luke 19 10, (3) charge for services Is 55 1, (4) make few sacrifices for their patients Christ gave his blood, (5) cannot raise the dead, (6) sometimes impatient, (7) visit only one patient at a time, (8) subject to disease themselves, Heb 2 17, (9) their medicines lose their virtue by long keeping Talmud —A doctor at a distance is blind.

Bengali —He who has had the ringworm knows what it really is

Tamul —Faith in medicine makes it effectual

Japan —No medicine for lovesickness and a fool

Tamil —Is there any medicine for a bad temper?

Russian —A golden bed cannot cure the sick.

Tamil —The friendship of the doctor ends at the threshold.

Telugu —Are you to ask the bullock before you put on the pack-saddle?

Urdu —The barber washes everyone's feet, but thinks it beneath him to wash his own

Tamil —He who has killed 1,000 persons is half a doctor

Urdu —There is no physic for false ideas

Who are Pilgrims on Earth?—HEB 11 11, 13

Moses gave his son the name of Gershom (the stranger), to signify he was not in his own land, though it gave him shelter when treated with neglect by his own countrymen, and driven away from a royal court, Ex 2 22

The Jews' journey in the desert—a type of the Christian pilgrimage in ten points —

1 A journey from a house of bondage, the Jews worked in hot weather in Egypt, a land like a furnace, and were deprived of their children, so the righteous were slaves to Satan, and their offspring were heirs to misery, serving divers lusts, 1 Pet. 2 11 God says to them, as the angel did to Lot, "Escape for thy life, look not back," Gen. 19 17.

2 A journey through a dangerous desolate wilderness, hunger, fiery serpents, burning sand, flinty rock, a land of drought, of the shadow of death Deut. 8 15, so is this world, no food for the soul, temptations for the trial of faith, storms, quicksands of affliction, the enemies of the Christian are fear, Prov 22 13, unbelief, sloth, 1 Tim 5 13, covetousness, Mat. 16. 24, presumption.

3 A journey to a land of Promise the Jews in the wilderness saw this not, yet they had God's word for it, the stones were iron, a land of fountains flowing with milk and honey, Deut. 8 8, so the Patriarchs were not mindful of that country from whence they came out, Heb 11 15

4 A long and roundabout journey The Jews might have reached Canaan in one month instead of forty years, but thereby their trial and punishment were intended, Deut 8 2, so Christians have a variety of experience, joy, and sorrow, rest will be therefore more sweet

5 Rely on a heavenly guide coming up from the wilderness leaning on the beloved Cant. 3 8, underneath are the everlasting arms, Deut. 33 27 A journey under Divine Government, the Jews were few in Egypt yet kings were reprov'd for their sake, they multiplied in slavery, in Babylon God was with the Jews, but in the desert there was the pillar of cloud by day, of fire by night, they had angels food, their garments and shoes waxed not old, so Christ is with his Church to the end of the world, Mat 28 20, as an eagle over her young ones, Deut 32 11, they mount up with wings as eagles Is 40 31, there are various pretended ways but Christ is the true one

6 A journey with a happy termination, Jordan crossed, each sat under his vine and fig tree so a rest for God's people Is 35 10, all journeys in this world not certain of success

7 Enter by the straight way—of religious conviction their foot on the flesh their eye on the cross

8 Their Provision on the way bread from heaven

9 Perseverance—of all that came out of Egypt few entered Canaan so Lot's wife with regard to Sodom like man putting his hand to the plough and looking back, Luke 9 62

10 In motion always but towards home, Gen. 47 9

Afghan—To every one his home is Kashmir—i.e., very good

Badaga — A single coal burns not well, a single traveller finds the way heavy

Ramayan — As a man going to another village stays outside, and next day leaving that abode proceeds on his journey, so home and property are only men's resting places

Providence Rescues from a Horrible Pit—Ps 40 2

. This text alludes to the custom of digging pits to catch wild beasts and covering them with straw or dust, or such like things that they might not be discerned. The Psalmist in this as in some other passages of his writings, means by digging a pit to express the mischievous designs of the wicked who in trying to do him harm by their subtlety, treated him as men did wild beasts which they endeavoured to catch. Joseph was cast into a pit by his envious brethren where they would have left him to perish if Judah had not interposed on his behalf Gen 37 26

Pit also signifies the grave, and the Psalmist expresses the despair he should be in if God slighted him. He should become as a dead man lost and undone. Nothing is so painful to a gracious soul as the want of God's favour and the sense of his displeasure. His frowns are worse than death and the grave. 'Pit' also means trouble. Despondency of spirit under the sense of God's withdrawings and prevailing doubts and fears about our eternal state are like unto a horrible pit and nury clay. David found himself sinking more and more into inward disquiet and perplexity of spirit out of which he could not work himself

Atonement a Propitiation Through Faith in Christ.

1 JOH 3-2,

Christ's death as an atonement was typical by the Pashl Lahl Ex. 12, the smiting the rock Ex. 17 6, our sins are imputed to Christ, as Adam's were to us, Rom 5. 12-21; in England, when a woman is married, her husband is responsible for her debts; the Church is Christ's bride, and he pays her debts, so David was kind to the house of Saul for Jonathan's sake

The atonement was also typified by sacrificing the firstlings of the flock, Gen 4 4, by Isaac, about to be offered, Gen. 22 2, by the mercy seat not approached without blood, the scapegoat was type, Lev 16 21. The atonement is a washing out stains, Ps. 51. 2, a passing by, Mic. 7. 18, scattering a cloud that hides the sun, removing sin far away, Ps 103 12, healing, Ps 30 2 The brazen serpent which cured the Jews bitten by the snakes on their looking at it typified the eye of faith looking on Christ, curing the soul bitten by the serpent—sin

If the mercies of God be not loadstones to draw us to heaven, they will be millstones to sink us to perdition, the wicked are no better for mercies, as the Dead Sea or ocean is no sweeter from the rivers of fresh water that flow in.

Death Rest to the Righteous—Job 7 3. 3 17-19

Rest spiritual differs from worldly rest in four points —

The saints are weary of battling with their three great enemies—the world, the flesh, and the devil, like Job, 2 Pet 2 8 Paul wished to depart and be with Christ On Jewish monuments is this inscription "Rest in peace in Eden." This rest is not the rest of a stone, but is a change to a better state, not like the rest of Jonah in the whale's belly How strong was Job's wish for rest when he had to clean his burning boils with a potsherd 2 8, his flesh was clad with worms, 7 4, 5, his breath was corrupt, his bones cleaved to his skin, his friends knew him not, 19 14

The righteous ought not to be in death like a child compelled by the rod to give up play, but like one who,

- tired of play, wishes to go to bed, or like a seaman who only waits for a favourable wind to raise his anchor, 2 Thess. i 6, 7.

How faithfully does the labourer exert his strength, that he may honestly earn the hire for which he has undertaken to bear the burden and heat of the day ! Now and then he looks wistfully at the lengthening shadows, and notices how far the sun has gone down in the heavens Job 7. 2 Most welcome to him will be the hour of rest and payment, but he does not suffer himself to suspend his work until the time agreed upon is come The time for rest will come when the time for work is over Thus is man set upon the earth to work the work of God for an appointed season, and thus faithfully should he spend himself, and be spent in the service of his gracious Maker He owes to his Maker every faculty of soul and body, and that gracious Being has promised to all who serve him truly a rich reward when the day of life is over The reward, indeed, will be of grace and not of debt, for at best we are unprofitable servants, who have done only what it was our duty to do And which of us has done even so much ?

On the other hand, the grave to the wicked is a slaughter-house, death like a wolf feeds on them, like sheep they are laid in the grave where their beauty consumes, while the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning of the Resurrection Ps 49 14, Prov 7 22

Telugu —The man who has crossed a river and reached the shore, cares no longer for the hide sewn boat, why should the man who has attained happiness trouble himself about the body ? 2 Cor 5 1, Phil 3 13

Urdu —When I die, I shall get a good nap

Athabodha —Having crossed the sea of Fascination, and having killed the giants, Inclination, Aversion, the wise shall, married to Peace, enjoy repose of soul

He sparing the Rod hates his Son — Ps. 13 24

The bee sucks sweet honey out of the bitterest herb! So God will by afflictions teach his children to suck sweet knowledge, sweet obedience, out of all the bitter afflictions and trials he exercises them with, that scouring and rubbing which frets others, shall make them shine the brighter, that weight which crushes and keeps others under, shall but make them, like the palm-tree, grow better and higher. Stars shine brightest in the darkest night, torches give the best light when beaten, grapes yield most wine when most pressed, spices smell sweetest when pounded, vines are the better for bleeding, gold looks the brighter for scouring, the juniper smells sweetest in the fire.

Joseph's advancement might have been fatal to him, had he not been previously prepared for it by a long course of suffering. We should have looked upon him with concern, had we seen him in bonds and known his innocence. But God who had a far more indulgent and tender compassion for him, left him in a condition from which we would have delivered him. Gen. 37 23-36, 39 20, 21 23. So with the Israelites in the wilderness and God's love in subjecting them to such trials in it, Deut. 8 3-6, 15, 19.

Proud Nebuchadnezzar became humble after his awful punishment, Dan. 4 34-37. So with Jehoshaphat—God destroyed his fleet to disengage him from his connexion with wicked Ahaziah, 2 Chron. 20 35-37, and it seems to have had this effect, 1 Kings 22 49. It is a mercy to have that taken from us that takes us from God. The people of Judah were sent into captivity to Babylon for their good Jer. 24 5-7, and in this, as appears from Ezra, Ezra 9 10 and from Nehemiah, Neh. 9, the effect was good. Paul's thorn in the flesh was sent to preserve him from pride, 2 Cor. 12 7, these examples show that the gem cannot be polished without friction, nor man perfected without adversity, that affliction is an angel of mercy sent to lead us out of Sodom; that the way of the Cross is the royal way to the Crown, and that the waters, which drowned the world, only lifted up the ark.

Who shall see God?—MAT 5 2

Our knowledge of God in heaven is expressed by seeing in four points —

The Hindus express by darshan the privilege after a long pilgrimage of seeing the idol. Knowing God is explained by the emblem of seeing, because sight is (1) the clearest of the other senses, as light is given, so our knowledge comes from God, (2) the sense most universally exercised, (3) pleasant, Ecc 11 7, seeing a friend is very different from hearing about him, the eye is the window of the soul, (4) the most comprehensive the eye is never satisfied with seeing

Dirt loves not a sunbeam, nor the impure to see God, Gen. 3 8, 4 14 Moses saw God through Christ, Num. 22 8, so did Jacob, Gen. 32 30 Believers while pure walk in the light of God's countenance, like the moon dark when awry from the sun, bright when facing it

Sins like Scarlet made White as Snow —Is 1 18

Scarlet is obtained from the eggs of an insect found on the leaves of the oak in Spain, being bright is used for clothing, Saul's daughters wore it, 2 Sam 1 24 Neither dew, rain, washing, nor long wear can remove the scarlet dye, it is the fastest colour, so with sin the stain is not removed by ordinary means, a scarlet thread was fastened to the scapegoat on the day of atonement, white, on the other hand, was the emblem of purity, Rev 1. 14, hence the Nazarenes, a sect of the Jews, were said to be purer than snow, Lam. 4 7

Who are the Sealed Ones?—2 TIM 2 19

The Holy Spirit like a seal in three points —

The ancient Hebrews wore seals in rings on their fingers, and in bracelets on their arms. The wicked queen Jezebel wrote the condemnation of Naboth, whose death she plotted to get his vineyard for her husband Ahab, and sent it to the elders of Israel, signed with his seal, 1 Kings 21 8.

So the ambitious Haman sealed the decree of King Ahasuerus against the Jews with the king's seal, Esth 3 12, 8 8, it is afterwards stated that the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. The seal was a mark to prove that things were genuine, as in the above cases it showed that the royal authority was granted for the purposes named within, at other times, it was a pledge for fulfilling terms agreed on between two parties, and also to secure anything by closing it up. So God, when he seals us by his Holy Spirit, marks his image upon us. God is holy, and we cannot be marked with his seal unless we are made holy too. When the Holy Spirit so seals us, he also secures us to the day of redemption, as a thing is shut up from harm by being sealed up, in this way men seal up their writings and treasures, marking them with their own seal, that none may break in and steal them.

The Jews used to write on the head of a corpse with ink, "May he be in the bundle of life, Jehovah the Lord," this was called sealing the dead. The seal makes impressions like itself, so the believer is changed into the same image 2 Cor 3 18, the wax must be soft to receive the impression, Heb 10 16, so the heart, the wicked have stony hearts, the things are secured, so believers sealed on their forehead, Rev 7 3, they are a fountain sealed—i.e., secured against weather, sand, beasts Cant. 4 12, the sins of the wicked are sealed up in a bag—i e, not forgotten, but the seal of the Holy Spirit on the believer is God's image

The Woman's Seed bruises the Serpent's Head.

GEN 3 15.

In the Iceland Mythology the Deity is said to have bruised the Serpent's head, so among the Hindus Krishna tramples on the Serpent's head, who bites his heel.

Jesus Christ was the seed of the woman—i e, born of the Virgin Mary, he destroyed the Serpent's—i e, Satan's head, or power, the head of the Serpent is the seat of life. Satan is the old Serpent, Rev 12 9

Satan is like a serpent in five points —

1. Subtle, lies in wait in holes to catch his prey, so the Egyptians behaved to the Babylonians
 2. Poisonous, Deut. 32 24, yet Paul -by Divine aid shook off a viper, Acts 28 8
 3. Watches opportunity to sting, so Ahab could not sleep on account of Naboth's vineyard.
 4. Feeds on dust, Satan's food, sin
 5. Fair in appearance, 2 Cor 11. 14

Self-respect.

Syriac —Cut your vine with your own hand, not with the hand of others

Who are Servants of Christ?—2 TIM 2 24.

The Jews had a class of house servants, as the Hindus had, who were slaves sold for debt or by their parents, but among the Jews they were set free on the seventh year, unless they had with their own consent their ears bored with an awl, and fastened to the doorposts.

The devil's children are like them—bond slaves of sin. Believers were slaves to the world, the flesh, and the devil, but are redeemed by Christ, who freed them from hereditary bondage. Christians, though servants, as the sons of a king by regeneration, have a high dignity in the court of heaven, such a servant was Joshua to Moses, Elisha to Elijah. Moses was the servant of the Lord, Jos. 1. 2.

Christians are like good servants of Christ being appointed, Is 40 10, obedient, Luko 22. 27, trusted, Gen. 41 42, delight in work, act according to orders, Ex 25. 40, expect wages, render an account, Mat 18 23

Angels, though far higher in rank, power, and intellect than any kings of earth, yet act as servants. They took charge of a beggar's soul, when only the dogs attended to his body, these angels are called servants, Heb 1 14, they proclaimed their Master's will to Lot, Gen. 18, to Elijah, 2 Kings 1 3, to Daniel, 9 21, opposed God's enemies, so Michael fought with the dragon, Rev. 12 9, executed God's judgments in Egypt, Ex. 12 23, blinded the Sodomites, Gen. 19 11, and smote a king, Acts 12 23, defending the godly, they hold the four winds, Rev 7 1-3, they protected Elisha, 2 Kings 6 17, were guides, and carried Lazarus into Abraham's bosom, will be the reapers in the day of judgment, Mat 24 31

The Shield of Faith.—Eph 6 16

As the soul is the life of the body, faith is the life of the soul, and Christ the life of faith. Faith is the master wheel that sets the other wheels in motion. Faith is also compared to gold tried in the fire, 1 Pet 1 7

A shield was made of hides, or even gold, so as to be proof against fiery darts, it was large, so as to defend the vital parts, and movable to protect the head, arms, and chest.

* A shield made of iron warded off darts and sword cuts, so faith, spiritual assaults, 2 Kings 6 15 Abraham's servant committed him-self in trust, Gen 24, so Moses, Ex 33 15, Ruth 1. 16, Paul in prison, Acts 16 25

Affliction refines us the Fire does Silver — MAL 3 2

Affliction like refining silver in eleven points —

This simile is taken from the refiners, who in their crucible separate by fire the dross from the ore, so believers have the fiery trial of trouble, 1 Cor 3 13

1 A refiner's work is to try and refine metals, so affliction tries people's graces, Is. 48 10

2 The metal before refinement is full of dross, Mat 15 19 Job 25 4, so we are by nature sinners

3 The metal is not pliable before refinement, so our will is stubborn, Job said, God makes my heart soft, Job 23 16, Jer 9 7.

4 More fire required to hasten the work, so in heaviness through manifold temptation, 1 Pet 4 12

5 The dross removed makes the metal, though less in quantity, yet of more value Is 13 12

6 Refining required several times, so silver seven times refined. God has many modes of refining—fires, floods storm, disease, Ps 37 20

7. The fire is not for wasting the metal, but for purifying it chastened for our profit, Heb 12 2

8 Fine vessels made by this process 2 Tim 2 20

9 The refiner refines but a little at a time, God, however refines a kingdom. Alloy is put in to make metal pliable, but the Holy Spirit is the hammer of God's word

10 The metal is not left in the fire after purifying

11 The refiner uses fuel, so the wicked are God's fuel to refine the good, such were Pharaoh, Babylon made a burnt mountain, Jer 51. 25, the great captains, Rev. 6 17.

Tamul —Though gold be put into the fire to be refined, its hue is not lost

Canarese —Sandal wood in burning gives off perfumes; so the afflictions of the good, Heb 12 11.

Tamul —Rape seed and sugar cane are profitable when crushed

Raghuvansa —Iron by rust becomes soft, why not the soul by grief? 2 Cor 7. 10

Polish —He who does not understand how to pray, learns it when he goes to sea.

Chinese —Though the screen be torn, its form is still preserved Though the good man be in want, his virtue still remains

Afghan —Though the cloud be black, white water falls from it—etc. "a silver lining to the cloud"

What are the Doed sown for?—1 Cor 15 42

The Resurrection is called a morning, Ps 49 14, after the night of life, it makes things manifest, its sun comes out and joy arises Wonderful is the progress of the seed from its first to its second life, for it has two lives During its first life, it grows, and ripens in the plant which bears it, and then falls away to the earth out of which it grew But it has a second life after its resurrection from the earth, from whence it springs up with a life of its own, and with a new body From every seed grows a plant of the same kind with that which bore the seed. God giveth to every seed its own body

The Word of God teaches us to expect two lives The one is our present earthly life which we have of our parents, the other is the life which we shall have after we have been buried Our body will be a spiritual one, not an animal one, as now, having carnal appetites and desires For as the seed is not quickened except it die, so we cannot obtain eternal life, but by the way of death. The grave is as the furrow of the field in which the seed is sown, and as the sunshine of the spring raises the seed to life, so shall the Sun of Righteousness return to raise all those who are buried in the earth. The time is coming when they that are in their graves shall hear his voice, and come forth, as Lazarus came forth from the tomb when Jesus called him. The good seed of wheat and other grain is gathered for use, and laid up in the barn, as the righteous, when they die are gathered to their fathers, but the evil seeds of the thistle are blown about by the winds, and scattered over the face of the earth.

Our bodies every seven years change every particle, so the seed in the darkness of the ground decomposes, drawing its new body from earth, water, and air, until it becomes like the banyan or cotton tree, so the body in the grave may be like a worm, but it will become like a butterfly. Seeds in Egyptian mummies have germinated after a thousand years. We cast our rice seed into muddy waters, it sinks but soon a plentiful rice harvest appears.

Katha Upanishad—Like corn a mortal ripens, like corn he is produced again

Who is the Morning Star?—Rev 22 16.

Angels are called morning stars, as being made in the morning of creation Job 38 7. The dawn said in the Vedas "to be born in the eastern quarter of the firmament, displaying a banner of light bringing health to human habitations, many titled," angels as the morning star beautiful, so Stephens face when dying like an angel. Acts 6 15, Satan was called Lucifer—i.e., an angel of light.

The morning star called the day star, arising in the hearts, 2 Pet. 1 9, the King of Assyria is so called, Is. 14 12, as Babylon was the first of kingdoms,

Christ like the Morning Star in nine points —

1. Solid light, twinkles not, fixed in its orb, so no intermission in Christ, his spiritual light the same yesterday, to-day, and for ever, Heb. 13 8, so Christ will never leave, Heb. 13 5, Mat. 28. 20

2 Harbinger of the sun, so when the day spring came, people that sat in darkness saw the light, Mat. 4 16, forerunner of the morning of the resurrection, 1's 49 14, the night of life is far spent, the day of resurrection is at hand, Rom. 13 11, 12

3 Ornaments the heavens, beautiful to see, so is Christ above Moses, Ps. 47 1, David in his day said I shall be satisfied when I awake after his likeness, Ps. 17 15, Paul said I have a desire to depart, Ph. 1 23

4 Guides mariners, when they have lost the polar star, so Christ, the light of life warns against the rocks and shoals of the world, the flesh and the devil, in the ocean of life

5 Most useful in country darkness, so are Christ's offices, now of prophet priest and king in this dark world

6 A star of the first magnitude, John, Peter, James were stars but Christ, though the offspring of David was the brightness of the Father's glory, Heb. 1 3

7 Terrible to thieves, indicating the departure of darkness so Satan, at the dawn of redemption attempted Christ's destruction in the temple, Mat. 4 5, Jews said, let us kill the heir Mat. 21 38, the Jews led Christ to the brow of the hill Luke 4 29, so the devils thought he was come to torment them before the time, Mat. 8 29

8 The same as the evening star so Christ is the Alpha and Omega the author and finisher of our salvation, Rev. 1 8, Heb. 12 2

9 Clouds hinder not its course, so Christ will come and will not tarry, Heb. 10 37, Galileo said, men may imprison me for believing the earth moves, but it moves

*It is hard to kick against the pricks, Acts 9 5, the blood of the martyrs was the seed of the Church.

The morning star is created, Christ made the heavens, Ps 102 25, is of a fiery red colour Christ is meek, a mild light, the morning star and sun are different, Christ is both. The morning star gives light only by night, Christ is an everlasting light, Is 60 20, the morning star enlightens only this world, Christ both worlds. The morning star shall be dissolved, Christ never, Heb 13 8

The Storm of God's Wrath.—Is 25 4.

The wrath of God wreaks itself by various agencies, Dent 28 22, heaven is represented as our Father's house, a marriage feast the household of God, while earth is stormy, but Christ is a hiding place from the wind. Earthquakes have destroyed cities, as Lisbon, so the blast of the Prince of the Power of the Air blew down Eden, hence David wished for the wings of a dove, when assailed by storm of calumny, Ps 55 6, so many make shipwreck of faith.

God's wrath compared to a winepress, Rev 14 19, to wiping out as a dish as God did Jerusalem, 2 Kings 21 13

God's storm is of God's sending, as in Jonah's case, Jonah 1 4, hail showers destroyed the Amorites, wind buried the Egyptians like lead in the sea Ex. 15 10, brimstone was rained on Sodom, Gen. 19 24, so Tophet was ordained of old, Is 30 33

The sinner first raised it, Is 17 15

Storms are of fearful violence, Ps 107 27, in a storm ships mount up to heaven and stagger like a drunken man, so the great day of wrath is come and who will be able to stand? Rev 6 17.

Aerial storms are fierce but short.

Who are Strangers on Earth?

HEB 11 9

The righteous like strangers on earth in five points —

A traveller sat by a well in a wilderness, he had been expelled from his country because he took the part of slaves against their royal oppressors. He quenched his thirst and showed his politeness to several maidens, and procuring drink for their flocks, invited to their house, he spent forty years there in seclusion as a shepherd. A son was born to him, named Gershom or the stranger, the father's name was Moses.

David, though a king, acknowledged he was a stranger on earth, 1 Chron 29 15, saints are citizens of the New Jerusalem, Heb 12 22, being born from above, they have a new fatherland, they therefore rejoice as though they rejoiced not, 1 Cor 7 30, they abstain from fleshly lusts, 1 Pet 2 11, take joyfully the spoiling of their goods, 2 Cor 4 8, 9, fall not out with their companions on the way, Gen 45 24. Abraham left his country because it was idolatrous, Josh 21 2, 3. The patriarchs lived in tents to show they were strangers.

The righteous are strangers on earth as to—(1) place, heaven is their home as they are born anew, the earth to them is like a wilderness with its brackish water, burning sands, fierce storms such as are in Central Asia, (2) the people, worldly people have the devil as their father, believers in God bear the image of the heavenly, (3) employment, while one does the works of the flesh, the other does those of the Spirit, minding the one thing needful, their God is not their belly, (4) manners, believers are clothed with humility, roll not sin as a sweet morsel under their tongue, they have put off the old man, (5) language, believers talk of subjects which are sealed to the world &c., they have little intercourse with worldly people.

Believers as pilgrims or travellers finding no rest for , their soul on earth, carefully consider the cost, the difficulty, the danger, of their journey to Heaven, wisely they put on the light, the new, the defensive, and never worn out garments of salvation, and take to them the whole armour of God, for their safety against foes. Wisely they receive Jesus and his fulness as their gold, their treasure, to bear their expenses on the way. They receive his father for their companion, his Spirit to be their guide, his word to be their director and compass; his love, his power, and promises for their supporting staff. Carefully they ask for the good well beaten old way of holiness, and continue walking therein, sweetly they drink out of its wells of salvation and refresh themselves, but do not tarry in the inns of ordinances built close at hand! Now their duty is pleasant and easy, anon it is rugged and difficult. Now, they enjoy the fine weather of peace and prosperity, clear views of Jesus and his countenance, wide prospects of his loveliness and love, clear discoveries of the vanity of this world, of the happiness of their present, and of the glory of their future state, anon they are distressed with cold winters of trouble storms of temptation, dark nights of sin and disorder, that they know not what to do, or whither to go. How oft fearfully pinched for provision! How oft the wells of promises seem dry, and inns of ordinances are found empty! How oft exposed to the gazing ridicule, and malice of carnal men! How oft by Satan and their lusts harassed and robbed of their grace or its evidence! How oft tempted like Lot's wife to turn back! But through every tribulation they push forward to the city, the celestial kingdom of God, and with so much more cheerfulness, if they enjoy the company of eminent saints, they go from strength to strength till they appear before God in Zion. They are called strangers and sojourners with God on earth. How strange to carnal men is their state of union and communion with Christ! How strange their birth from above! Their having God their father! Christ their husband! Glorified saints their principal people! In what strange what celestial country, are their portion, their inheritance, their hopes their affections, their thoughts their desires! With what strange robe of divine righteousness implanted grace and Gospel holiness are they decked! What strange armour of God they have put on! How strangely they speak the spiritual language of prayer and praise! Pour out their hearts, behave as becomes the high calling of God! Walk with Father, Son and Holy Ghost whom the world see and know not! Feed on the strange provision of Jesus person, righteousness and benefits! How employed in the unknown labour of numbering their days, of considering their latter end, of ploughing up the fallow ground of their heart, of sowing to themselves in righteousness, of buying without money and without price, of denying and loathing themselves, of warring with principalities powers and spiritual wickedness, of renouncing the profit pleasure, and honour of this world, of extracting good from evil and sweet out of bitter, of loving their enemies, and rendering them blessing for cursing

The Sun of Righteousness with Healing on his Wings

MAL 4. 2

In the Vedas the sun is called ray diffuser deep quivering life bestowing golden handed the eye of the universe the soul of all that moves

In Judea every morning about sunrise a fresh breeze blows from the sea across the land, from its utility in purifying the infected air it is called the doctor, this salubrious breeze which attends the rising of the sun may be considered the wings of the sun. So Christ is the one mediator the sun of our system, he is the eye of the world gives light to all drives away gloom, like the sun he operates differently hardens clay and softens wax, eclipses the light of the stars by his own Flowers as the tulip and marigold open to the solar so do believers hearts to Christ's beams

Sick or delicate people generally feel worse during night when the sun ceases to shine, the morning dawn often revives them after a bad night All the candles in the world put together could not give a light equal to that of day, which can come only from the sun, so with human intelligence compared to Christ.

The sun shines on all penetrates deeply exhales the noxious vapours from the earth cheers by its light veiled sometimes by clouds it soon disperses them and the light of the stars grows pale before it

The sun is the source of light and beauty without it all is gloom and dulness David calls it God's tabernacle, in Chaldea they worshipped the sun, we are to use it however, to lead us unto God as our rock is an emblem of God's unchangeableness and of his being the foundation of inexhaustible overflowing benevolence

As the sun is a type of God's effulgence and energy so the term Sun of Righteousness is peculiarly applicable to Christ.

Christ is like the sun in four points —

1 The sun is the centre of the planets his attraction is an adamantine chain which hanging on nothing keeps the planets in their place so Christ is the head of the Church
Eph 5 23 Look not to yourselves but to Christ.
Thirty planets with orbits millions of miles in diameter some performing their revolution in a century move round this sun, so Christ is the head of all principalities and of angels Eph 1 21

the same yesterday, to day, and for ever, but the sun has spots, in the Spiritual Sun there is no darkness, 1 John 1 5 The sun, however, shall wax old as a garment, not so Christ Heb 1 12 The sun was stopped by Joshua, not so the Sun of Righteousness, various rays from the sun concentrate in the rainbow, so Gods attributes blended in Christ's—righteousness and peace have kissed each other, Ps 135 10 Christ seen of angels, received into glory the gaze of Intelligences in other regions of creation

3 The sun is the source of light, heat, beauty in Christ is the true light, John 1 7, the day spring from on high Light reveals things as a ray does particles of dust so the publican found Luke 18 13 The sun's light awakens life in the spring so in Ezekiel's valley of dry bones the breath of life, Ez 37

4 The sun's rising is gradual but punctual, so Christ illuminated first the Jews then the heathen

Atmaboda Prakashika—Knowledge overcomes ignorance as sunlight darkness

Rig Veda—The dawn, the breath and life of all that breathes and lives, awaking day by day myriads of prostrate sleepers as from death, causing the birds to flutter from their nests, and rousing men to ply with busy feet their daily duties

Katha Upanishad—As the sun the eye of the whole world, is not sullied by the defects of external objects, so the inner soul of all beings is not sullied by the misery of the world

The Sword of the Spirit—Eph 6 17, Heb 4 12

There are two words of God one written on paper—the Bible the other written by the Spirit on the heart Christ is also called the word of God as being the Eternal Son

God's revelation is compared to—a letter from the father of mercies to his children at school—a banquet where all are invited—a prism which only glistens when in the light—a portrait of an absent friend—a storehouse of spiritual weapons—a telescope revealing the glories of the upper world. David compares it to silver tried in a furnace of earth seven times refined, Ps 12. 6.

Heavenly Treasures in Earthen Vessels.—2 Cor. 4. 7.

The body is compared to an earthen vessel, as being brittle, leaky, mean, of little value, yet it has the souls treasure in it, as the Bengalis say—"like fine rice in a torn bag"

Treasure in earthen vessels may refer to the lamps which were concealed in Gideon's pitchers till they were broken, when he alarmed the army of the Midianites while asleep in their camp, Judg 7 16 So the Gospel is put into earthen vessels, and proves a glorious light to some, while it is hidden to others Christ says lay not up treasures on earth, Mat. 6 19, or in an earthen house easily dug through by robbers

The Gospel is a treasure, for the reception of it into our hearts makes us "rich in faith," presents to us "the unsearchable riches of Christ," and teaches us to lay up for ourselves "durable riches and righteousness" The dying believer, though ever so rich in this world, loses everything at last which he has in it, but, if he has Christ for his portion, he is richer than all the world he leaves behind him, for everything belonging to the world must perish—moth and rust consume them—but nothing can deprive us of this treasure, "for who shall separate us from the love of Christ?"

Bengal —Even in sweet mangoes worms breed

Bengal —Families and water descend—i.e., decay

Tumul —A crooked pot will hold sugar

Aurd —The camel carries sugar, eats thorns

Sanskrit — A diamond is trodden under foot, and glass is worn on the head, even in that stage glass is glass and a gem a gem

Mahabharat — Neither mother, nor children, nor kinsmen, nor dear familiar friends follow a man in death, he departs alone. The deeds alone which he has done ore his fellow-travellers

Man revives not as a Tree — Job 14. 7, 12

The Romans made trees a symbol of death, planted those in burial places, from whose roots no germs arise, such as the pine, cyprus. Man does not revive to return from death to the scenes of his earthly occupations, not so a tree. Night comes, but so does the morning, with fresh fragrance glittering with dew. Winter ravages, but the embryo blossom survives and spring comes. When the trunk of the tree is cut down, it dies not altogether, life remains within, but man cut down does not spring up again

China — Withered trees in spring burst forth afresh, but man cannot be twice young

Japan — Flowers on a dead tree

Japan — The flower returns not to the branch

Who walks with God? — Gen 5 22

Spiritual life material walking in five points —

Communion with God is represented by going up through the wilderness, leaning on the Beloved, Cant. 8 5, with hope and earnest desire to obtain the better country

Walking refers to religious conduct. Thus Enoch walked with God, and he was not, Gen 5 24, Noah walked before God Gen 6 9, Josiah after the Lord, 2 Kings 23 3, believers walk in the spirit Gal 5 25, the Churches, after Paul's conversion walked in the comforts of the Holy Ghost, Acts 9 31; Nebuchadnezzar condemned those that walked in pride, Dan. 4 37.

Walking implies—(1) Life, the believer has a resurrection from the death of sin, Gal. 5. 24; (2) Light, to see the road; (3) Motion, not mere knowing, but doing, 1 Kings 11. 38, (4) Progress, steady, like an elephant, not by jerks as a goat goes; Paul forgot the things behind in pressing on, Phil. 3 13, (5) Perseverance, so Hezekiah on his death-bed, 2 Kings, 20. 3; (6) a Road, the old path trodden by Abel, and marked out by sacrifices; (7) an Object, through the wilderness to the heavenly Canaan; circumspectly, "like a cat on a wall covered with bottles."

Walking in noble company is a great privilege for an inferior, Christians were slaves to Satan, converted, they walk with God as their Father. Thus did Enoch walk with God, and he was not, for God took him, Gen. 5. 22.

The Holy Spirit like Water.—REV 22 1

The Gospel is the ministration of the Spirit; hence the Spirit with his gifts is often compared to water, as Christ said to the woman of Samaria, John 4 14

The Holy Spirit like water in nine points —

1. Water comes from the ocean and clouds and returns to them; so the Holy Spirit the Comforter comes from the Father the Ocean of Being, John 15 26

2 Cleanses the soul from sin, 1 Cor 6 11, John 15. 3; so Christ's blood through the Eternal Spirit, Heb 13. 14, 1 Pet. 1. 22

3. Cools; so evil desires cooled by the Holy Spirit, 1 John 1 7, Saul's lust of blood was cooled, Acts 9 20, but Dives begged for water to cool his tongue, Luke 16. 24

4. Fructifies, man naturally is as the wild heath in the desert from drought, not like grass kept green. Zacheus the publican on his conversion, cried out, "The half of my goods I gave to the poor," Luke 19 8, so those who laid their money at the Apostles' feet, Acts 4 37.

5 Softens, Ps 65 10 Water softens and prepares the earth for the plough Saul so fierce, cried out, "What wilt thou have me to do," Acts 9 6 Three thousand were pricked to the heart, Acts 2. 37.

6 Quenches thirst. The desires of the soul are only satisfied by the Holy Spirit

7 Accessible to all, cheap, Is 55 1 Ho! every one athirst come to the river of water of life, Rev. 22. 7.

8 Extinguishes fire, so the fire of passion and of pride is extinguished Too much earthy water may surfeit, it may become muddy The Romans symbolized diseases by muddy waters One of their punishments was to throw a criminal into a lake of muddy water Many go long distances to get good water, but the Spiritual Water is in the reach of all The water of purification among the Jews was mingled with the ashes of the red heifer being sprinkled by a branch of hyssop on the unclean party and he was purified, Ex. 12 22 God will sprinkle clean water on the wicked

9 Penetrates easily, so the Spirit is poured out, floods on the dry ground, Joel 2 28, Is 44 3

THE WAY TO HEAVEN.—JOHN 14 6.

The way to heaven differs from earthly ways in nine points —

The Hindus call panth or way the line of doctrine of any sect followed in order to attain to mukti or deliverance from sin Way signifies the chief means to an end, and is applied to the Scriptures, Ps 119 27, to God's counsels to God's works This spiritual way is—(1) easy to find Is 35 8, (2) clean, no mud of sin, (3) never out of repair Christ the same now as 6000 years ago,

(4) no lion or wild beasts on, (5) costly, the blood of Christ made it, (6) not lonely, many believers on it, Heb 12 1, (7) no toll, all may come, (8) wide, Christ sends out to the highways and hedges, Mat. 22 9 The way to the cities of refuge was forty eight feet wide The map of the Bible shows this path, (9) the end pleasant—Heaven.

The veil that was hung before the Holy of Holies, and which none might pass through, but the high priest once a year, signified to us that there was no direct way to Heaven under the law “By the law is the knowledge of sin,” not the means of deliverance from the power or punishment of sin And by the rending of the veil at the time of our Saviour’s death was signified that a way was henceforth opened to the penitent unto life eternal, even by the blood of Jesus Christ In the passage—“I am the way, the truth, and the life, our Lord meant, “I am the way to Heaven. He had just before told his disciples, that he was soon going to leave them, and to prepare a place for them, meaning that he was going to Heaven, and there they should follow, and be happy with him for ever But his disciples did not quite understand him, and when he said, “Whither I go ye know, and the way ye know, Thomas replied, ‘Lord, we know not whither thou goest, and how can we know the way?’ Christ meant, that he was going to Heaven, and that there was no getting there but through him, just as a way leads to a place, or, in other words, we must follow him and he will show us the way, for like him we must have holy lives like him we must pass through the grave like him our bodies must rise again.

Christ a Well of Water — JOHN 4. 14, ZECH 13 1

These words were uttered by Christ when wearied and thirsty in the heat of the day, he drank well water received from a Samaritan woman — a precious Wells were greatly valued in deserts, hence the march of caravans was regulated by the wells, Ex 15 27, Lot's and Abraham's herdsmen strove about the possession of a well, Gen 26 15 But wells often dry up, or are filled up with sand Christ the same always the wicked are compared to wells without water, 2 Pet 2 17 See Fountain, p 38.

The Holy Spirit's Influence like the Wind — JOHN 3 5 8

The Holy Spirit's influence like wind in six points —

We see not the wind itself, but we see what it does, whether when the forest is bowed by some mighty tempest, as in a cyclone, or when the corn waves under the gentle breeze, soft as the dew, and the flowers of the garden give out their fragrance as they tremble at its softest touch

It is thus with God's Holy Spirit It is mysterious in its coming and in its influence Unseen itself, it is seen in its effects The mighty change which the world has undergone, since first the doctrine of the Cross was preached by peasants of Judea, with no human aid to support them, is the work of the unseen but ever present Spirit, by which the false philosophies and vain superstitions have fallen before the truth, as Dagon before the ark, 1 Sam 5 3

The Holy Spirit like the wind in six points —

The wind is—(1) invisible, though its effects are seen in cyclones when it travels at 120 miles an hour, so the Spirit's influence in conversion, (2) comes at God's command, he gathers the winds in his fist Prov. 30 4, (3) purifies, drives bad vapours away, so grace does evil passions; (4) penetrates, passes through a large city and over hundreds of miles; (5) various, the north wind piercing, the south wind warming; so the Holy Spirit rebukes some, comforts others, tempests destroy big ships and large trees; (6) sets in motion; we cannot sail across the ocean of life without the wind of the Spirit. Providence has his way in the sea, and he flies on the wings of the wind, Ps. 18. 10.

- Aimabodha Prālasīla.—The Spirit is in contact with matter without being contaminated by it, just as the crystal permits the colour of the cloth to be seen through it without being in any way defiled by it.

Christ's Yoke easy and his Burthen light.—MAT 11 28-30.

Asses or oxen are yoked or harnessed to a cart, sometimes this yoke is heavy, and the burthen of the cart falls on the neck, which becomes chafed, the animal is, however, the property of the owner, who does what he likes. Men are under the yoke of Satan, they are slaves, and Christ comes with the ransom money. Bullocks often, though well-fed, do not like to submit to the yoke, and kick against it, Jer 31 18, but must at last submit, so the sinner must bridle his tongue and passions—he must not be stiff-necked.

TRÜBNER'S ORIENTAL SERIES.

MESSRS TRÜBNER & CO beg to call attention to their : ORIENTAL SERIES, in which will be collected, as far as possible, all extant information and research upon the History, Religions, Languages, Literature, &c., of Ancient India, China, and the East in general

The ORIENTAL SERIES will be on a comprehensive design, and no labour or expense will be spared to render the undertaking worthy of its subject. Messrs. TRÜBNER & Co have already secured the services of eminent Eastern students and writers; and while the labour proposed must necessarily prove vast, they intend to accomplish it by working with many able hands over the whole field, under careful and well-organised Editorship

THE FOLLOWING WORKS ARE NOW READY —

Second Edition, post 8vo, cloth, pp xv.—427, price 16s.

ESSAYS ON THE SACRED LANGUAGE, WRITINGS, AND RELIGION OF THE PARSIS

By MARTIN HAUG, Ph D,

Late of the Universities of Tübingen, Göttingen, and Bonn, Superintendent of Sanskrit Studies, and Professor of Sanskrit in the Poona College.
Honorary Member of the Bombay Branch Royal Asiatic Society, &c.

EDITED BY DR. E. W. WEST

- I History of the Researches into the Sacred Writings and Religion of the Parsis from the Earliest Times down to the Present
- II. Languages of the Parsi Scriptures.
- III. The Zend Avesta, or the Scripture of the Parsis.
- IV. The Zoroastrian Religion, as to its Origin and Development.

* The Author of these Essays intended, after his return from India, to expand them into a comprehensive work on the Zoroastrian religion but this design postponed from time to time, was finally frustrated by his untimely death. That he was not spared to publish all his varied knowledge on this subject must remain for ever a matter of regret to the student of Iranian antiquities. In other hands, the changes that could be introduced into this Second Edition were obviously limited to such additions and alterations as the lapse of time and the progress of Zoroastrian studies have rendered necessary.

In the First Essay, the history of the European researches has been extended to the present time; but for the sake of brevity several writings have been passed over unnoticed, among the more valuable of which those of Professor Hübschmann may be specially mentioned. Some account has also been given of the progress of Zoroastrian studies among the Parsis themselves.

In the Second Essay, additional information has been given about the Pahlavi language and literature; but the technical portion of the Avesta Grammar has been reserved for separate publication, being better adapted for students than for the general reader.

Some additions have been made to the Third Essay, with the view of bringing together, from other sources, all the author's translations from the Avesta, except those portions of the Gâthas which he did not include in the First Edition, and which it would be hazardous for an Editor to revise. Further details have also been given regarding the contents of the Nasks.

Several additional translations having been found among the author's papers, too late for insertion in the Third Essay, have been added in an Appendix, after careful revision, together with his notes descriptive of the mode of performing a few of the Zoroastrian ceremonies.

The Author's principal object in publishing these Essays originally, was to present in a readable form all the materials for judging impartially of the scriptures and religion of the Parsis. The same object has been kept in view while preparing this Second Edition, giving a large quantity of such materials, collected from a variety of sources, which may now be left to the reader's impartial judgment.

The value of this Second Edition is greatly enhanced by the addition of many posthumous papers, discovered by the Editor, Dr H. West, at Munich. They consist of further translations from the Zend and Pahlavi of the Zend Avesta and also of numerous detailed notes descriptive of some of the Parsi ceremonies.

"Valuable as exhibiting the doctrine of the Buddhists in its purest, least adulterated form it brings the modern reader face to face with that simple creed and mode of conduct which won its way over the minds of myriads, and which is now nominally professed by 145 millions who have overlaid its austere simplicity with innumerable ceremonies, forgotten its maxims, perverted its teaching, and so inverted its leading principle that a religion whose founder denied a God, now worships that founder as a god himself."—Scotsman.

THE HISTORY OF INDIAN LITERATURE

By ALBRECHT WEBER.

Translated from the Second German Edition by JOHN MANN, M.A., and THÉODOR ZACHARIAE, Ph.D., with the sanction of the Author.

Dr BÜHLER, Inspector of Schools in India, writes—"I am extremely glad to learn that you are about to publish an English translation of Professor A. Weber's 'History of Indian Literature.' When I was Professor of Oriental Languages in Elphinstone College, I frequently felt the want of such a work to which I could refer the students. I trust that the work which you are now publishing will become a class-book in all the Indian colleges, as it is the first and only scientific one which deals with the whole field of Vedic, Sanskrit, and Prakrit literature."

Professor COWELL, of Cambridge writes—"The English translation of Professor A. Weber's 'History of Indian Literature' will be of the greatest use to those who wish to take a comprehensive survey of all that the Hindoo mind has achieved. It will be especially useful to the students in our Indian colleges and universities. I used to long for such a book when I was teaching in Calcutta. Hindu students are intensely interested in the history of Sanskrit literature and this volume will supply them with all they want on the subject. I hope it will be made a text book wherever Sanskrit and English are taught."

Professor WHITNEY, Yale College, Newhaven, Conn., U.S.A. writes—"I am the more interested in your enterprise of the publication of Weber's Sanskrit Literature in an English version, as I was one of the class to whom the work was originally given in the form of academic lectures. At their first appearance they were by far the most learned and able treatment of their subject, and with their recent additions they still maintain decidedly the same rank. Wherever the language and institutions, and history of India are studied, they must be used and referred to as authority."

A SKETCH OF THE MODERN LANGUAGES OF THE EAST INDIES

By ROBERT N. CUST

The Author has attempted to fill up a vacuum, the inconvenience of which pressed itself on his notice. Much had been written about the languages of the East Indies, but the extent of our present knowledge had not even been brought to a focus. Information on particular subjects was only to be obtained or looked for by consulting a specialist and then hunting down the numbers of a serial or the chapters of a volume not always to be found. It occurred to him that it might be of use to others to publish in an arranged form the notes which he had collected for his own education. Thus the work has grown upon him.

The book before us is then a valuable contribution to philological science. It passes under review a vast number of languages and it gives, or professes to give, in every case the sum and substance of the opinions and judgments of the best informed writers. —Saturday Review

THE BIRTH OF THE WAR-GOD.

A Poem. By KALIDĀSA.

Translated from the Sanskrit into English Verse by RALPH T. H. GRIFFITH, M.A.

"Mr Griffith's very spirited rendering of the Kumarasambhara, first published twenty six years ago, is well known to most who are at all interested in Indian literature, or enjoy the tenderness of feeling and rich creative imagination of its author"—Indian Antiquary.

"We are very glad to welcome a second edition of Professor Griffith's admirable translation of the well known Sanskrit poem, the Kumarasambhara. Few translations deserve a second edition better"—Athenaeum.

A CLASSICAL DICTIONARY OF HINDU MYTHOLOGY AND RELIGION, GEOGRAPHY, HISTORY, AND LITERATURE

By JOHN DOWSON, M.R.A.S.,

Late Professor of Hindustani, Staff College

In this work an endeavour has been made to supply the long felt want of a Hindu Classical Dictionary. The late Professor Wilson projected such a work, and forty years ago announced his intention of preparing it for the Oriental Translation Fund, but he never accomplished his design. The main portion of this work consists of mythology, but religion is bound up with mythology, and in many points the two are quite inseparable. Of history, in the true sense, Sanskrit possesses nothing, or next to nothing, but what little has been discovered here finds its place. The chief geographical names of the old writers also have received notice, and their localities and identifications are described so far as present knowledge extends. Lastly, short descriptions have been given of the most frequently mentioned Sanskrit books, but only of such books as are likely to be found named in the works of English writers.

This work will be a book of reference for all concerned in the government of the Hindus, but it will be more especially useful to young Civil Servants and to masters and students in the universities, colleges, and schools in India.

"It is no slight gain when such subjects are treated fairly and fully in a moderate space, and we need only add that the few wants which we may hope to see supplied in new editions detract but little from the general excellence of Mr. Dowson's work."—Saturday Review

SELECTIONS FROM THE KORAN.

By EDWARD WILLIAM LANE,

Hon. Doctor of Literature, Leyden, Correspondent of the Institute of France; Hon. Member of the German Oriental Society, the Royal Asiatic Society, &c., Translator of "The Thousand and One Nights," Author of an "Arabic-English Lexicon," &c.

A New Edition, Revised and Enlarged with an Introduction by STANLEY JANE POOLE.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

There has always been a wish to know something about the sacred book of the Mohammedans, and it was with the design of satisfying this wish, whilst avoiding the weariness and the disgust which a complete perusal of the Koran must produce, that Mr. Lane arranged the "Selections" which were published in 1843. It has proved of considerable service to students of Arabic, who have found it the most accurate rendering in existence of a large part of the Koran, and even native Muslims of India, ignorant of Arabic, have used Lane's "Selections" as their Bible.

"Mr. Poole is both a generous and a learned biographer. Mr. Poole tells us the facts so far as it is possible for industry and criticism to ascertain them, and for literary skill to present them in a condensed and readable form."—Englishman, Calcutta.

METRICAL TRANSLATIONS FROM SANSKRIT WRITERS

With an Introduction, many Prose Versions, and Parallel Passages from Classical Authors.

Dr J. MUIR, C.I.E., D.C.L., LL.D., Ph.D.

The present embraces the contents of the little work entitled "Religious and Moral Sentiments metrically rendered from Sanskrit Writers, &c." published by Messrs. WILLIAMS & NORGATE in 1875 together with Three collections of Versified Translations subsequently printed but not published, and a reprint of the metrical pieces contained in Volumes II and V of the author's "Original Sanskrit Texts," &c.

"A volume which may be taken as a fair illustration alike of the religious and moral sentiments and of the legendary lore of the best Sanskrit writers."—Edinburgh Daily Review

MODERN INDIA AND THE INDIANS,

BEING A SERIES OF IMPRESSIONS, NOTES, AND ESSAYS

By MONIER WILLIAMS, D.C.L.,

Hon. LL.D. of the University of Calcutta, Hon. Member of the Bombay Asiatic Society, Boden Professor of Sanskrit in the University of Oxford.

Third Edition, revised and augmented by considerable additions, with Illustrations and a Map.

This edition will be found a great improvement on those that preceded it. The author has taken care to avail himself of all such criticisms on particular passages in the previous editions as appeared to him to be just and he has enlarged the work by more than a hundred pages of additional matter. The chapter on the "Villages and Rural Population of India," and several other sections of the work, are quite new.

"In this volume we have the strongest impressions of a thoughtful man on some of the most important questions connected with our Indian Empire. An enlightened observer and traveller, among an enlightened and observant people, Professor Monier Williams has brought before the public in a pleasant form one of the manners and customs of the Queen's Indian subjects that we ever remember to have seen in contribution to the study of Modern India—a subject with which we should be especially familiar—but he does not do so with the same object which we should be familiar with and Monier Williams's clear exposition of their manners, their customs, their occupations."—Times.
